Modern China And A New World:

Modern China and the New World Randall Doyle, Zhang Boshu, 2011-12-16 Modern China and the New World focuses upon a few of the main topics associated with China's recent rise to global prominence. Dr. Randall Doyle discusses the impact that China will have on the geopolitical balance throughout the Asia Pacific region as well as the effect of China's new power on U.S.-China relations in the 21st century. Dr. Zhang Boshu addresses China's continuing struggles with Tibet and the Dalai Lama. He also discusses the existing political system within China today and the future possibility of democratic reforms occurring and transforming Chinese society itself. Modern China and the New World presents these important topics by incorporating not just traditional reading and research but also integrating the personal experiences of the authors.

Women in Chinese Buddhism Jessica Huset Tilton, 2025-10-30 Tilton examines how cultural, political, and economic forces exert pressures on the levels of freedom and equality for female Buddhists within the Buddhist community as well as women's rights within society. The book charts women's spiritual paths over four periods beginning with the Buddha and his revolutionary stance on women to the creation of a fully ordained female Saṅgha in China which peaked during the Tang dynasty and finally to its resurgence in the late Qing and early Republic period ending with a sharp decline to near extinction during the Mao Zedong years 1949-1976. As the nun and lay communities arise directly from the broader female community, Tilton argues that there is a direct correlation between women's rights issues and those of liberties for Buddhist women within the Saṅgha. Specifically, women's equality within this world as well as their right to achieve liberation from this world or saṁsāra. Charting the evolution of Buddhist women in China across multiple centuries, this book is a valuable resource for academics, researchers, and students of Asian Studies, Buddhist Studies, as well as those interested in the intersection of gender and religion.
