Library, 1976      Modernity, History, and Politics in Czech Art Marta Filipová, 2019-07-08 This book traces the influence of the changing political environment on Czech art criticism history and theory between 1895 and 1939 looking beyond the avant garde to the peripheries of modern art The period is marked by radical political changes the formation of national and regional identities and the rise of modernism in Central Europe specifically the collapse of Austria Hungary and the creation of the new democratic state of Czechoslovakia Marta Filipov studies the way in which narratives of modern art were formed in a constant negotiation and dialogue between an effort to be international and a desire to remain authentically local      The First Moderns William R. Birnbaum, 2017-07-05 Women Artists in Interwar France Framing Femininities illuminates the importance of the Soci des Femmes Artistes Modernes more commonly known as FAM and returns this group to its proper place in the history of modern art In particular this volume explores how FAM and its most famous members Suzanne Valadon Marie Laurencin and Tamara de Lempicka brought a new approach to the most prominent themes of female embodiment the self portrait motherhood and the female nude These women reimagined art s conventions and changed the direction of both art history and the politics of their contemporary art world FAM has been excluded from histories of modern art despite its prominence during the interwar years Paula Birnbaum s study redresses this omission contextualizing the group s legacy in light of the conservative politics of 1930s France The group s artistic response to the reactionary views and images of women at the time is shown to be a key element in the narrative of modernist formalism Although many FAM works are missing one reason for the lack of attention paid to their efforts Birnbaum s extensive research through archives press clippings and first hand interviews with artists families reclaims FAM as an important chapter in the history of art from the interwar years

New Perspectives on Brücke Expressionism Christian Weikop, 2017-07-05 New Perspectives on Brücke Expressionism Bridging History brings together highly renowned international art historians in a scholarly work that offers the first full length reassessment in English of the importance of the Brücke group to German modernism specifically and to international modernism more generally It challenges interrogates and updates existing orthodoxies in the field of Brücke studies by deploying new research combined with innovative interpretative approaches This is an exciting volume of essays with an interlinking tripartite structure that charts the significance of this pioneering German avant garde group in relation to various critical themes namely cultural and material identity collectivity and selfhood as well as defamation and rehabilitation The book is unique in the field in that it seeks to excavate specific historical research relating to the activities of the Brücke as a bohemian yet nonetheless enterprising artists community and considers the contributions of the key members in relation to the dynamics of that group rather than simply on an individual basis It thoroughly explores the historiography of the Brücke artists reception throughout the turbulent history of the twentieth century up until the present day

German Incertitudes, 1914-1945 Klemens von Klemperer, 2001-03-30 The history of modern Germany has all too readily been seen in terms of an historical process that inevitably led to the horrors of National Socialism As there are no certitudes in life however so there are none in German history In this book historian Klemens von Klemperer focuses on what he terms the German Incertitudes namely the tensions between a realistic acceptance of disenchantment with the modern world and an insistence upon reenchantment Exploring this tension through a critical assessment of the ideas and writings of major German thinkers von Klemperer seeks to account for both the achievements and the failings of German thought society and politics as responses to the challenge of modernity in the first half of the 20th century In addition to individuals such as Nietzsche Weber Spengler J nger Bonhoeffer and Heidegger the author considers broader movements and ideas such as the concept of Gemeinschaft and the German expressionists all in the wider context of Western intellectual currents Rather than belaboring presumed German deviance from the European norms von Klemperer explores the reasons why the sense of crisis in the face of modernity was singularly acute among Germans he traces a spectrum of reactions extending from an acceptance of modern disenchantment to the quest for reenchantment which found an extreme manifestation in National Socialism
