The Domestic Interior and the Self in Contemporary Photography Jane Simon, 2023-09-18 By carefully conceptualising the domestic in relation to the self and the photographic this book offers a unique contribution to both photography theory and criticism and life narrative studies Jane Simon brings together two critical practices into a new conversation arguing that artists who harness domestic photography can advance a more expansive understanding of the autobiographical Exploring the idea that self representation need not equate to self portraiture or involve the human form artists from around the globe are examined including Rinko Kawauchi Catherine Opie Dayanita Singh Moyra Davey and Elina Brotherus who maintain a personal gaze at domestic detail By treating the representation of interiors domestic objects and the very practice of photographic seeing and framing as autobiographical gestures this book reframes the relationship between interiors and exteriors public and private and insists on the importance of domestic interiors to understandings of the self and photography The book will be of interest to scholars working in photographic history and theory art history and visual studies

Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication From the toppling of the Qing Empire in 1911 to the political campaigns and mass protests in the Mao and post Mao eras revolutionary upheavals characterized China s twentieth century In Revolutionary Becomings Ying Qian studies documentary film as an eventful medium deeply embedded in these upheavals and as a prism to investigate the entwined histories of media and China s revolutionary movements With meticulous historical excavation and attention to intermedial practices and transnational linkages Qian discusses how early media practitioners at the turn of the twentieth century intermingled with rival politicians and warlords as well as civic and business organizations She reveals the foundational role documentary media played in the Chinese Communist Revolution as a bridge between Marxist theories and Chinese historical conditions In considering the years after the Communist Party came to power Qian traces the dialectical relationships between media practice political relationality and revolutionary epistemology from production campaigns during the Great Leap Forward to the class struggles during the Cultural Revolution and the reorganization of society in the post Mao decade Exploring a wide range of previously uninvestigated works and intervening in key debates in documentary studies and film and media history Revolutionary Becomings provides a groundbreaking assessment of the significance of media to the historical unfolding and actualization of revolutionary

Inventory of the Ancient Monuments in Glamorgan: Volume III - Part 1b: Medieval Secular Monuments the Later Castles from 1217 to the present* Royal Commission on the Ancient and Historical Monuments in Wales,2000 Forty three castles and fortified sites here described were founded or given their most significant fabric after 1217 They include tower houses strong houses possible castles and twenty masonry castles ranging from the great Clare works at Caerphilly and Morlais to the small modestly fortified sites at Barry and Weobley and the exceptional fortified priory at Ewenny The density and variety of the medieval fortifications in Glamorgan are unrivalled and their study is enriched by an exceptional range of works on the history and records of a historic county formed by merging the lordships of Glamorgan and Gower Part Ia described the early castles and traced their role in the Norman conquest and settlement of the fertile southern lowlands down to 1217 when the Clares inherited Glamorgan. In that year the Welsh had expelled the English from Gower and remained unconquered in the Glamorgan uplands. Gower was soon lost again and under two redoubtable Clare lords the Glamorgan uplands were appropriated in the mid 13th century and secured in a notable programme of castle works. The castle building of Earl Richard de Clare 1243-62 and his son Gilbert the Red Earl 1263-95 as they achieved this second conquest of Glamorgan foreshadowed the later campaigns of Edward I against Gwynedd. At Caerphilly above all Earl Gilbert's castle deserves comparison with the great Edwardian works it introduced defensive features later to be adopted by King Edward's Savoyard master masons. Gower sites considered include the impressive masonry castles at Oystermouth and Penrice. A notable ornately arcaded domestic range at Swansea is the only surviving vestige of the chief castle of Gower which is tentatively described from a variety of records. AH the illustrated descriptions incorporate detailed historical accounts. The introductory survey outlines the later descent of Glamorgan and Gower to the end of the 15th century and along with the sectional preambles it provides general discussion of the sites. The Builder, 1868 Gardening World Illustrated, 1901 The Flamingo in the Garden Colleen J.
