The Qur'ān Manuscripts in the Al-Haram Al-Sharif Islamic Museum, Jerusalem Khaḍir Ibrāhīm Salāmah, 2001 Of the many ways in which Muslims through the ages have sought to express their faith none is more impressive than that of Qur'anic calligraphy and illumination The legacy of this elaborate art forms a comprehensive yet cohesive whole which has both assimilated and adapted to the cultural differences that exist over the vast distances separating the regions of the Islamic world In this beautifully illustrated book Khader Salameh shows how the art has developed over time as he studies a selection of Qur'an manuscripts held in the al Haram al Sharif Islamic Museum in the al Aqsa Mosque Jerusalem These preserved copies of the Qur'an have been donated to the Mosque during various successive Islamic periods by individual Muslims rulers sultans princes ulama and others They differ in size calligraphy and ornamentation such as gold inlaying according to the technical and material resources available The entries are arranged chronologically and identified by the name of the donor if known and by a museum registration number Salameh gives a detailed account of each manuscript including its date dimensions binding illuminated opening pages and body text He summarizes the contents of any notations endowment texts or colophons and identifies any Qur'anic verses that feature in the illuminated panels The book is richly illustrated with color photographs showing every decorative element worthy of study As well as a detailed study of the selected manuscripts the book presents a general overview of the Museum's holdings and provides a textual history of the Qur'an It describes the four types of script used in Qur'an manuscripts and also the different types of binding and illumination Many rare pieces of note are included in the collection the calligraphic kufic copy of the Qur'an dating back to the third fourth century is the earliest example of this type of calligraphy and ornamentation and the thirty part Maghribi Rab'ah bequeathed by Sultan Abu al Hasan al Marini of Morocco in AH 750 is the only manuscript remaining from the three collections that he dispatched to the mosques of the three most holy cities of Islam Mecca Madina and Jerusalem In bringing these fascinating manuscripts to the attention of the world Khader Salameh hopes to generate concern for their preservation before the passage of time takes its toll upon them REVIEWS Combining strikingly beautiful illustrations with fascinating glimpses into Islamic art patronage and the liturgical social and political uses of the Qur'an Salameh's book is a rewarding read American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences

of the Mamluk Era 1250 1517 It contains source editions monographs collections of articles and conference proceedings in English French and German The Mamluk Empire is a historically unique model of a society A predominantly Arabic population was dominated by a purely Turkish born elite of manumitted military slaves who sought to regenerate themselves continuously through a self imposed fiat The only person who could become a Mamluk was a Turk who had been born free outside the Islamic territories as a non Muslim then enslaved brought to Egypt converted to Islam freed and finally trained as a warrior Only those who met these prerequisites were members of the ruling stratum with all the concomitant political military and economic advantages Patrons and companions provided the individual rootless Mamluk with a place and support in society The Penguin Dictionary of Islam Azim Nanji, 2008-04-24 Islam today is a truly global faith yet it remains somewhat of an enigma to many of us Each and every day our newspapers are saturated with references to Islam Quran Taliban Hijab Fatwa Allah Sunni Jihad Shia the list goes on But how much do we really understand Are we in fact misunderstanding The Penguin Dictionary of Islam provides complete impartial answers It includes extensive coverage of the historical formations of the worldwide Muslim community and highlights key modern Muslim figures and events Understanding Islam is vital to understanding our world and this text is the definitive authority designed for both general and academic readers Textual Criticism and Qur'an Manuscripts Keith E. Small, 2011-04-22 This unique work takes a method of textual analysis commonly used in studies of ancient Western and Eastern manuscripts and applies it to twenty one early Qur'an manuscripts Keith Small analyzes a defined portion of text from the Qur'an with two aims in view to recover the earliest form of text for this portion and to trace the historical development of this portion to the current form of the text of the Qur'an Small concludes that though a significantly early edited form of the consonantal text of the Qur'an can be recovered its original forms of text cannot be obtained He also documents the further editing that was required to record the Arabic text of the Qur'an in a complete phonetic script as well as providing an explanation