Gerald K. Stone

Racism In Canada The Fifth House Reader:

Racism in Canada Ormond Knight McKague,1991 A selection of some of the best writing and thinking on the subject of racism in Canada Racism Albert J. Wheeler,2005 Of all mankind's vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature The Canadian Jewish Studies Reader Richard Menkis,Norman Ravvin,2004 Canadian Jewish Studies is a young field often lost in the shadow of its American older sister In The Canadian Jewish Studies Reader editors Richard Menkis and Norman Ravvin demonstrate that what's going on in Canada critically and artistically is every bit as interesting as the work being done in the United States Taking a cultural studies approach the editors view the way that Canadian Jewish identity is examined in literature visual arts historical writing feminist research and urban geography among other fields Included too is a preface that introduces the field and argues for the particular interest of Canadian Jewish Studies to readers and students in the international community The articles are supplemented by a range of exciting visuals The Canadian Jewish Studies Reader also features new work by both editors in their exploration of Canadian literature and history Catalog of the Gerald K. Stone Collection of Judaica Gerald K. Stone,2021-01-05 Gerald K Stone has collected books about Canadian Jewry since the early 1980s This volume is a descriptive catalog of his Judaica collection comprising nearly 6 000 paper or electronic documentary resources in English French Yiddish and Hebrew Logically organized indexed and selectively annotated the catalog is broad in scope covering Jewish Canadian history biography religion literature the Holocaust antisemitism Israel and the Middle East and more An introduction by Richard Menkis discusses the significance of the Catalog and collecting for the study of the Jewish experience in Canada An informative bibliographical resource this book will be of interest to scholars and students of Canadian and North American Jewish studies Canadian Book Review Annual ,2003 The Routledge Companion To Postcolonial Studies John McLeod,2007-10-09 The Routledge Companion to Postcolonial Studies offers a unique and up to date mapping of the postcolonial world and is composed of essays as well as shorter entries for ease of reference Introducing students to the history of the great European empires and the cultural legacies created in their wake this book brings together an international range of contributors on such topics as the colonial histories of Britain France Spain and Portugal the diverse postcolonial and diasporic cultural endeavours from Africa the Americas Australasia Europe and South and East Asia the major theoretical formulations poststructuralist materialist culturalist psychological With a comprehensive A to Z of forty key writers and thinkers central to contemporary postcolonial studies and featuring historical maps this is both a concise introduction and an essential resource for any student of postcolonial culture whatever their field A Decolonial and Anti-Racist Transformative Autoethnographic Journey toward Reconciliation Jebunnessa Chapola,2024-07-08 While many non Indigenous academic researchers have introduced the concept of reconciliation in their work they have not adequately explored what it means for transnational immigrants and refugee communities to view reconciliation as a source of knowledge and understanding How can assuming responsibility for reconciliation empower immigrant and refugee women communities Why should immigrant and refugee communities embrace decolonial and anti racist ways of knowing and acting to foster meaningful relationships with Indigenous communities What does it entail to comprehend decolonial and anti racist learning and practice as a system of reciprocal social relations and ethical practices as a framework for reconciliation Decolonial and Anti racist Transformative Autoethnographic Journey toward Reconciliation A Racialized Immigrant Woman s Empowering Stories aims to address these interdisciplinary questions It endeavors not only to challenge our static comprehension of reconciliation but also to demonstrate how assuming responsibility for relearning decolonial and anti racist meanings in our everyday practices is essential These include cultivating respectful relationships with Indigenous peoples honoring Indigenous Treaties taking steps to decolonize our ways of knowing and acting understanding the impacts of colonial education processes preserving our Land and environment ensuring food security and nutritional adequacy fostering intercultural spaces for social interactions and promoting transnational empowerment

Educators' Discourses on Student Diversity in Canada

Diane Gérin-Lajoie, 2008 This text examines recent changes to the Canadian educational system and their impact on the role of the school most significantly how the school must now function as an agent of inclusion for students who are not part of the mainstream school population Based on the findings of a comprehensive five year national study sponsored by the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada Current Trends in the Evolution of School Personnel in Canadian Elementary and Secondary Schools the contributors examine the daily work activities working conditions and the interactions with students in view of recent changes to the educational system and the evolving role of the school Educators Discourses on Student Diversity in Canada Context Policy and Practice challenges the status quo and provides a timely comprehensive and critical overview of education and diversity in Canada

The Emma LaRocque Reader Elaine Coburn, 2025-07-15 Emma LaRocque was born in 1949 in Lac La Biche into a Cree speaking Métis family She grew up in a one room kerosene lit log cabin built by her father At the age of nine she fought her parents to attend school where she encountered English and the colonizer s harmful stereotypes of Indigenous peoples Confronting the contradictions of colonialism sparked her journey as a writer and scholar as she sought to understand the dissonance between her identity and the world around her The Emma LaRocque Reader is a comprehensive collection of her most significant writings poetry and prose offering an intimate window into the mind of one of Canada s foremost Indigenous scholars Through her work LaRocque provides profound insights into the intersections of colonialism sexism and racism in Canada while also critically celebrating the beauty of her community and culture In the afterword she reflects on fifty years of challenging the colonial enterprise A vital contribution to postcolonial literature The Emma LaRocque Reader intertwines the personal and the political to explore what it means to be human offering a powerful testament to Indigenous resistance resilience and vision

Bulletin - Canadian Ethnic Studies Association Canadian Ethnic Studies Association,1982 International Books in Print, 1995 Barbara Hopkinson,[Anonymus AC01401231],1995 Scratching the Surface Enakshi Dua,Angela Robertson,1999 Scratching the Surface brings together 14 anti racist feminists who examine ways in which race and gender interact to shape the lives of women of colour in Canada This collection of articles covers a broad range of topics such as the impact of colonialism and its associated discourses on First Nations and other groups of colonized women racism in the Canadian labour movement the impact of globalization on women of colour the ways in which the institution of the nuclear family shapes racism sexism in communities of colour and the ways in which the women s movement can create an anti racist praxis The book not only provides exciting new insights into how women of colour experience Canadian society but also provides instructors with a textbook that integrates anti racist and feminist approaches Canadian Books in Print ,2003

A Recognition of Being Kim Anderson,2016-05-02 Over 15 years ago Kim Anderson set out to explore how Indigenous womanhood had been constructed and reconstructed in Canada weaving her own journey as a Cree M tis woman with the insights knowledge and stories of the forty Indigenous women she interviewed The result was A Recognition of Being a powerful work that identified both the painful legacy of colonialism and the vital potential of self definition In this second edition Anderson revisits her groundbreaking text to include recent literature on Indigenous feminism and two spirited theory and to document the efforts of Indigenous women to resist heteropatriarchy Beginning with a look at the positions of women in traditional Indigenous societies and their status after colonization this text shows how Indigenous women have since resisted imposed roles reclaimed their traditions and reconstructed a powerful Native womanhood Featuring a new foreword by Maria Campbell and an updated closing dialogue with Bonita Lawrence this revised edition will be a vital text for courses in women and gender studies and Indigenous studies as well as an important resource for anyone committed to the process of decolonization Discurso y sociedad José Luis Blas Arroyo,2006 The fundamental objective of this book is to
