Black Seminoles in the Bahamas Rosalyn Howard, 2023-05-01 An excellent case study of a little studied and poorly known community experiencing the processes of identity formation and culture change Brent R Weisman University of South Florida This is the first full length ethnography of a unique community within the African diaspora Rosalyn Howard traces the history of the isolated Red Bays community of the Bahamas from their escape from the plantations of the American South through their utilization of social memory in the construction of new identity and community Some of the many African slaves escaping from southern plantations traveled to Florida and joined the Seminole Indians intermarried and came to call themselves Black Seminoles In 1821 pursued and harassed by European Americans through the First Seminole War approximately 200 members of this group fled to Andros Island where they remained essentially isolated for nearly 150 years Drawing on archival and secondary sources in the United States and the Bahamas as well as interviews with members of the present day Black Seminole community on Andros Island Howard reconstructs the story of the Red Bays people She chronicles their struggles as they adapt to a new environment and forge a new identity in this insular community and analyzes the former slaves relationship with their Native American companions Black Seminoles in contemporary Red Bays number approximately 290 the majority of whom are descended directly from the original settlers As part of her research Howard lived for a year in this small community recording its oral history and analyzing the ways in which that history informed the evolving identity of the people Her treatment dispels the air of mystery surrounding the Black Seminoles of Andros and provides a foundation for further anthropological and historical investigations Archaeologies of Slavery and Freedom in the Caribbean Lynsey A. Bates, John M. Chenoweth, James A.

Delle, 2018-09-12 While the patterns of habitation and development are similar throughout the Caribbean there was also a great deal of diversity The authors in this volume use innovative techniques and perspectives to reveal the stories of places and times where the usual rules did not always apply The Bahamas Between Worlds Dean Walter Collinwood, 1989

Terra Incognita Dean Walter Collinwood, 1979 My Soul Is in Haiti Bertin M. Louis, Jr., 2016-12 Offers a greater understanding of the spread of Protestant Christianity both regionally and globally by studying local transformations in the Haitian diaspora of the Bahamas In the Haitian diaspora as in Haiti itself the majority of Haitians have long practiced Catholicism or Vodou However Protestant forms of Christianity now flourish both in Haiti and beyond In the Bahamas where approximately one in five people are now Haitian born or Haitian descended Protestantism has become the majority religion for immigrant Haitians In My Soul Is in Haiti Bertin M. Louis Jr has combined multi sited ethnographic research in the United States Haiti and the Bahamas with a transnational framework to analyze why Protestantism has appealed to the Haitian diaspora community in the Bahamas The volume illustrates how devout Haitian Protestant migrants use their religious identities to ground themselves in a place that is hostile to them as migrants and it also uncovers how their religious faith ties in to their belief in the need to save their homeland as they re imagine Haiti politically and morally as a Protestant Christian nation This important look at transnational migration between second and third world countries shows how notions of nationalism among Haitian migrants in the Bahamas are filtered through their religious beliefs By studying local transformations in the Haitian diaspora of the Bahamas Louis offers a greater understanding of the spread of Protestant Christianity both regionally and globally of what such a research paradigm should look like strikes a careful balance between sociohistorical and linguistic analysis. The case studies in this volume present investigations into the sociohistorical matrix of language contact and critical insights into the sociolinguistic consequences of language contact within Africa and the African Diaspora. Additionally, they contribute to ongoing debates about pidgin/creole genesis and language contact by examining and comparing analyses and linguistic outcomes of particular sociohistorical and cultural contexts and considering less studied factors such as speaker agency and identity in the emergence, nativization, and stabilization of contact varieties.
