Workable Sisterhood Michele Tracy Berger, 2010-07-28 Workable Sisterhood is an empirical look at sixteen HIV positive women who have a history of drug use conflict with the law or a history of working in the sex trade What makes their experience with the HIV AIDS virus and their political participation different from their counterparts of people with HIV Michele Tracy Berger argues that it is the influence of a phenomenon she labels intersectional stigma a complex process by which women of color already experiencing race class and gender oppression are also labeled judged and given inferior treatment because of their status as drug users sex workers and HIV positive women The work explores the barriers of stigma in relation to political participation and demonstrates how stigma can be effectively challenged and redirected The majority of the women in Berger's book are women of color in particular African Americans and Latinas The study elaborates the process by which these women have become conscious of their social position as HIV positive and politically active as activists advocates or helpers She builds a picture of community based political participation that challenges popular medical and scholarly representations of crack addicted prostitutes and HIV positive women as social problems or victims rather than as agents of social change Berger argues that the women's development of a political identity is directly related to a process called life reconstruction This process includes substance abuse treatment the recognition of gender as a salient factor in their lives and the use of nontraditional political resources The Affirmative Action Puzzle Melvin I. Urofsky, 2022-02-22 A rich multifaceted history of affirmative action from the Civil Rights Act of 1866 through today's tumultuous times From an acclaimed legal historian a history of affirmative action from its beginning with the Civil Rights Act of 1866 to the first use of the term in 1935 with the enactment of the National Labor Relations Act the Wagner Act to 1961 and John F Kennedy's Executive Order 10925 mandating that federal contractors take affirmative action to ensure that there be no discrimination by race creed color or national origin down to today's American society Melvin Urofsky explores affirmative action in relation to sex gender and education and shows that nearly every public university in the country has at one time or another successfully or not instituted some form of affirmative action plan Urofsky traces the evolution of affirmative action through labor and the struggle for racial equality writing of World War I and the exodus that began when some six million African Americans moved northward between 1910 and 1960 one of the greatest internal migrations in the country's history. He describes how Harry Truman after becoming president in 1945 fought for Roosevelt's Fair Employment Practice Act and surprising everyone appointed a distinguished panel to serve as the President's Commission on Civil Rights as well as appointing the first black judge on a federal appeals court in 1948 and by executive order later that year ordering full racial integration in the armed forces. In this important ambitious far-reaching book Urofsky writes about the affirmative action cases decided by the Supreme Court cases that either upheld or struck down particular plans that affected both governmental and private entities. We come to fully understand the societal impact of affirmative action how and why it has helped and inflamed people of all walks of life how it has evolved and how and why it is still needed. Making Of Asian America Pei-Te Lien, 2010-06-17 Asian Americans are widely believed to be passive and compliant participants in the U.S. political process if they participate at all. In this ground-breaking book Pei-te Lien maps the actions and strategies of Asian Americans as they negotiate a space in the American political arena. Professor Lien looks at political participation by Asian Americans prior to 1965 and then examines at both organizational and mass politics levels how race ethnicity and transnationalism help to construct a complex American electorate. She looks not only at rates of participation among Asian Americans as compared with blacks Latinos American Indians and non-Hispanic whites but also among specific groups of Asian Americans Chinese Japanese Filipinos Koreans Asian Indians and Vietnamese. She also discusses how gender socioeconomic class and place of birth affect political participation. With documentation ranging from historical narrative to opinion survey data Professor Lien creates a picture of a diverse group of politically active people who are intent on carving out a place for themselves in American political life. The Politics of Black Hair Online Coursebook Donna Kakonge, PhD Student, 2011-07-05 This is an example of Donna Kakonge's online teaching work. Faculty Identities and the Challenge of Diversity Mark A. Chesler, Alford A. Young Jr., 2015-11-17 This book focuses on understanding the experiences of faculty members of various races ethnicities and genders and their classroom encounters with students in the United States. It illustrates some of the dynamics for faculty members facing the challenges and opportunities the diversity presents. Work, Family, Health, and Well-Being Suzanne M. Bianchi, Lynne M. Casper, Rosalind Berkow King, 2006-04-21 This work grew out of a conference held in Washington D.C. in June 2003 on Workforce Workplace Mismatch Work Family Health and Well Being sponsored by the National Institute of Health NIH. The text considers multiple dimensions of health and well-being for workers and their families children and communities. Feminist Political Theory Valerie Bryson, 2016-01-01 Feminist theory is a challenging and often deeply divided body of thought that raises issues which affect us all. In this her third edition of the highly successful Feminist Political Theory Valerie Bryson provides both a wide-ranging history of Western feminist thought from medieval times to the present day and a lucid analysis of contemporary feminist politics and debates. Fully updated to cover the latest feminist scholarship throughout this timely new edition provides an accessible and thought provoking exploration of complex theories related to real life issues such as sexual violence political representation transgender rights cyberfeminism and globalisation With unrivalled scope depth and accessibility this new edition of Valerie Bryson s Feminist Political Theory is set to be the go to text on feminism for students and researchers or indeed anyone interested in gender justice

