Race Excellence My Dialogye With Chester Pierce:

Race & Excellence Ezra E. H. Griffith, Chester M. Pierce, 1998 Griffith psychiatry and African and African American studies Yale U engages in dialogue with pioneering black psychiatrist Pierce They meld his life and career focusing on his theories about the predictable nature of racist behavior and the responses of oppressed groups and how his own experience with racism has affected his work In addition to his work on racism Pierce is known for his substantive scholarship on coping with extreme environments such as the South Pole No index Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Race and Excellence Ezra E. H. Griffith, 2022 Graduate of Harvard Medical School president of the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology founding national chair of the Black Psychiatrists of America the list of Chester Pierce s accomplishments cement him as a luminary in the field and that is before one considers how foundational his theories about racism as an environmental pollutant are to modern mental health Reprinted with a new introduction this collection of conversations between Ezra Griffith and Pierce sheds light on the man behind the titles and theories Race and Excellence Ezra E. H. Griffith, M.D., 2022-09-13 Graduate of Harvard Medical School president of the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology founding national chair of the Black Psychiatrists of America the list of Chester Pierce s accomplishments alone cement him as a luminary in the field and that is before one considers how foundational his theories about racism as an environmental pollutant are to modern mental health Reprinted with a new introduction this collection of interactive conversations between Ezra Griffith and Pierce sheds light on the man behind the impressive titles and oft cited theories Focusing on different stages of Pierce s life and career it traces his path of achievement in the face of obstacles both individual and institutional What emerges is more than just a revealing portrait of one particularly determined and talented man It is a chronicle that illustrates distinct methods of coping with the stress of racial discrimination and new ways to approach narrative stories about Black lives that will prove illuminating to anyone interested in gaining a greater understanding of how to evaluate the salience of race matters in people s lives Follow Chester! Gloria Respress-Churchwell, 2019-09-17 A little known civil rights hero and college football MVP finally gets a voice in this fictional account detailing Chester Pierce s game changing role as the first Black college football player to compete south of the Mason Dixon Line In 1947 no African American player can play at a southern school in return the opposing team benches a player of equal talent This historical fiction picture book frames a turbulent time in the civil rights era with the clever use of a football play to show race relations and teamwork Inspired by a true story capturing a historic defense against the Jim Crow laws of the South Critical Race Theory in Education Laurence Parker, David Gillborn, 2020-07-15 Critical Race Theory CRT is an international movement of scholars working across multiple disciplines some of the most dynamic and challenging CRT takes place in Education This collection brings together some of the most exciting and influential CRT in Education CRT scholars examine the race specific patterns of privilege and exclusion that go largely unremarked in mainstream debates The contributions in this book cover the roots of the movement the early battles that shaped CRT and key ideas and controversies such as the problem of color blindness racial microaggressions the necessity for activism how particular cultures are rejected in the mainstream and how racism shapes the day to day routines of schooling and politics Of interest to academics students and policymakers this collection shows how racism operates in numerous hidden ways and demonstrates how CRT challenges the taken for granted assumptions that shape educational policy and practice The chapters in this book were originally published in the following journals International Journal of Qualitative Studies in Education Race Ethnicity and Education Discourse Studies in the Cultural Politics of Education Critical Studies in Education

Critical Race Counterstories along the Chicana/Chicano Educational Pipeline Tara J. Yosso, 2013-02-01 Chicanas/os are part of the youngest largest and fastest growing racial ethnic minority population in the United States yet at every schooling level they suffer the lowest educational outcomes of any racial ethnic group Using a counterstorytelling methodology Tara Yosso debunks racialized myths that blame the victims for these unequal educational outcomes and redirects our focus toward historical patterns of institutional neglect She artfully interweaves empirical data and theoretical arguments with engaging narratives that expose and analyse racism as it functions to limit access and opportunity for Chicana/o students By humanising the need to transform our educational system Yosso offers an accessible tool for teaching and learning about the problems and possibilities present along the Chicana/o educational pipeline

Condition or Process? Researching Race in Education Adrienne D. Dixon, Gloria J. Ladson-Billings, Cecilia E. Suarez, William T. Trent, James D. Anderson, 2021-01-18 The question of why we need to think about how we research race demands a conceptualization of race that captures both its social construction and its temporal evolution We need both an understanding of race and clarity about how we talk about it in our design and conduct of research and in how we interpret and apply it in our findings As a field we can use research on race and racism in education to help construct social change Our purpose with this volume is to underscore the persistence of the discriminatory actions processes and the normalization of the use of race and class conditions to justify the existing and growing disparity between the quality of life and opportunity for middle class and more affluent Whites and that for people of color and people of color who live in poverty As editors of this volume we wonder what more we could learn and understand about the process and condition of race if we dare to ask bold questions about race and racism and commit to methods and analyses that respect the experiences and knowledges of our research participants and partners
