Los Angeles Institute of Contemporary Art Los Angeles Institute of Contemporary Art, 1981      Modern and Contemporary Art in Korea Yöng-na Kim, 2005 Modern and Contemporary Art in Korea deals with issues of tradition, modernity and identity in modern and contemporary Korean art in Korea. On a deeper level, this is one of the only books of its kind in English that exposes readers to specific artists and their works, an especially useful resource for those who wish to know more than just surface level facts about Korean art.      Time to Play Katarzyna Zimna, 2014-12-09 Play art or interactive art is becoming a central concept in the contemporary art world, disrupting the traditional role of passive observance usually assumed by audiences, allowing them active participation. The work of play artists from Carsten Holler's Test Site at the Tate Modern to Gabriel Orozco's Ping Pond Table must be touched, influenced and experienced; the gallery goer is no longer a spectator but a co-creator. Time to Play explores the role of play as a central but neglected concept in aesthetics and a model for ground-breaking modern and postmodern experiments that have intended to blur the boundary between art and life. Moving freely between disciplines, Katarzyna Zimna links the theory and history of 20th and 21st century art with ideas developed within play, game and leisure studies and the philosophical theories of Kant, Gadamer and Derrida to critically engage with current discussion on the role of the artist, viewers, curators and their spaces of encounter. She combines a consideration of the philosophical implications of play with the examination of how it is actually used in modern and postmodern art, looking at Dada, Surrealism, Fluxus and Relational Aesthetics. Focusing mainly on process-based art, this bold book proposes a fresh approach, reaching beyond classical cultural theories of play.      Modern Contemporary Art, 2020
