The Palgrave Handbook of Race and Ethnic Inequalities in Education P. Stevens,A. Dworkin,2014-01-22 This comprehensive state of the art reference work provides the first systematic review to date of how sociologists have studied the relationship between race ethnicity and educational inequality over the last thirty years in eighteen different national contexts The Palgrave Handbook of Race and Ethnic Inequalities in Education Peter A.J. Stevens,A. Gary Dworkin,2019-07-05 This authoritative state of the art reference work builds on its first edition to provide a cutting edge systematic review of the relationship between race ethnicity and educational inequality Studying 25 different national contexts drawn from every inhabited continent on earth and building upon material from the earlier edition the work analyses educational policies practices and research on minority students immigrants and refugees The editors and contributors explore principal research traditions from countries as diverse as Argentina China Norway and South Africa examining the factors promoting social cohesion as well as considerations regarding the use of international test score data. Seamlessly integrating findings of national reviews, the editors and contributors analyse how national contexts of race/ethnic relations shape the character and content of educational inequalities and deftly map out new directions for future research in the area. Global in its perspective and definitive in content, this one-stop volume will be an indispensable reference resource for a wide range of academics, students and researchers in the fields of education, sociology, race and ethnicity studies and social policy. Intersectionality of Race, Ethnicity, Class, and Gender in Teaching and Teacher Education Norvella P. Carter, Michael Vavrus, 2018-04-16. In Intersectionality of Race, Ethnicity, Class, and Gender in Teaching and Teacher Education, the editors bring together scholarship that employs an intersectionality approach to conditions that affect public school children, teachers and teacher educators. Chapter authors use intersectionality to examine group identities not only for their differences and experiences of oppression but also for differences within groups that contribute to conflicts among groups. This collection moves beyond single-dimension conceptions that undermine legal thinking, disciplinary knowledge and social justice. Intersectionality in this collection helps complicate static notions of race, ethnicity, class and gender in education. Hence, this book stands as an addition to research on educational equity in relation to institutional systems of power and privilege.

Beyond Marginality Hollie J. Mackey, Elizabeth T. Murakami, 2018-09-01. The book Beyond Marginality: Understanding the Intersection of Race, Ethnicity, Gender and Difference in Educational Leadership Research promotes new theoretical and conceptual frameworks for the study of race and ethnicity in educational leadership. In this volume, new generations of scholars of color are moving beyond research that has not been necessarily focused or generated by diverse groups. The authors are purposeful in transcending systemic inequities and injustices in the stratified representation of practitioners and researchers by bringing in a new movement with innovative and impactful theoretical and conceptual frameworks in educational leadership.