for much of the development of various recitation systems of the Qur'an This controversial thought provoking book provides a rigorous examination into the history of the Qur'an and will be of great interest to Quranic Studies scholars Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 Vol. Set) Susan Sinclair, C. H. Bleaney, Pablo García Suárez, 2012 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages except Turkish between 1906 and 2011 This comprehensive bibliography is an indispensable tool for everyone involved in the study of material culture in Muslim societies Turkish Palestine (1069-1917) Mehmet Tutuncu, 2008-01-01 From the Year 1069 until 1917 Turks Ruled in Greater Parts of Middle East and also in today's Palestine First the Seljukids Artuqids and Zangids and later Mamluks and lastly Ottomans But despite this nearly 850 years long rule the Turkish heritage and contribution is often overlooked and underestimated in the literature One of the most significant and visible heritage in the sacred landscape of Palestine are the building activities and inscriptions that are fixed in these buildings. This book is a follow up to the in 2006 published Turkish Jerusalem 1516-1917 Ottoman Inscriptions from Jerusalem and Other Palestinian Cities. Was in the first volume recorded 122 inscriptions from Jerusalem and 18 inscriptions outside Jerusalem. In this second volume 134 inscriptions are recorded from towns outside Jerusalem and 9 from Jerusalem. Also the time range wider was in the first volume almost all inscriptions from Ottoman times this volume covers inscriptions from the first entrance of the first Turks in the year 1069 to the end of the Ottoman empire in 1917. So therefore the title of Turkish Palestine 1069-1917 is justified. The earliest inscription is from the year 476-1083. From next places next number of inscriptions are published Hebron 73 Safed 12 Nabi Musa 7 Ramle 8 Nablus 5 Lod 5 Yavne 4 Jaffa 8 and from Tanturah Haifa Beysan Azariya Herzlyia Isdud Dimra and Qalat Subaybah 1 inscription. There are also recorded 9 inscriptions from Jerusalem that were missed in the first volume. Each inscription is accompanied by photographs and commentary on subject and form. Grove Encyclopedia of Islamic Art & Architecture: Three-Volume Set Jonathan Bloom, Sheila Blair, 2009-05-14. The Grove Encyclopedia of Islamic Art and Architecture deals with all aspects of Islamic art and architecture ranging from the Middle East to Central Asia to Southeast Asia and Africa. The volumes cover all subject areas in Islamic art including artists rulers writers architecture ceramics sculpture metalwork painting calligraphy textiles and more. The Grove Encyclopedia of Islamic Art and Architecture provides unparalleled scope and depth on this rapidly growing area of interest. It offers fully updated articles and bibliography as well as more than 500 plans maps diagrams illustrations and colour plates. Similar in scope and design to The Grove Encyclopedia of Decorative Arts this three volume reference work contains articles of various lengths in alphabetical order. The shorter more factual articles none shorter than 50 words are combined with larger multi section articles tracing the development of the art forms in various geographical locations. Manuscripts, Politics and Oriental Studies, 2019-03-19. Manuscripts Politics and Oriental Studies commemorates the life and works of Johann Gottfried Wetzstein 1815-1905 as a scholar manuscript collector and consul in Berlin and Damascus. Beyond research into Wetzstein's own time special attention is given to the impact his efforts to acquire manuscripts have had until this day. Several contributions also illustrate contemporary developments that give context to his own career as a scholar and diplomat. The particular focus of this volume allows to explore the history of Oriental scholarship not purely through the lens of academic posts and publications but encourages us to discover lives such as Wetzstein's without academic stardom yet laying the material foundations of textual work for generations. Diplomacy in the Early Islamic World Maria Vaiou, 2015-02-13. Arab messengers played a vital role in the medieval Islamic world and its diplomatic relations with foreign powers. An innovative treatise from the 10th Century. Rusul al Muluk

Messengers of Kings is perhaps the most important account of the diplomacy of the period and it is here translated into English for the first time. Rusul al Muluk draws on examples from the Qur'an and other sources which extend from the period of al jahiliyya to the time of the Abbasid caliph al Mu tasim 218 227 833 842. In the only medieval Arabic work which exists on the conduct of messengers and their qualifications the author Ibn al Farr rejects jihadist policies in favor of quiet diplomacy and a pragmatic outlook of constructive realpolitik. Rusul al Muluk is an extraordinarily important and original contribution to our understanding of the early Islamic world and the field of International Relations and Diplomatic History.
