Models of Psychological Space John Eliot, 2012-12-06 Models of Psychological Space begins the reformulation of the construct of psychological space by bringing together in one volume a sampling of theoretical models from the psychometric developmental and experimental approaches The author also discusses five general issues which cut across these three approaches namely age related differences sex related differences trainability imagery processing solutions and the effect of stimulus dimensionality upon spatial performance Models of Psychological Space provides an overview of a significant construct which has many researchable ideas and which should be of interest to scholars from a wide range of disciplines

Development of Mental Representation Irving E. Sigel, 2013-06-17 There is a general and extensive literature in the development of representational thought and symbolic processes because of its centrality in human evolution However the umbrella of science and its method does not necessarily lead to a coherent conceptual model or agreements among scholars These basic differences among various disciplines have led to the creation of new and exciting realms of research This book considers how representational or symbolic thought develops for children s use in a wide array of these circumstances

The Wiley-Blackwell Handbook of Childhood Cognitive Development Usha Goswami, 2013-11-11 This definitive volume is the result of collaboration by top scholars in the field of children s cognition New edition offers an up to date overview of all the major areas of importance in the field and includes new data from cognitive neuroscience and new chapters on social cognitive development and language Provides state of the art summaries of current research by international specialists in different areas of cognitive development Spans aspects of cognitive development from infancy to the onset of adolescence Includes chapters on symbolic reasoning pretend play spatial development abnormal cognitive development and current theoretical perspectives Spatial Schemas and Abstract Thought Merideth Gattis, 2003 Proposes the means by which spatial structures might be adapted for nonspatial purposes and it considers alternatives to spatial coding as a basis for abstract thought Blackwell Handbook of Childhood Cognitive Development Usha

Goswami, 2008-04-15 This definitive volume provides state of the art summaries of current research by leading specialists in different areas of cognitive development Forms part of a series of four Blackwell Handbooks in Developmental Psychology spanning infancy to adulthood Covers all the major topics in research and theory about childhood cognitive development Synthesizes the latest research findings in an accessible manner Includes chapters on abnormal cognitive development and theoretical perspectives as well as basic research topics Now available in full text online via xreferplus the award winning reference library on the web from xrefer For more information visit www.xreferplus.com Maps and Mapping in

Children's Literature Nina Goga, Bettina Kümmerling-Meibauer, 2017-08-15 Maps and Mapping in Children s Literature is the first comprehensive study that investigates the representation of maps in children s books as well as the impact of mapping on the depiction of landscapes seascapes and cityscapes in children s literature The chapters in this volume pursue a comparative approach as they represent a wide spectrum of diverse genres and national children's literatures by examining a wealth of children's books from Canada Denmark Germany Italy Norway Russia the United Kingdom and the USA The theoretical and methodological approaches range from literary studies developmental psychology maps and geography literacy ecocriticism historical contextualization with both new historicist and political historical leanings and intermediality to materialist cartographies cultural studies island studies and genre studies By this this volume aims at embedding children's literature in a broader field of literary and cultural studies thus situating children's literature research within a general context of literary theory

Cognitive Diagnostic Assessment for Learning Peida Zhan, Feiming Li, Hong Jiao, 2022-01-19 Visuospatial Reasoning Kay Owens, 2014-11-07 This book develops the theoretical perspective on visuospatial reasoning in ecocultural contexts granting insights on how the language gestures and representations of different cultures reflect visuospatial reasoning in context For a number of years two themes in the field of mathematics education have run parallel with each other with only a passing acquaintance These two areas are the psychological perspective on visuospatial reasoning and ecocultural perspectives on mathematics education This volume examines both areas of research and explores the intersection of these powerful ideas In addition there has been a growing interest in sociocultural aspects of education and in particular that of Indigenous education in the field of mathematics education There has not however been a sound analysis of how environmental and cultural contexts impact visuospatial reasoning although it was noted as far back as the 1980s when Alan Bishop developed his duality of visual processing and interpreting visual information This book provides this analysis and in so doing not only articulates new and worthwhile lines of research but also uncovers and makes real a variety of useful professional approaches in teaching school mathematics With a renewed interest in visuospatial reasoning in the mathematics education community this volume is extremely timely and adds significantly to current literature on the topic

