Museums and Wealth Nizan Shaked, 2022-01-13 Choice Outstanding Academic Title 2023 A critical analysis of contemporary art collections and the value form this book shows why the nonprofit system is unfit to administer our common collections and offers solutions for diversity reform and redistributive restructuring In the United States institutions administered by the nonprofit system have an ambiguous status as they are neither entirely private nor fully public Among nonprofits the museum is unique as it is the only institution where trustees tend to collect the same objects they hold in public trust on behalf of the nation if not humanity The public serves as alibi for establishing the symbolic value of art which sustains its monetary value and its markets This structure allows for wealthy individuals at the helm to gain financial benefits from and ideological control over what is at its core purpose a public system The dramatic growth of the art market and the development of financial tools based on art collateral loans exacerbate the contradiction between the needs of museum leadership versus that of the public Indeed a history of private support in the US is a history of racist discrimination and the common collections reflect this fact A history of how private collections were turned public gives context Since the late Renaissance private collections legitimized the prince's right to rule and later with the great revolutions display consolidated national identity But the rise of the American museum reversed this and re privatized the public collection A materialist description of the museum as a model institution of the liberal nation state reveals constellations of imperialist social relations United States Court of International Trade Reports United States. Andrea Fraser Andrea Fraser, Meredith Malone, Mildred Lane Kemper Art Museum, 2007 Public History in Global Perspective Georgina Laragy, Richard Legay, Ciaran O'Neill, Hannah K. Smyth, 2025-07-21 Where should public history sit within the matrix of global international trans national and more local histories Since its emergence in the 1970s Public History has typically been read as community oriented and more local in its applications The academic field in particular has developed along national lines and indeed we see in the many monographs edited books and journals that have emerged a distinct tendency to consider public history as understandable mostly in its relation to the nation state and its attendant mythologies The meta narratives that public history pushes against are the building blocks of national histories political military and heroic histories Conceiving of a global public history seems to have more radical potential than an international public history which arguably simply collects these national histories What would a global public history look like and how can it disrupt the field if interpreted radically This book will centre the work of scholars and professionals in the field of Public History It will offer novel reflections on postgraduate Public History learning work experience and application from recent graduates and partnered institutions A mix of theory and practice traditional and creative methodologies it demonstrates the value of integrating work experience practitioner workshops and close collaboration in Public History training Visual Worlds John R Hall, Blake Stimson, Lisa Tamiris Becker, 2006-02-01 As many observers have noted the world is becoming increasingly visually mediated with the rise of computers and the internet being central factors in the emergence of new tools and conventions Exploring the social structure of visuality this volume contains a collection of essays by internationally renowned artists and scholars from a variety of fields including art history literary theory and criticism cultural studies film and television studies intellectual history and sociology It was conceived to address a bold query how is our experience and understanding of vision and visual form changing under pressure from the various social economic and cultural factors that are linked under the term globalization The essays overlap in their considerations of the tensions between cultures and worlds political life everyday social experience and war The resulting conversation that develops between the chapters touches on points from many visual worlds and provides a unique opportunity for considering the changing character of visual experience today This book will attract readers from a wide range of academic disciplines and will especially be valuable as a textbook for graduate and undergraduate courses in visual culture and cultural studies

RE:akt! Reconstruction, Re-enactment, Re-reporting, 2009 Political Animals Robert Garner, 2016-07-27 In this thorough yet accessible book Robert Garner explores the character of animal protection policy making in Britain and the United States and the opportunities open to animal protection movements In showing how the political system in both countries has been responsive to the growing demands for reforms in the way animals are treated he argues that there is a viable reformist strategy for the animal protection movement short of the adoption of animal rights objectives Much less protection is afforded to animals in the United States however largely as a consequence of the particular policy networks within which animal welfare decisions are made Documents, 2001 Vanguardia Marc James Léger, 2019-01-17 The avant garde is dead or so the story goes for many leftists and capitalists alike But in an era of neoliberal austerity neocolonial militarism and ecological crisis this postmodern view seems increasingly outmoded Rejecting end of ideology post politics Vanguardia delves into the changing praxis of socially engaged art and theory in the age of the Capitalocene Covering the major events of the last decade from anti globalisation protests Occupy Wall Street the Maple Spring Strike Debt and the Anthropocene to the Black Lives Matter and MeToo campaigns Vanguardia puts forward a radical leftist commitment to the revolutionary consciousness of avant garde art and politics Artbibliographies Modern, 2004 Art Matters Julie Ault, 1999-09 A collection of intensive discussions about the role of visual arts in public life The past decade has seen American culture deeply divided by debates over social identity public morality communal values and freedom of expression A key focus of these polarizing discussions has been the role of visual arts in public life In Art Matters five leading cultural critics and two prominent contemporary artists show the ways that this debate has profoundly reshaped our view of American culture Lucy Lippard investigates the extraordinary recent transformations in visual art Michele Wallace takes on high art popular culture and African American identity David Deitcher discusses queer culture and AIDS Carole S Vance ponders censorship and sexually explicit imagery and Lewis Hyde considers democracy and culture Projects by artists Julie

