Modern British Writing:

The Modern British Novel Malcolm Bradbury, 2001 Bradbury argues that almost a century since the emergence of Modernism it is now possible to see the entire period in perspective It is clear that the first 50 years from Henry James Wilde and Stevenson through James Joyce Lawrence Forster to Huxley Isherwood and Orwell have been extensively discussed in print The years since World War II though have not been examined in depth yet have produced talents such as Graham Greene Angus Wilson Beckett Doris Lessing Margaret Drabble Angela Carter Ian McEwan Kingsley and Martin Amis Julian Barnes Fay Weldon Salman Rushdie and Timothy Mo Modern British Women Writers Vicki K. Janik, Del Ivan

Janik, 2002-11-30 The 20th century witnessed several major cultural movements including modernism anti modernism and postmodernism These and other means of understanding and perceiving the world shaped the literature of that era and with the rise of feminism resulted in a particularly rich body of literature by women writers This reference includes alphabetically arranged entries on 58 British women writers of the 20th century Some of these writers were born in England while others such as Katherine Mansfield and Doris Lessing came from countries of the former Empire or Commonwealth The volume also includes entries for women of color such as Kamala Markandaya and Buchi Emecheta Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes an overview of the writer's background an analysis of her works an assessment of her achievements and lists of primary and secondary sources The volume closes with a selected general bibliography Modern British Nature Writing, 1789-2020 Will Abberley, Christina Alt, David Higgins, Graham Huggan, Pippa Marland, 2022-03-17 This first full length study of modern British nature writing is timely and invaluable for literary scholarship in the environmental crisis

The New Pastoral in Contemporary British Writing Deborah Lilley, 2019-10-10 This book identifies a major turn in contemporary British literature in response to environmental crisis It argues that the pastoral is emerging as a new critical framework in which to explore the understanding of people and place in this context The New Pastoral in Contemporary British Writing explores how the pastoral tradition has transformed as authors respond to our changing relationships with place in this period Analysing the features common to new pastoral writing it brings together a corpus of works from major authors including Ali Smith Jim Crace John Burnside Kathleen Jamie and Robert Macfarlane This book argues that crises such as pollution and climate change have shifted our understandings of the key relationships of pastoral and the terms upon which they are based giving new senses to its older oppositions between the human and the natural the urban and the rural and the past and the present Furthermore it shows that the versions of pastoral that ensue align with current ecocritical arguments produced by thinking through the individual cultural and ecological implications of environmental crisis As a result pastoral emerges as the crucial strategy in the re imagining of the environment underway in contemporary British writing the resurgence of interest in nature writing the increasing attention towards place in literary fiction and the development of ecological or climate fiction This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of English as well as those concerned with the interdisciplinary topics of the environmental humanities including literary geographies new nature writing cultures of climate change and the Anthropocene and ecologically oriented theory Modern British Writing. Literature Blanka Grzegorzcyk,2014-10-03 This book considers how contemporary British children s books engage with some of the major cultural debates of recent years and how they resonate with the current preoccupations and tastes of the white mainstream British reading public A central assumption of this volume is that Britain s imperial past continues to play a key role in its representations of race identity and history The insistent inclusion of questions relating to colonialism and power structures in recent children s novels exposes the complexities and contradictions surrounding the fictional treatment of race relations and ethnicity Postcolonial children s literature in Britain has been inherently ambivalent since its cautious beginnings it is both transgressive and authorizing both undercutting and excluding Grzegorzcyk considers the ways in which children s fictions have worked with and against particular ideologies of race The texts analyzed in this collection portray ethnic minorities as complex hybrid products of colonialism global migrations and the ideology of multiculturalism By examining the ideological content of these novels Grzegorzcyk demonstrates the centrality of the colonial past to contemporary British writing for the young The Contemporary British Novel Since 1980 James Acheson,S.