Struggle for Ethnic Identity Pyong Gap Min,1999-01-20 Dr Pyong Gap Min and Rose Kim present a compilation of narratives on ethnic identity written by first 1 5 and second generation Asian American professionals In an attempt to reconcile the dichotomies long associated with being both Asian and American these narratives trace the formation of each author s ethnic identity and discuss its importance in shaping his or her professional career The narratives touch upon common themes of prejudice and discrimination loss and retention of ethnic subculture ethnic versus non ethnic friendship networks and racial and inter racial dating patterns When coupled with Dr Min s comprehensive introductory chapter on contemporary trends in the study of ethnicity these narratives prove that constructing one s ethnicity is truly a dynamic process and serve as an invaluable resource for anyone interested in teaching or studying the concepts of ethnic identity

Distinct Identities Nadia E. Brown,Sarah Allen Gershon,2016-04-14 Minority women in the United States draw from their unique personal experiences born of their identities to impact American politics Whether as political elites or as average citizens minority women demonstrate that they have a unique voice that more often than not centers on their visions of justice equality and fairness In this volume Dr Nadia E Brown and Sarah Allen Gershon seek to present studies of minority women that highlight how they are similar and dissimilar to other groups of women or minorities as well as variations within groups of minority women Current demographic and political trends suggest that minority populations specifically minority women will be at the forefront of shaping U S politics Yet scholars still have very little understanding of how these populations will behave politically This book provides a detailed view of how minority women will utilize their sheer numbers collective voting behavior policy preferences and roles as elected officials to impact American politics The scholarship on intersectionality in this volume seeks to push beyond disciplinary constraints to think more holistically about the politics of identity

Is Apartheid Really Dead? Pan Africanist Working Class Cultural Critical Perspectives Julian Kunnie,2018-02-23 Is Apartheid Really Dead Pan Africanist Working Class Cultural Critical Perspectives is an engaging and incisive book that radically challenges the widespread view that post apartheid society is a liberated society specifically for the Black working class and rural peasant populations Julian Kunnie s central contention in this book is that the post apartheid government was the product of a serious compromise between the former ruling white led Nationalist Party and the African National Congress resulting in a continuation of the erstwhile system of monopoly capitalism and racial privilege albeit revised by the presence of a burgeoning Black political and economic elite The result of this historic compromise is the persistent subjugation and impoverishment of the Black working class by the designs of global capital as under apartheid this time managed by a Black elite in collaboration with the powerful white capitalist establishment in South Africa Is Apartheid

Really Dead engages in a comprehensive analysis of the South African conflict and the negotiated settlement of apartheid rule and explores solutions to the problematic of continued Black oppression and exploitation Rooted in a Black Consciousness philosophical framework unlike most other works on post apartheid South Africa this book provides a carefully delineated history of the South African struggle from the pre colonial era through the present What is additionally distinctive is the author s reference to and discussion of the Pan Africanist movement in the global struggle for Black liberation highlighting the aftermath of the 1945 Pan African meeting in Manchester The author analyzes the South African struggle within the context of Pan Africanism and the continent wide movement to rid Africa of colonialism s legacy highlighting the neo colonial character of much of Africa s post independence nations arguing that South Africa has followed similar patterns One of the attractive qualities of this book is that it discusses correctives to the perceived situation of neo colonialism in South Africa by delving into issues of gender oppression and the primacy of women s struggle working class exploitation and Black worker mobilization environmental despoliation and indigenous religio cultural responses and educational disenfranchisement and the need for radically new structures and policies in educational transformation Ultimately Is Apartheid Really Dead postulates revolutionary change as a solution undergirded with all of the aforementioned ingredients While anticipating and articulating a revolutionary socialist vision for post apartheid South Africa this book is tempered by a realistic appraisal of the dynamics of the global economy and the legacy of colonial oppression and capitalism in South Africa