Ault and Andrea Fraser provide a context for these debates Art Matters also offers a close examination of attempts to develop alternative funding sources for artists focusing specifically on the influential private foundation Art Matters a foundation which became an important proponent for new forms of art and for protecting freedom of expression through its funding and advocacy efforts Curious Lessons in the Museum Claire Robins,2016-05-13 Amongst recent contemporary art and museological publications there have been relatively few which direct attention to the distinct contributions that twentieth and twenty first century artists have made to gallery and museum interpretation practices There are fewer still that recognise the pedagogic potential of interventionist artworks in galleries and museums This book fills that gap and demonstrates how artists have been making curious but none the less useful contributions to museum education and curation for some time Claire Robins investigates in depth the phenomenon of artists interventions in museums and examines their pedagogic implications She also brings to light and seeks to resolve many of the contradictions surrounding artists interventions where on the one hand contemporary artists have been accused of alienating audiences and on the other appear to have played a significant role in orchestrating positive developments to the way that learning is defined and configured in museums She examines the disruptive and parodic strategies that artists have employed and argues for that they can be understood as part of a move to re establish the museum as a discursive forum This valuable book will be essential reading for students and scholars of museum studies as well as art and cultural studies The Migrant Image T.

J. Demos,2013-03-04 In The Migrant Image T J Demos examines the ways contemporary artists have reinvented documentary practices in their representations of mobile lives refugees migrants the stateless and the politically dispossessed He presents a sophisticated analysis of how artists from the United States Europe North Africa and the Middle East depict the often ignored effects of globalization and the ways their works connect viewers to the lived experiences of political and economic crisis Demos investigates the cinematic approaches Steve McQueen the Otolith Group and Hito Steyerl employ to blur the real and imaginary in their films confronting geopolitical conflicts between North and South He analyzes how Emily Jacir and Ahlam Shibli use blurs lacuna and blind spots in their photographs performances and conceptual strategies to directly address the dire circumstances of dislocated Palestinian people He discusses the disparate interventions of Walid Raad in Lebanon Ursula Biemann in North Africa and Ayreen Anastas and Rene Gabri in the United States and traces how their works offer images of conflict as much as a conflict of images Throughout Demos shows the ways these artists creatively propose new possibilities for a politics of equality social justice and historical consciousness from within the aesthetic domain

Family Ties Andrea Terry,2015-06-01 House museums act as both sources and suppliers of history Functioning first as private residences they are then preserved as commemorative monuments and become living history museums offering theme based tours led by period costumed interpreters so that visitors might experience what it felt like to live back then In Family Ties Andrea Terry considers the appeal and relevance of domesticated representations of Victorian material culture in a contemporary multicultural context Through three case studies Terry examines Victorian homes that have been repurposed as living history museums that host speculative performances of the past The credibility of Dundurn Castle in Hamilton William Lyon Mackenzie House in Toronto and the Sir George tienne Cartier National Historic Site of Canada in Montreal Terry argues relies on the belief that architectural monuments and the objects they contain are evidence of the time culture nation or people that produced them Family Ties connects residential artifacts to performance by examining the Victorian Christmas programs offered annually at each site to demonstrate the complex nuances of living history Through a detailed exploration of the relationship between heritage living history and memory Family Ties illuminates the effects of institutional interpretations of the past that privilege nationalist myths

