Blue On Black Carole Cummings, 2020-05-15 A gridpunk Wierd West adventure with cowboys Tesla trains Kimolijah Adani genius gridTech and engineer was set to change the world with an impossible train powered by gridstream locked in a crystal Instead he ended up dead Directorate Tracker Bas Eisen has finally found a way to run Kimolijah s killer to ground It s taken him nearly three years of played out leads and it means he has to go deep undercover as a hired gun in an isolated desert barony run by a madman A small price to pay or so Bas thinks But even the twisty malicious path that has brought him to Stanslo s Bridge is no preparation for what and whom he finds there

Quinnie Blue Dinah Johnson, 2000-05-01 A tender and lyrical portrayal of the special relationship between a young African American girl and her grandmother by an acclaimed author and an award winning illustrator Quinnie Blue Did your mama teach you about the family tree Through a series of thoughtful questions and vivid reflections a young girl imagines what childhood was like for her grandmother Hattie Lottie Annie Quinnie Blue the woman she is named after In this exceptional picture book Dinah Johnson s expressive language joyously invokes the spirit of an African American community James Ransome s beautiful paintings depict in turn the past and present generations of a family and a special relationship that connects the two Quinnie Blue is a wonderful celebration of family roots and the passing on of heritage

The Men in Blue Larry R. Gerlach, 1994-01-01 The philosopher Jacques Barzun thought that whoever wants to know the heart and mind of America had better learn baseball And whoever wants to know baseball had better learn about umpires As Larry Gerlach points out in The Men in Blue these arbiters transform competitive chaos into organized sport They make it possible to play ball but nobody loves them Considering the abuse meted out by fans and players why would any sane person want to be an umpire Many reasons emerge in conversations with a dozen former major league arbiters While nobody loves them they love the game Gerlach has elicited entertaining stories from these figures under fire about their lonely travels their dealings with umpire baiters battles for unionization breaking through the color line and much more From Beans Reardon who came up to the National League in 1926 to Ed Sudol who retired in 1977 here is a witty and telling portrait of baseball from the boisterous Golden Age to the Jet Age of Instant Replay

Home-School Connections in a Multicultural Society Maria Luiza Dantas, Patrick C. Manyak, 2011-02-09 Educators everywhere confront critical issues related to families schooling and teaching in diverse settings Directly addressing this reality Home School Connections in a Multicultural Society shows pre service and practicing teachers how to recognize and build on the rich resources for enhancing school learning that exist within culturally and linguistically diverse families Combining engaging cases and relevant key concepts with thought provoking pedagogical features this valuable resource for educators at all levels Provides detailed portraits of diverse families that highlight their unique cultural practices related to schooling and the challenges that their children face in school settings Introduces key sociocultural and ethnographic concepts in ways that are both accessible and challenging and applies these concepts as lenses through which to examine the portraits Shows how teachers and researchers have worked with diverse families to build positive relationships and develop learning activities that incorporate children s unique experiences and resources Disrupting deficit assumptions about the experiences and knowledge that culturally and linguistically diverse children acquire in their homes and communities this book engages readers in grappling deeply and personally with the chapters meanings and implications and in envisioning their own practical ways to learn from and with families and children
