Race

and Ethnicity Rodney D. Coates, 2004-10-01 Race and ethnicity much like water and air are all around us Yet race and ethnicity remain impervious to many of us Hence in this volume authors were challenged to think outside the box As such scholars were encouraged to dare to contemplate to evaluate and analyze issues regarding race and ethnicity from radically different perspectives This critical process required them to evaluate their own assumptions and those of their respective disciplines Therefore much like walking a tight rope without a net the scholars attempt to free themselves from the disciplinarian blinders that often preclude the development of fresh insights Collectively the papers challenge the way we conceive and perceive of race and ethnicity As a consequence they go past the ideological constraints that normally limit such discourse by disciplinarian boundaries or disciplinarian myopia Therefore these papers provide a critical reappraisal of race and ethnicity

E. Franklin Frazier and Black Bourgeoisie James E. Teele, 2002-05-02 When E Franklin Frazier was elected the first black president of the American Sociological Association in 1948 he was established as the leading American scholar on the black family and was also recognized as a leading theorist on the dynamics of social change and race relations By 1948 his lengthy list of publications included over fifty articles and four major books including the acclaimed Negro Family in the United States Frazier was known for his thorough scholarship and his mastery of skills in both history and sociology With the publication of Bourgeoisie Noire in 1955 translated in 1957 as Black Bourgeoisie Frazier apparently set out on a different track one in which he employed his skills in a critical analysis of the black middle class The book met with mixed reviews and harsh criticism from the black middle and professional class Yet Frazier stood solidly by his argument that the black middle class was marked by conspicuous consumption wish fulfillment and a world of make believe While Frazier published four additional books after 1948 Black Bourgeoisie remained by far his most controversial Given his status in American sociology there has been surprisingly little study of Frazier's work In E. Franklin Frazier and Black Bourgeoisie a group of distinguished scholars remedies that lack focusing on his often scorned Black Bourgeoisie This in depth look at Frazier's controversial publication is relevant to the growing concerns about racism problems in our cities the limitations of affirmative action and the promise of self help

Militarism, Imperialism, and Racial Accommodation Stanford M. Lyman, 1992-01-01 1993 Mid South Sociological Association Book Award Robert E Park has long been recognized as one of the most influential thinkers in early American sociology yet virtually all of his works appearing before 1913 were published in popular magazines and were dismissed as nonsociological muckraking In Militarism Imperialism and Racial Accommodation An Analysis and Interpretation of the Early Writings of Robert E. Park. Stanford M. Lyman examines and reprints many of these little known works including Park's essays on German military organization, his exposés of the atrocities committed by Belgium's Leopold II in the Congo State, his studies of the black community in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, and of Booker T. Washington's agricultural education program at Tuskegee, Alabama. Lyman shows clearly that Park's essays, written outside the academy, formulated a far more complex perspective on modern modes of evil than any proposed by his contemporaries, thereby influencing sociological debates for decades to come. By writing his essays on topical subjects and by publishing them for a public audience, Park dramatized his profound belief that the struggle to achieve racial accommodation and to establish a true and lasting democracy is a concern for all.

The Harlem Renaissance is the best known and most widely studied cultural movement in African American history. Now in Harlem Renaissance Lives, esteemed scholars Henry Louis Gates Jr. and Evelyn Brooks Higginbotham have selected 300 key biographical entries culled from the eight-volume African American National Biography, providing an authoritative who's who of this seminal period. Here readers will find engagingly written and authoritative articles on notable African Americans who made significant contributions to literature, drama, music, visual art, or dance, including such central figures as poet Langston Hughes, novelist Zora Neale Hurston, aviator Bessie Coleman, blues singer Ma Rainey, artist Romare Bearden, dancer Josephine Baker, jazzman Louis Armstrong, and the intellectual giant W. E. B. Du Bois. Also included are biographies of people like the Scottsboro Boys, who were not active within the movement but who nonetheless profoundly affected the artistic and political statements that came from Harlem Renaissance figures. The volume will also feature a preface by the editors, an introductory essay by historian Cary D. Wintz, and 75 illustrations.

Particularly stressed in this analysis are such aspects of the crisis as its origins, ideological tensions, and public policy ramifications.