The Chinese Triangle of Mainland China, Taiwan, and Hong Kong Alvin Y. So, Nan Lin, Dudley Poston, 2001-07-30 The Chinese triangle of mainland China Hong Kong and Taiwan constitutes one of the most dynamic regions in the world economy Since the late 1970s these three societies have experienced increasing economic integration however studies aimed at analyzing and explaining this integration have often overlooked the very important role social institutions have played in the shaping of this process To fill this gap this book adopts a systematic institutional approach designed to examine the different patterns of institutions in the three countries and to discuss how such social institutions as the economy gender social networks and the Chinese diaspora have exerted a profound impact on all three societies The chapters taken together argue that different patterns of institutional configuration have led to divergent paths of development and that this divergence will have significant implications on the prospects for Chinese national reunification in the twenty first century The Introductory chapter provides a historical discussion on the origins and the transformation of the Chinese triangle during the second half of the twentieth century The remainder of the volume is broken into four topics considered crucial for understanding the transformation of the Chinese triangle economic transformation gender social networks and the Chinese diaspora As globalization impacts the Chinese triangle studies that consider the issues from the perspective of social institutions will be increasingly important to understanding the area as it develops in the world economy

Ethnic Studies Philip Q. Yang, 2000-04-13 Defines the field of ethnic studies and explores its methodologies

Fractured Feminisms Laura Gray-Rosendale, Gil Harootunian, 2012-02-01 This advanced analysis of gender issues in higher education represents a significant new turn in feminist thinking Fractured Feminisms resists and reshapes boundaries by investigating how gender studies intersection with race and ethnicity class postcoloniality sexuality globalization interdisciplinarity technology studies and administration exposes the silenced other of feminisms themselves These crucial conversations about feminisms depend upon facing the perplexing rhetorical problems within feminist debates yet work within these fractures to discover newly emerging productive feminist practices This book contends that it is important to better understand the ways in which feminist rhetorics both empower and constrain and the kinds of identities feminisms afford as well as deny

Low-Income Students and the Perpetuation of Inequality Gary A. Berg, 2016-05-13 Drawing upon quantitative data gathered from the U S Census and U S Department of Education as well as interviews with students from a variety of socio economic and ethnic backgrounds Low Income Students and the Perpetuation of Inequality examines the question of who really benefits from public higher education It engages with questions of social capital opportunity funding and access to education presenting a rich discussion of social mobility the value of college education and the impact of education upon the redistribution of income A thorough exploration of the real impact of college on American society this volume will appeal to social scientists with interests in education social capital social stratification class and social mobility

Feminist Legal Theory Nancy E. Dowd, Michelle S. Jacobs, 2003 Feminist Legal Theory is a groundbreaking collection of feminist work proceeding from the core assumption that the differences among women are essential to feminist analysis Rather than presenting feminist legal theory sequentially with African American feminism or critical race feminism added on at the end the volume thoroughly integrates key readings from non white non middle class and non mainstream writers throughout The volume explores the intersections of race class and gender in such areas as theory family work and economic issues and violence against women Each section of the book begins with an introduction providing context and insights into how the particular pieces included challenge norms and create new paradigms This vibrant challenging collection of work by a broad range of authors represents the cutting edge of feminist theory in concrete applications essential to gender equality Contributors include Patricia Hill Collins Bonnie Thornton Dill Angela P Harris Sylvia A Law Mari Matsuda Martha Minow Esther Ngan Ling Chow John A. Powell Jenny Rivera and Maxine Baca Zinn