The Performance Apparatus Branislav Jakovljevic,2025-04-15 The publication of Louis Althusser s 1969 article Ideology and Ideological State Apparatuses made a deep impact on cultural studies and was instrumental in the formation of the apparatus theory in film studies While contemporaneous with the emergence of performance art this article and the questions of ideology and apparatus it raises barely registered in the field of performance studies which was then in its formative phase Jakovljevi takes this absence of Althusser s apparatus theory from performance studies as an indicator of the ideological position of the field at the moment of its emergence arguing that while theories of ideology played no major role in early performance studies performance art itself offered a number of incisive critiques of ideology Jakovljevi looks at permutations of the apparatus by investigating the work of theorists such as Louis Althusser Michel Foucault Gilles Deleuze and Judith Butler and engagements with the apparatus by a number of artists such as Amiri Baraka Philippe Thomas New York Art Language Terry Fox Every house has a door Clive Robertson and Cassils Jakovljevi suggests that the centrality of behavior in early performance theory is important for the understanding of contemporary society which is dominated by surveillance capitalism If ideology is lodged in behaviors and if surveillance capitalism thrives on the monetization of the behavioral surplus then performance theory can make significant contributions to our understanding of the moment in which we live and the future we are facing The Performance Apparatus argues for the importance of continuing attention to the question of ideology in contemporary neoliberal order Activism Afonso Dias Ramos, Tom Snow, 2023-12-19 An edited collection that addresses the vital intersection of contemporary art and activism in this watershed cultural moment Activism is a critical point of contention for institutions and genealogies of contemporary art around the world Yet artists have consistently engaged in activist discourse lending their skills to social movements and regularly participating in civil and social rights campaigns while also boycotting cultural institutions and exerting significant pressure on them This timely volume edited by Tom Snow and Afonso Ramos addresses an extraordinary moment in debates over the institutional frameworks and networks of art including large scale direct actions as well as a radical rethinking of art venues and urban spaces according to racial class or gender based disparities including demonstrations against the extractive and exploitative practices of neoliberal accumulation and climate catastrophe From ACT UP and its affiliate groups since the dawn of the AIDS crisis to the counter spectacle and street theatrics of the so called Arab Spring and Occupy to ongoing protest movements such as Black Lives Matter Rhodes Must Fall and Decolonize This Place activist aesthetics has proven increasingly difficult to define under traditional classifications Resurgent campaigns for decolonial reckoning ecological justice gender equality indigenous rights and antiracist pedagogies indicate that the role of activism in contemporary art practice urges a critical reassessment One pressing question is whether contemporary art's most radical politics now takes place outside against or in spite of conventional sites of display such as museums biennials and galleries Artists surveyed include ACT UP Basel Abbas Ruanne Abou Rahme Allora Calzadilla Tania Bruguera Black Audio Film Collective Chto Delat Andrea Fraser Nan Goldin Sanja Ivekovi Gulf Labor Amar Kanwar Leslie Labowitz Liberate Tate Sethembile Msezane Zanele Muholi Jan Nikolai Nelles Nora Al Badri Decolonize This Place Michael Rakowitz Oliver Ressler Writers include Dave Beech Judith Butler Amílcar Cabral Elias Canetti Douglas Crimp Jodi Dean Gilles Deleuze T J Demos Nina Dubrovsky Sreyyha Evren Catherine Flood Matthew Fuller David Graeber Gavin Grindon Félix Guattari Brian Holmes Carrie Lambert Beatty Lucy Lippard Yates McKee MTL Collective Gregory Sholette Françoise Vergès Peter Weiss Eyal Weizman Sampling and Site-Specific Practice in Contemporary Art Margot Bouman, 2025-05-15 In the early 20th century copying cutting and pasting entered the Western European avant garde through collage and readymades as artists employed found objects and ephemera to create new meaning from existing materials This book explores how this practice has evolved in contemporary art today looking at its important and distinct outcomes in the practice of artists such as Andrea Fraser Douglas Gordon Isaac Julien Christian Marclay Amie Siegel and Christopher Williams It analyses the pivotal consequences of the interrelationships these artists establish between fragments of culture from television and film to internet culture and their artwork s site where the verb to sample has become deeply tied to digital music editing writing image production database searches and social media Samples take many forms quotations of other cultural works replicas of other objects reenactments of works by other artists or fragments that are quite literally cut or removed from other works of art design or media Via Bouman s analysis we visualise the shared frameworks of meaning that underpin these multifaceted multidimensional and medium fluid works Focussing on action and form the book discusses the relationship between the referent and reference and the citational labor that any sample performs The distributive sense of authorship that emerges places the audience in a new position of significance Concepts and themes discussed include queer and race theory postproduction and mirroring mobile site specificity now time and dragging and gender fluidity and Drag King performance centring sampling as a key form of 21st century art With novel insights into the conceptual material and aesthetic dimensions of sampling in contemporary culture the book provides a new critical framework for understanding the complex implications of this practice as a vital resource for researchers in contemporary art practice and visual culture
