deconstructive poststructuralist and postmodernist theory as well as philosophy media studies linguistics After the New Criticism Frank Lentricchia, 2018-12-14 This work is the first history and evaluation of contemporary American critical theory within its European philosophical contexts In the first part Frank Lentricchia analyzes the impact on our critical thought of Frye Stevens Kermode Sartre Poulet Heidegger Sussure Barthes L vi Strauss Derrida and Foucault among other less central figures In a second part Lentricchia turns to four exemplary theorists on the American scene Murray Krieger E D Hirsch Jr Paul de Man and Harold Bloom and an analysis of their careers within the lineage established in part one Lentricchia s critical intention is in evidence in his sustained attack on the more or less hidden formalist premises inherited from the New Critical fathers Even in the name of historical consciousness he contends contemporary theorists have often cut literature off from social and temporal processes By so doing he believes that they have deprived literature of its relevant values and turned the teaching of both literature and theory into a rarefied activity All along the way with the help of such diverse thinkers as Saussure Barthes Foucault Derrida and Bloom Lentricchia indicates a strategy by which future critical theorists may resist the mandarin attitudes of their fathers Encyclopedia of Modern French Thought Christopher John Murray, 2013-01-11 In this wide ranging guide to twentieth century French thought leading scholars offer an authoritative multi disciplinary analysis of one of the most distinctive and influential traditions in modern thought Unlike any other existing work this important work covers not only philosophy but also all the other major disciplines including literary theory sociology linguistics political thought theology and more The Resistance to Theory Paul De Man, 1986 Narcissus Sous Rature Jody Norton, 2000 In Narcissus Sous Rature Jody Norton argues that Contemporary American poetry s characteristic problematic is the subject s contestation of his discursive condition While self comprehension is a central recurrent concern in post literate poetry most poetries in English since the Enlightenment have conceived their lyric subjects in accordance with the foundational Western philosophical assumption of the rationality of being However after Freud Heisenberg Saussure Derrida and Lacan conceptions of the lyric I as representative of a more or less permanent self conscious and self possessed personality inhabiting an ontologically dependable natural and historical world in a consistent way are no longer credible The problems of how to conceptualize the psycho linguistic structuration of the male putatively masculine subject and his relation to his cultural environment and of how to represent both the subject and his relations in a medium language that is complexly involved in the construction of both the subject and his representation and in a certain sense of the subject as representation emerge for Contemporary poets out of an historic moment particularly strongly marked by theoretical developments in extra literary fields Norton asserts that the lyric speaker in Contemporary American poetry cannot be understood unless the explicit and implicit dialogic relations between religious philosophical psychological linguistic aesthetic critical and poetic texts are made central to the interpretive project BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Foucault and Religion Jeremy Carrette, 2002-09-11

Foucault and Religion is the first major study of Michel Foucault in relation and response to Religion Jeremy Carrette offers us a challenging new look at Foucault's work and addresses a religious dimension that has previously been neglected We see that prior to Foucault's infamous unpublished volume in the History of Sexuality on the theme of Christianity there is a complex religious sub text which anticipates this final unseen work Jeremy Carrette argues that Foucault offers a twofold critique of Christianity by bringing the body and sexuality into religious practice and exploring a political spirituality of the self He shows us that Foucault's creation of a body theology through the death of God reveals how religious beliefs reflect the sexual body questions the notion of a mystical archaeology and exposes the political technology of confession Anyone interested in understanding Foucault's thought in a new light will find this book a truly fascinating read Rappaccini's Children William H. Shurr, 2021-12-14 Nathaniel Hawthorne's short story Rappaccini's Daughter tells of a beautiful girl who has from birth absorbed the poison from the flowers of her father's garden In this allegorical tale of the fallen Garden of Eden William H Shurr finds a metaphor for the fate of many American writers for whom the heritage of calvinism has been the poisoned fruit of the Garden of the New World For many American writers the legacy of the Puritan Fathers has been a pervasive sense of sinfulness and guilt in a violent and unforgiving universe In this new study Shurr examines how these writers have coped with this heritage Gaston Bachelard, Revised and Updated Roch C. Smith, 2016-06-03

