establishing a cohesive creative vision at times literally guiding our eyes with the eye of the camera But we are often so dazzled by the visions on screen that it is easy to forget the individual who is off screen orchestrating the entire production to say nothing of their having marshaled a script a studio and other people s money David Thomson in his usual brilliantly insightful way shines a light on the visionary directors who have shaped modern cinema and through their work studies the very nature of film direction With his customary candor about his own delights and disappointments Thomson analyzes both landmark works and forgotten films from classic directors such as Orson Welles Alfred Hitchcock Jean Renoir and Jean Luc Godard as well as contemporary powerhouses such as Jane Campion Spike Lee and Quentin Tarantino He shrewdly interrogates their professional legacies and influence in the industry while simultaneously assessing the critical impact of an artist s personal life on his or her work He explores the male directors dominance of the past and describes how diversity can change the landscape Judicious vivid and witty A Light in the Dark is yet another required Thomson text for every movie lover s shelf
