Reprising Timeless Topics Ndpf 45 Reprising Timeless Topics New Directions For Phil Anthropic Fundraising 45:

Reprising Timeless Topics Timothy L. Seiler, 2005-04-13 This issue assembles relevant chapters from previous issues that deserve revisiting and continued thought Topics discussed include the motivation behind major donors new roles of volunteers in development teambuilding with trustees and staff public and private personas of philanthropy philanthropic fundraising and claims of accountability campaigns as organizational transformation inclusiveness in nonprofits and more For topics such as these this issue demonstrates that we need not only to maintain but also to improve our knowledge base This is the 47th volume of the Jossey Bass quarterly report series New Directions for Philanthropic Fundraising

Improving and Strengthening Grant Making Organizations Joanne B. Scanlan, Eugene R. Wilson, 2004-12-27 The issues facing today's grant makers are significant Although foundations provide only part of the support for nonprofit organizations obtaining foundation support is often thought to help in raising other forms of support from individuals corporations and government Today grant makers are questioning how they select grant recipients how they assess success in their grants and how they measure their own management The answers to these and more questions are still being formed The goal of this issue is to share the questions and invite others to join in suggesting solutions to improve and strengthen grant making organizations The chapters in this issue can be read as loosely interconnected and building on one another They include an historic overview of grant making and grant seeking views of governance and how mission can be attained through talented grantsmanship an examination of the principles and practices for effective grantmaking from the Council on Foundations membership in the council and the benefits of self evaluation as it has been applied at the David and Lucile Packard Foundation as a way to increase transparency accessibility and accountability Other chapters look at the process from knowledge management to knowledge building development of a common language and performance standards for private foundations foundation ethics the growth of the online sector of philanthropy and philanthropic choice and donor intent This is the 45th issue of the quarterly series New Directions for Philanthropic Fundraising

Cultures of Giving II: How Heritage, Gender, Wealth, and Values Influence Philanthropy Charles H. Hamilton, Warren R. Ilchman, 1995-11-30 Sponsored by the Indiana Center on Philanthropy In the second of two issues devoted to understanding the diverse cultures that make up the American giving public the contributors examine how ethnic heritage gender wealth and values influence charitable behavior providing fundraisers with a predictive tool that can assist them in strategy development and increasing the value of their efforts This is the 8th issue of the quarterly journal New Directions for Philanthropic Fundraising
