impacts in the context of the supra state formations and global markets that have re shaped national and trans national cultures in the later twentieth century The book focuses on the emergence and expansion of media markets high performance sport s transformation by and effects upon Cold War dynamics and relations and the implications of the Treaty of Rome for an emerging European identity in sport as in other areas for example the influence of soccer s governing body in Europe UEFA and its club and international competitions It traces the connections between the forces of ideological division economic growth leisure consumption European integration and the development of European sport and examines the role of sport in the changing relationship between Europe and the US Illuminating a key moment in global cultural history this book is important reading for any student or scholar working in international studies modern history or sport The State and Business in the Major Powers Robert Millward,2013-03-12 In the 19th and early 20th centuries the state emerged as a major player in the economies of the Western World This important new volume provides an economic history for the period 1815 1939 of state business relations in the major powers France Germany Japan Russia UK and the USA The book challenges the traditional story that the scale of state intervention reflected the degree to which each country was ideologically committed to laissez faire and which also tended to assume that governments were interested in economic growth and raising average living standards Robert Millward gives a rather different perspective arguing that the scale of state intervention and the differences across countries were motivated more by considerations of external defence and internal unification than by any notions of promoting economic growth or adherence to laissez faire This book provides for the first time an integrated economic history of these state business relations in the major powers in the period 1815 1939 and offers a completely new perspective on the links between tariff policies state enterprise in manufacturing the treatment of the peasantry regulation of railways taxation of the business sector policies on cartels trusts and competition
