Shameful Autobiographies Rosamund Dalziell, 2018-07-04 Writing autobiography is a risky business What is shameful can be inadvertently rather than deliberately revealed Yet reading autobiography can also be risky as it may lead to the confrontation of shame in ourselves Perhaps it is this element of risk together with the magnetism of another person s confession of shameful experience that make us such avid readers of autobiography Rosamund Dalziell proposes that shame is the driving force in many Australian autobiographies Indeed she suggests that the representation of shame is fundamental to the autobiographical process Shame seeks concealment and this she argues explains both why this fascinating link has not before been explored and why when it is pointed out we immediately know it to be authentic Shameful Autobiographies looks at pervasive patterns of shame in the autobiographies of such leading Australian writers as Germaine Greer Sally Morgan Bernard Smith Kathleen Fitzpatrick Morris Lurie Ruby Langford Ginibi and Robert Dessaix In so doing it establishes the centrality of shame to problems of Australian identity and to current political debate for instance it is shame that fuels angry repudiations of the so called black armband view of history The calm clarity of Rosamund Dalziell s writing strengthens her powerful insights and arguments the most potent of which is that autobiographical confrontation with shame can heal deep wounds both for writers and for readers This mature and innovative book will enrich the experience of all readers of autobiography     Athenaeum and Literary Chronicle James Silk Buckingham, John Sterling, Frederick Denison Maurice, Henry Stebbing, Charles Wentworth Dilke, Thomas Kibble Hervey, William Hepworth Dixon, Norman Maccoll, Vernon Horace Rendall, John Middleton Murry, 1839     The English Catalogue of Books ... Sampson Low, 1893     British Books , 1839     The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art , 1901     Gandhi's Autobiographical Construction of Selfhood Clara Neary, 2023-03-15 This book addresses the topics of autobiography self representation and status as a writer in Mahatma Gandhi s autobiographical work The Story of My Experiments with Truth 1927 1929 Gandhi remains an elusive figure despite the volumes of literature written on him in the seven decades since his assassination Scholars and biographers alike agree that no work on his life has portrayed him in totality Desai 2009 and although arguably the most popular figure of the first half of the twentieth century and one of the most eminent luminaries of our time Gandhi the individual remains as much an enigma as a person of endless fascination Murrell 2008 Yet there has been relatively little scholarly engagement with Gandhi s autobiography and published output has largely been concerned with mining the text for its biographical details with little concern for how Gandhi represents himself The author addresses this gap in the literature while also considering Gandhi as a writer This book provides a close reading of the linguistic structure of the text with particular focus upon Gandhi s self representation drawing on a cognitive stylistic framework for analysing linguistic representations of selfhood Emmott 2002 It will be of interest to stylisticians cognitive linguists discourse analysts and scholars in related fields such as Indian literature and postcolonial studies     The Best Books William Swan Sonnenschein, 1910     The British Catalogue of Books Published from October 1837 to December 1852 , 1853     Reference Catalogue of the Reynolds Library, Rochester, N.Y. Reynolds Library, 1898     The British Catalogue of Books, Published from October 1837 to December 1852: General alphabet , 1853     *Hodgson's annual catalogue of books and engravings published during 1839.