National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1989 Language and Body in Place and Space Kuniyoshi Kataoka, 2023-05-18 Drawing on the author's experience as a sociolinguist and a mountain climber this book shows how the expertise and affect laden experience of Japanese rock climbers can be illuminated through linguistic methods and theories Through a detailed investigation of multimodal interaction among climbers the book explores a number of significant sociolinguistic and linguistic anthropological themes including spatial frames of reference intersubjectivity chronotopic configurations and poetic formations of talk In doing so it presents climbing as a condensed locus of human interactions in which the integrated analysis of semiotic processes brings to light a new set of relationships between humans and their surroundings Grounded in an extended and focused participation in rock climbing activities and interviews with other climbers Kuniyoshi Kataoka examines the assemblage of semiotic resources including the language the body and the space mediated by their climbing equipment and the surrounding environment The result is a showcase of interdisciplinary multimodal approaches to climbing discourse analysis in and around the gravity sensitive zone ranging from expert climbers instruction to novices gossip and narratives on near death experiences to a multi participant discussion of a critical accident As well as demonstrating how language reflects extraordinary experiences on the vertical plane the findings also offer a chance to learn more about climbing which is attracting a growing number of participants and competitors worldwide The Emerging Spatial Mind Jodie M. Plumert, John P. Spencer, 2007-04-12 How does the spatial mind develop In this book Jodie Plumert and John Spencer bring together the leading researchers from the field of spatial cognitive development to examine how the spatial mind emerges from its humble origins in infancy and becomes its mature flexible and skilled adult form The work presented sheds light on how the emerging spatial mind is fostered and shaped over time by our experiences of thinking about and interacting in the space around us Each chapter presents cutting edge research and theory that addresses the two pivotal questions of what changes in the spatial mind and how these changes come about The authors provide both conceptual and formal theoretical accounts of developmental process at multiple levels of analysis genes neurons behaviors social interactions creating a contemporary overview of the general mechanisms of cognitive change Commentary chapters show how the developmental advances discussed in these accounts fit into our understanding of not only spatial cognitive development but also spatial cognition more generally Medicine Meets Virtual Reality 2001 James D. Westwood, Helene M. Hoffman, Greg T. Mogel, D. Stredney, Richard A. Robb, 2006-01-15 Since 1992 the Medicine Meets Virtual Reality Conference series has gathered physicians computer scientists and IT innovators to promote informatics technologies for use in healthcare Its unique and multidisciplinary assemblage of expertise encourages novel interactions and development of innovative tools for use in the medical environment The January 2001 conference presents forefront research on tools for telemedicine computer assisted diagnosis and surgery psychotherapy and education The proceedings describes applications used in clinical care and also these applications underlying technologies simulation visualization imaging haptics and robotics Spatial Information Theory Max J. Egenhofer, Nicholas Giudice, Reinhard Moratz, Michael Worboys, 2011-08-30 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 10th International Conference on Spatial Information Theory COSIT 2011 held in Belfast ME USA in September 2011 The 23 revised full papers were carefully reviewed and selected from 55 submissions They are organized in topical sections on maps and navigation spatial change spatial reasoning spatial cognition and social aspects of space perception and spatial semantics and space and language Space and Spatialization in Contemporary Music: History and Analysis, Ideas and Implementations Maria Anna Harley, 2016-06-08 This dissertation presents the history of space in the musical thought of the 20th century from Kurth to Clifton from Varese to Xenakis and outlines the development of spatialization in the theory and practice of contemporary music after 1950 The text emphasizes perceptual and temporal aspects of musical spatiality thus reflecting the close connection of space and time in human experience A new definition of spatialization draws from Ingarden s notion of the musical work a typology of spatial designs embraces music for different acoustic environments movements of performers and audiences various positions of musicians in space etc The study of spatialization includes a survey of the composers s writings Ives Boulez Stockhausen Cage etc and an examination of their works The final part presents three unique approaches to spatialization Brant s simultaneity of sound layers Xenakis s movement of sound and Schafer s music of ritual and soundscape      Physics of the Human Temporality Ihor Lubashevsky,Natalie Plavinska,2021-10-21 This book presents a novel account of the human temporal dimension called the human temporality and develops a special mathematical formalism for describing such an object as the human mind One of the characteristic features of the human mind is its temporal extent For objects of physical reality only the present exists which may be conceived as a point like moment in time In the human temporality the past retained in the memory the imaginary future and the present coexist and are closely intertwined and impact one another This book focuses on one of the fragments of the human temporality called the complex present A detailed analysis of the classical and modern concepts has enabled the authors to put forward the idea of the multi component structure of the present For the concept of the complex present the authors proposed a novel account that involves a qualitative description and a special mathematical formalism This formalism takes into account human goal oriented behavior and uncertainty in human perception The present book can be interesting for theoreticians physicists dealing with modeling systems where the human factor plays a crucial role philosophers who are interested in applying philosophical concepts to constructing mathematical models and psychologists whose research is related to modeling mental processes      Gender Development Judith E. Owen Blakemore,Sheri A. Berenbaum,Lynn S. Liben,2013-05-13 This text offers a unique developmental focus on gender Gender development is examined from infancy through adolescence integrating biological socialization and cognitive perspectives The book s current empirical focus is complemented by a lively and readable style that includes anecdotes about children s everyday experiences The book s accessibility is further enhanced with the use of bold face to highlight key terms when first introduced along with a complete glossary of these terms All three of the authors are respected researchers in divergent areas of children s gender role development and each of them teaches a course on the topic The book s primary focus is on gender role behaviors how they develop and the roles biological and experiential factors play in their development The first section of the text introduces the field and outlines its history Part 2 focuses on the differences between the sexes including the biology of sex and the latest research on behavioral sex differences including motor and cognitive behaviors and personality and social behaviors Contemporary theoretical perspectives on gender development biological social and environmental and cognitive approaches are explored in Part 3 along with the research supporting these models The social agents of gender development including children themselves family peers the media and schools are addressed in the final part Cutting edge and comprehensive this is the perfect text for those who have been searching for an advanced undergraduate and or graduate book for courses in gender development the psychology of sex roles and or gender and or women or men taught in departments of psychology human development and educational psychology Although chapters have been designed to be read sequentially a full author citation is included the first time a reference is used within an individual chapter rather than only the first time it is used in the book making it easy to assign chapters in a variety of orders This referencing system will also appeal to scholars interested in using the book as a resource to review a particular content area

Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70      Cognitive Effects of Multimedia Learning Zheng, Robert Z.,2008-12-31 This book identifies the role and function of multimedia in learning through a collection of research studies focusing on cognitive functionality Provided by publisher      Action As An Organizer of Learning and Development John J. Rieser,Jeffrey J. Lockman,Charles A. Nelson,2005-04-26 This is the 33rd volume in the Minnesota Symposium on Child Psychology held in October 2002 The symposium was held to honor the scientific and mentoring contributions of Anne Danielson Pick and Herbert L Pick Jr two longtime and beloved professors of the Institute of Child Development It focused on Action as an Organizer of Learning and Development and integrated the best and most innovative research on the role of action in perceiving and understanding Taken together the book captures the intellectual excitement that characterized the 33rd symposium and appeals to developmental psychologists particularly those interested in perceptual development      Communities, Neighborhoods, and Health Linda M. Burton,Susan P. Kemp,ManChui Leung,Stephen A. Matthews,David T. Takeuchi,2011-02-15 Place is an important element in understanding health and health care disparities More than merely a geographic location place is a socio ecological force with detectable effects on social life independent well being and health Despite the general enthusiasm for the study of place and the potential it could have for a better understanding of the distribution of health in different communities research is at a difficult crossroads because of disagreements in how the construct should be conceptualized and measured This edited volume incorporates a cross disciplinary approach to the study of place in order to come up with a comprehensive and useful definition of place Topics covered include Social Inequalities Historical Definitions of Place Biology and Place Rural vs Urban Places Racialization of a Place Migration Sacred Places Technological Innovations An understanding of place is essential for health care professionals as interventions often do not have the same effects in the clinic as they do in varied naturalistic social settings
