Poetics And Politics In The Art Of Rudolf Baranik:

Poetics and Politics in the Art of Rudolf Baranik David Craven, 1997 His paintings have increasingly come to be considered among the most significant works of the New York School painting of the 1960s and 1970s exemplifying what Theodor Adorno called committed art The second half of the book is an anthology of Baranik's aphoristic essays on art and politics which appeared in various art world publications over the last four decades and have been written in conjunction with political involvements that led Lucy Lippard to call Baranik an activist par excellence The Grove Encyclopedia of American Art Joan M. Marter, 2011 Arranged in alphabetical order these 5 volumes encompass the history of the cultural development of America with over 2300 entries Art History as Social Praxis David Craven, 2017-08-21 Art History as Social Praxis The Collected Writings of David Craven brings together more than thirty essays that chart the development of Craven's voice as an unorthodox Marxist who applied historical materialism to the study of modern art This book demonstrates the range and versatility of David Craven's praxis as a democratic socialist art historian who assessed the essential role the visual arts play in imagining more just and equitable societies The essays collected here reveal Craven's lifelong commitment to exposing interstices between western and non western cultures by researching the reciprocating influences between First and Third World artists critics and historians Dialectical Conversions David Craven, Brian Winkenweder, 2013-08-15 Few art critics in Western art history have ever had the broad ranging impact over several decades of Donald Kuspit a philosopher and psychoanalyst who from 1970 until the present has been a commanding figure on the international stage A student of German thinker Theodor Adorno under whom he earned the first of his three doctorates Kuspit introduced a new type of philosophical art criticism into the art world He drew on both phenomenology and Critical Theory before he then increasingly adopted psychoanalysis Since Kuspit himself has always measured his own place in the history of art criticism by how rigorously he engages with competing approaches this book is a searching survey of Kuspit's role in triggering several historic shifts within art criticism beginning with his now legendary 1974 article in Artforum A Phenomenological Approach to Artistic Intention Dense and demanding yet deft and incisive Kuspit's multi faceted art criticism has become world famous for reasons that artists critics art historians and philosophers from at least ten different nations explain from various points of view Divided into three parts and introduced by a lengthy introduction the book features comments by recognized artists like Rudolf Baranik Anselm Kiefer and April Gornik as well as critical commentaries by many scholars and critics from around the world on the richness of Kuspit's insights into art Alternative Art, New York, 1965-1985 Julie Ault, Social Text Collective, Drawing Center (New York, N.Y.), 2002 A sweeping history of the New York art scene during the 1960s 1970s and 1980s reveals a powerful alternative art culture that profoundly influenced the mainstream Simultaneous Fine Arts May Stevens Patricia Hills, 2005 May Stevens paintings weave themes of familial love and loss societal ills and the healing power of nature and the human community This book surveys the full range of her remarkable lifework from her early social protest paintings to her recent series of luminous large format images of lakes rivers and other bodies of water May Stevens offers an insightful in depth look at Stevens career drawing on her own recollections and rounded out by informed commentary Images and text bring to light Stevens personal history her humanitarian concerns and the social context within which her art evolved

Artists' Estates Magda Salvesen, Diane Cousineau, 2005 Artists Estates offers a fascinating journey into the complex and competitive art world through the distinctive lens of those who deal with the paintings prints and sculpture that artists leave behind after their deaths Bringing together interviews conducted by Magda Salvesen the widow of the second generation Abstract Expressionist painter Jon Schueler this unique book provides a window into the goals and desires the conflicts and frustrations and the emotional and financial strains that confront widows companions sons and daughters as the heirs to artists estates The judiciously arranged and edited interviews also address the benefits and liabilities of foundations and trusts through the insights of lawyers gallery dealers and foundation directors Readers will explore well known estates including those of Roy Lichtenstein Mark Rothko Adolph Gottlieb Milton Avery Romare Bearden and David Smith as well as the equally intriguing legacies of lesser known artists whose work came to the fore in the forties and fifties Together the passionate testimonies of families and lovers the measured voices of art professionals and the more than eighty photographs offer an indispensable entre into the private and public worlds of art