Comprehensive overview of the entire spectrum of works by one of twentieth century France's most original thinkers Gaston Bachelard one of twentieth century France's most original thinkers is known by English language readers primarily as the author of The Poetics of Space and several other books on the imagination but he made significant contributions to the philosophy and history of science In this book Roch C Smith provides a comprehensive introduction to Bachelard's work demonstrating how his writings on the literary imagination can be better understood in the context of his exploration of how knowledge works in science After an overview of Bachelard's writings on the scientific mind as it was transformed by relativity quantum physics and modern chemistry Smith examines Bachelard's works on the imagination in light of particular intellectual values Bachelard derived from science His trajectory from science to a specifically literary imagination is traced by recognizing his concern with what science teaches about how we know and his increasing preoccupation with questions of being when dealing with poetic imagery Smith also explores the material and dynamic imagination associated with the four elements fire water air and earth and the phenomenology of creative imagination in Bachelard's Poetics of Space his Poetics of Reverie and in the fragments of Poetics of Fire The Art of Life Mutlu Konuk Blasing, 2014-06-23 Autobiographical literature especially reveals the processes by which writers convert their own historical experience into fictional form and suggests how literary forms function in life This volume defines an original theory of autobiographical writing and provides intriguing analyses of major American works of literature The Art of Life examines the transformation of history into literature in Walden Song of Myself Henry James's Prefaces The Education of Henry Adams Paterson and the poetry of Frank

O Hara These works are approached as events in themselves and are analyzed as conversions of form and history fiction and fact and even aesthetics and politics Thus the work of literature is set in the total experience of living and the writer is seen not only as an artist but also as a person in a historical political and cultural environment As well as a creator of literature the writer is viewed as a social psychological and biological being Chapters on the narcissistic economy of Walden the mythicizing of history and personality in Song of Myself the self conscious relation that makes the Prefaces of Henry James the autobiography of an artist the comic perspective of The Education of Henry Adams and the radical innovation of Paterson and O Hara s poetry provide new readings of major American works Each chapter contains some distinct critical insight which not only contributes to but can be relished apart from the book s overarching theoretical argument The Art of Life is a sophisticated theoretical discussion of autobiography with rich psychological philosophical and cultural ramifications

Fictions of Reality in the Age of Hume and Johnson Leopold Damrosch,1989 During the second half of the eighteenth century the most powerful literary work in Britain was nonfictional philosophy history biography and political controversy Leo Damrosch argues that this tendency is no accident at the beginning of the modern age writers were consciously aware of the role of cultural fictions and they sought to ground those fictions in a real world beyond the text Their political conservatism often neglected by modern scholars was an extensively thought out response to a world in which meaning was inseparable from consensus and in which consensus was increasingly under attack Damrosch finds strong affinities between writers who are usually described as antagonists The first chapter places Hume and Johnson in dialogue showing that their responses to the challenge of their age have deep similarities and that their thinking points forward in significant ways to twentieth century pragmatism Subsequent chapters explore the interrelationship of the fictive and the real in a wide range of works by Boswell Gibbon White Burke and Godwin In its combination of literary philosophical and cultural criticism this book will appeal to scholars in many fields as well as to nonacademic readers interested in intellectual history

The Inner Scar Andrew Hussey,2022-05-16 Since his death in 1962 Georges Bataille has acquired the status of one of the most influential thinkers of the age The fact that this reputation has been established by the likes of Michel Foucault Jacques Derrida Julia Kristeva and Philippe Sollers appears to confirm Bataille as a precursor of the postmodernist condition Few contemporary accounts of Bataille s thought have however engaged with those aspects of his thinking which are influenced by his interest in mysticism This is an omission which is all the more striking given that Bataille considered his thought to be not only opposite to all philosophical traditions originating in the Enlightenment but also a form of speculation intricately related to the religious exigencies of the Christian Medieval period This book presents the first major study in English of how Bataille s mystical practices and texts interact with the outer worlds of politics social relations and externalised discourse which Bataille sets up as the antipodes of his inner experience From this starting point Andrew Hussey argues that the inner experience of limits in Bataille s work the movement which he terms transgression is unlike the

Fredric Jameson, 2007-12-26 A collection of interviews with Fredric Jameson over a 20 year period Divine Aporia John the alterity of the divine reality has become creatively transcribed and theorized within the postmodern landscape A
