Gaining Control of Your Subconscious Mind: Master Your Own Life Alissa Law, 2020-05-14 The subconscious mind has been seeing and recording things from the beginning and hasn't forgotten It like a magnetic tape that has recorded everything that has happened to you Your life is recorded and being laid back to you reminding you not to let what you think of The story of what you are replayed over and over in your thoughts Although you may not be aware of it you are always listening to what the things you are saying to yourself They are physical messages from your thoughts Your thoughts have energy they drive you to do things like work and relax to do the things you think about The subconscious has a dual purpose It is the gateway between the conscious and the unconscious The subconscious stands between the world and the other things spiritual It that not where it matters It is the gate through which we connect with our souls and our goals Things work both ways On the one hand the world The subconscious one that records and tells the story of who you are and communicates the vibration of the soul and in the field of intention It does not embellish It is not real It is not true It is what you are your being And that vibration reverberates and is recorded by the subconscious is the energy field of the universe where everything is the same frequency vibration like you are like being together to do it and turn back to you just as you are It comes back to you exactly as you put it yourself As a recorder captures the vibration of the world the subconscious captures the vibration of feeling and emotion It captures the vibration of your heart and heart to not resist your experience and the vibration that is the result of that choice And then it vibrates the vibration into the life energy field This energy field is highly impersonal in your vibrations become the vibration with the life vibrating within the field and mirror them back to you It automatically aligns your vibrations to those like vibration with the field Now the world is made of matter and that is the frequency every action there is and that is the law of vibration we bring into the world In your mind you are free to decide it this frequency is made of what you are what you do you are going to be in each moment the being you choose to vibrate it this vibration that is that is impressed in the subconscious It is a vibration that is just what it is behind the words behind the thoughts the feeling the vibration this is what the subconscious is not vibrating It is the magnetic tape And the frequency of the vibration It is a faultless witness to your intention more than anything your vibration The function of the subconscious is to receive the power and wisdom of the soul to come through and not with the ego and to its growth When the subconscious is free of the mind and the window is clean and free of resistance to the new light we then have the highest realm of intelligence and be guided by the spirit
