Der-wei Wang, 2000-09-22 an important contribution to the study of recent Chinese literature Choice This fine scholarly survey of Chinese literature since 1949 discusses such trends as modernism nativism realism root seeking and scar literature misty poets and political feminist and societal issues in modern Chinese literature Library Journal This volume is a survey of modern Chinese literature in the second half of the twentieth century It has three goals 1 to introduce figures works movements and debates that constitute the dynamics of Chinese literature from 1949 to the end of the century 2 to depict the enunciative endeavors ranging from ideological treatises to avant garde experiments that inform the polyphonic discourse of Chinese cultural politics 3 to observe the historical factors that enacted the interplay of literary post modernities across the Chinese communities in the Mainland Taiwan Hong Kong and overseas Women and Gender in Contemporary Chinese Societies Shanshan Du, Ya-chen Chen, 2013-03-04 Recent attention to historical geographic and class differences in the studies of women and gender in China has expanded our understanding of the diversity and complexity of gendered China Nevertheless the ethnic dimension of this subject matter remains largely overlooked particularly concerning women's conditions and gender status Consequently the patriarchy and its oppression of women among the Han the ethnic majority in China are often inaccurately or erroneously associated with the whole gendered heritage of China epitomized by the infamous traditions of footbinding and female infanticide Such academic and popular predisposition belies the fact that gender systems in China span a wide spectrum ranging from extreme Han patriarchy to Lahu gender egalitarianism The authors contributing to this book have collectively initiated a systematic effort to bridge the gap between understanding the majority Han and ethnic minorities in regard to women and gender in contemporary Chinese societies By achieving a quantitative balance between articles on the Han majority and those on ethnic minorities this book transcends the ghettoization of ethnic minorities in the studies of Chinese women and gender The eleven chapters of this volume are divided into three sections which jointly challenge the traditions and norms of Han patriarchy from various perspectives The first section focuses on gender traditions among ethnic minorities which compete with the norms of Han patriarchy The second section emphasizes the impact of radical social transformation on gender systems and practices among both Han and ethnic minorities The third section underscores socio cultural diversity and complexity in resistance to Han patriarchal norms from a broad perspective This book complements previous scholarship on Chinese women and gender by expanding our investigative lens beyond Han patriarchy and providing images of the multiethnic landscape of China By identifying the Han as an ethnically marked category and by bringing to the forefront the diverse gender systems of ethnic minorities this book encourages an increasing awareness of and sensitivity to the cross cultural diversity of gendered China both in academia and beyond Modern Chinese Literary Thought Kirk A. Lutz, Roland Ray Lutz, 1998-01-16 The Basil Society's China mission one of the more successful Protestant missions in the nineteenth century was distinguished by the fact that most of the initial proselytizing was conducted by Chinese converts in the interior rather than by Western missionaries in the treaty ports Thus the first viable protestant communities were not only established by Chinese evangelists they were established among an ethnic minority in south China the Hakka people The autobiographies of eight pioneer Chinese missionaries featured in this book offer an unusual opportunity to view village life and customs in Guangdong during the mid nineteenth century by providing details on Hakka death and burial rituals ancestor veneration lineages and lineage feuds geomancy the status of Hakka women widespread economic hardship and civil disorder They also illustrate the appeals of Christianity the obstacles to conversion and Chinese opposition to Christianity and Western missionaries The authors commentary addresses the issue of conversion which was fueled by individual desire for solace and salvation the building of a support community amid social chaos and the possibility of social mobility through education Despite an expanding role by Western missionaries the Chinese origins the rural interior locale and the status of the Hakka as a disadvantaged minority contributed to successive generations of Christian families and to early progress toward an autonomous Hakka church      Hakka Chinese Confront Protestant Christianity, 1850-1900
