Reported Sightings John Ashbery, 1989 The collected art criticism of John Ashbery      The Postmodern Arts Nigel Wheale, 1995 The Postmodern Arts provides essential material and invaluable guidance for students of modern literature and culture      John Ashbery and Anglo-American Exchange Oli Hazzard, 2018-06-07 In 1966 John Ashbery wrote The English language is constantly trying to stave off invasion by the American language it lives in a state of alert which is reflected to some degree in English poetry This book shows how the work of a major post war American poet has been centrally concerned with questions of national identity and intercultural poetic exchange by reading crucial episodes in Ashbery s oeuvre in the context of an other tradition of modern English poets he himself has defined This line runs from the editor of Ashbery s recent Collected Poems Mark Ford through Lee Harwood in the late 1960s F T Prince in the 1950s to chronologically the first and therefore most important influence on his own work W H Auden Through detailed close readings of the poetry of Ashbery and these English poets original interviews and extensive archival research a new account of Ashbery s aesthetic and a significant re mapping of post war English poetry is presented The biographical slant of the book is highly significant as it reads these writers poetry and correspondence together for the first time suggesting how major poetic innovations arose from specific social contexts from the particulars of relations between poets and also from a broader climate of Anglo American exchange as registered by each poet The book s presentation of the process of poetic influence is attentive to actual exchanges between contemporaries as evidenced in correspondence as opposed to speculative relationships with dominant figures and as such represents a departure from many other studies of Ashbery s work Key themes include Englishness as a national imaginary the concept of the minor reciprocal influence and the poetry of coteries The result is that both Ashbery himself and the landscape of post war English poetry are presented in significantly new lights and adaptation abroad in equal measure especially in Paris From the end of the Algerian War of Independence and the opening of Ileana Sonnabend's gallery for American Pop art in Paris in 1962 to the silkscreen poster workshops of May 68 this book examines critical adaptations of Pop motifs and pictorial devices across French painting graphic design cinema and protest aesthetics Liam Considine argues that the transatlantic dispersion of Pop art gave rise to a new politics of the image that challenged Americanization and prefigured the critiques and contradictions of May 68 Writing Into the Future Alan Golding, 2022-09-13 The dial The little review and the dialogics of the modernist new The new American poetry revisited again New newer and the newest American poetries Poetry anthologies and the idea of the mainstream Serial form in George Oppen and Robert Creeley Place space and new syntax in Oppen's Seascape needle's eye Macro micro material Rachel Blau DuPlessis's Drafts and the post objectivist serial poem Drafts and fragments Rachel Blau DuPlessis's counter Poudrian project Drawings with words Susan Howe's visual feminist poetics Authority marginality England and Ireland in the work of Susan Howe Bruce Andrews writing and poetry What about all this writing Williams and alternative poetics Language writing digital poetics and transitional materialities American Poets and Poetry Jeffrey Gray, Mary McAleer Balkun, James McCorkle, 2015-03-10 The ethnically diverse scope broad chronological coverage and mix of biographical critical historical political and cultural entries make this the most useful and exciting poetry reference of its kind for students today American poetry springs up out of all walks of life its poems are maternal as well as paternal stuff'd with the stuff that is coarse and stuff'd with the stuff that is fine as Walt Whitman wrote adding Of every hue and caste am I of every rank and religion Written for high school and undergraduate students this two volume encyclopedia covers U S poetry from the Colonial era to the present offering full treatments of hundreds of key poets of the American canon What sets this reference apart is that it also discusses events movements schools and poetic approaches placing poets in their social historical political cultural and critical contexts and showing how their works mirror the eras in which they were written Readers will learn about surrealism ekphrastic poetry pastoral elegy the Black Mountain poets and language poetry There are long and rich entries on modernism and postmodernism as well as entries related to the formal and technical dimensions of American poetry Particular attention is paid to women poets and poets from various ethnic groups Poets such as Amiri Baraka Nathaniel Mackey Natasha Trethewey and Tracy Smith are featured The encyclopedia also contains entries on a wide selection of Latino and Native American poets and substantial coverage of the avant garde and experimental movements and provides sidebars that illuminate key points The American Landscape in the Poetry of Frost, Bishop, and Ashbery M. MacArthur, 2008-08-04 Robert Frost Elizabeth Bishop and John Ashbery stand out among major American poets all three shaped the direction and pushed the boundaries of contemporary poetry on an international scale Drawing on biography cultural history and original archival research MacArthur shows us that these distinctive poets share one surprisingly central trope in their oeuvres the Romantic scene of the abandoned house This book scrutinizes the popular notion of Frost as a deeply rooted New Englander demonstrates that Frost had an underestimated influence on Bishop whose preoccupation with houses and dwelling is the obverse of her obsession with travel and questions dominant anti biographical readings of Ashbery as an urban identified poet As she reads poems that evoke particular landscapes and houses lost and abandoned by these poets MacArthur also sketches relevant cultural trends including patterns of rural de settlement the transformation of rural economies from agriculture to tourism and modern American s increasing mobility and rootlessness
