Quantitative and Applied

Research Methodology in Economics Niranjana Devkota, Sushanta Kumar Mahapatra, 2025-06-06 This book is an illustrative and comprehensive guide designed to help readers understand and navigate the complex world of academic writing and research in economics. Written by experienced researchers, this book offers theoretical and practical insights into the research process. It provides an understanding of the foundations of the research process like research design, methodology, problem definition, data collection and analysis among others. The authors also share insights into the process of preparing, proofreading and publishing academic papers. With their experience in the field of academic research, this book provides practical examples and step by step guidance to assist in research related issues. The section on how to prepare and publish academic papers is a must read for students and early career researchers as it offers valuable guidance on how to succeed in the highly competitive world of academic publishing. With its clear and concise writing, this book will be an indispensable resource for undergraduate and postgraduate economics students, teachers, independent readers and early career researchers as well as those seeking a deeper understanding of research methodology in economics. Making

Sense of Social Research Malcolm Williams, 2003-02-24 What are the essentials for undergraduates and postgraduates engaged in quantitative and qualitative research? How can the gap between formulating a research question and carrying out research be bridged? This accessible, well judged text provides students with a matchless introduction to generic research skills. It is uncluttered, direct and unpatronizing. Key features of the book are: Accessibility, Clarification of key issues and problem solving guidance, Demonstration of the importance of interplay between theory and research, Realism in defining essential research issues and the problems that researchers encounter. It is not the case that anyone can do social research; most research requires training. Here Malcolm Williams provides such training. Helpful and often humorous. Roger Sapsford, University of Teesside. Doing Your Research Project Judith Bell, 2014-08-01 This is the market leading book for anyone doing their research project. Clear, concise and extremely readable, this book provides a practical step by step guide to doing a research project from start to finish. Vella, G. R. Foxall, 2011-11-01 This book provides an expert analysis of the theory of the marketing firm by drawing upon operant psychology, economic theory, and marketing to argue that all firms exist in order to market. The authors explore the nature of bilateral interdependence and suggest a framework to analyse the collaborative and competitive, mutually reinforcing relationships within which the firm acts. The Marketing Firm leverages the power of case study design to operationalise and test the central propositions of this nascent approach to the study of firm behaviour from an economic psychology perspective. The authors develop and detail an entirely appropriate methodology for operationalising and testing a number of propositions through the examination and analysis of comprehensive secondary data published by the UK Competition Commission The findings clearly support the central propositions on firm action and provide valuable insights for expanding the theory of the marketing firm The Marketing Firm will be invaluable for researchers interested in behaviour analysis and the theory of the firm and for post graduate students in microeconomics institutional economics marketing and research methods      Models of the Family in Modern Societies Catherine Hakim,2018-01-12 This title was first published in 2003 This text reports on two nationally representative surveys of men and women in Britain and Spain the former being funded by the Future of Work Research Programme and conducted by the ONS Catherine Hakim presents a study of ideal models of the family and family roles work orientation patriarchal values and lifestyle preferences showing how these impact on women s marital histories fertility employment patterns and occupational segregation but not on men s labour market participation Lifestyle preferences and work orientations have a strong impact on women s activities and especially on married women s choices but patriarchal values have almost no impact on behaviour The book also covers educational homogamy housing classes labour mobility and contrasts between ethnic minority groups in core values and labour market participation      Routledge Handbook of Human Security Mary Martin,Taylor Owen,2013-11-07 This Handbook will serve as a standard reference guide to the subject of human security which has grown greatly in importance over the past twenty years Human security has been part of academic and policy discourses since it was first promoted by the UNDP in its 1994 Human Development Report Filling a clear gap in the current literature this volume brings together some of the key scholars and policy makers who have contributed to its emergence as a mainstream concept including Nobel prize winner Amartya Sen and Sadako Ogata who jointly chaired the 2001 Commission on Human Security Drawing upon a range of theoretical and empirical analyses the Handbook provides examples of the use of human security in policies as diverse as disaster management arms control and counter terrorism and in different geographic and institutional settings from Asia to Africa and the UN It also raises important questions about how the concept might be adapted and operationalised in future Over the course of the book the authors draw on three key aspects of human security thinking Theoretical issues to do with defining human security as a specific discourse Human security from a policy and institutional perspective and how it is operationalised in different policy and geographic contexts Case studies and empirical work Featuring some of the leading scholars in the field the Routledge Handbook of Human Security will be essential reading for all students of human security critical security conflict and development peace and conflict studies and of great interest to students of international security and IR in general      Experiences of Emerging Economy Firms Marin Marinov,2015-05-05 Experiences of Emerging Economy Firms investigates the different elements of the experiences of emerging economy firms and sheds essential light on a large variety of aspects associated with their functioning in both home and host contexts      The Politics of Europeanisation Nazlı Kazanoğlu,2021-05-03 With the dramatic changes in the extent to which women and men contribute to unpaid domestic work and paid employment work and family life reconciliation has become more prominent than ever on the European Union agenda This comparative study examines the Europeanisation patterns of work and family life reconciliation policies in a longstanding candidate country Turkey and a founding member state Germany over the last decade with a particular emphasis on intervening domestic actors and factors Combining Europeanisation literature and New Institutionalism theory it draws on document analysis and interviews with EU representatives German and Turkish political elites and representatives of civil society organisations to shed light on the diverging nature of the Europeanisation process in different countries A study of the influence of local actors on the push for stronger convergence among member and candidate states on EU work and family life reconciliation policies The Politics of Europeanisation will appeal to social scientists with interests in social policy gender studies EU politics and the Europeanisation process

Total Stakeholding: Leading stakeholder networks to sustainable success Jan Ruecker, 2012-04-26 Inhaltsangabe Introduction Background of the topic an reason for its choice Initiation for the project To introduce this work the author refers to the World Economic Forum Annual Meeting 2011 which took place in Davos from the 26th 30th of January 2011 its agendas and reports The World Economic Forum 2011 At first view this meeting looks like a get together of several leaders from different backgrounds meaning leaders from different industries as well as political and religious leaders But the huge amount of attendees and their position in the world turns this get together into a platform to discuss strategies and solutions for the world s future economy and how to overcome the latest issues regarding the financial crisis The theme of this year s meeting was Shared norms for a new reality indicating that the world has reached a turning point where change is important to assure a sustainable future Abhisit Vejjajiva Prime Minister of Thailand for example states Governments and businesses should start revising their social contracts with their stakeholders in the light of the new realities of the post crisis world Furthermore his concern is that today s leaders are mostly just focused on the short term success due to the high pressure from their shareholders and thus work in their own borders without caring about the common good outside the borders in order to generate sustainable success This concern gets a higher emphasis by Indra Nooyi Chairman and CEO of PepsiCo who actually attacks today s businesspeople and want to send them back to university because they just aim for short term profits rather than worrying about a sustainable future In addition it is about the future leadership role of China considering multi stakeholders to achieve win win solutions Victor Chu First Eastern Investment Group leadership for people Christine Lagarde French Minister of Finance and finally an optimistic outlook for the future especially Europe and the request of change and more transparency by David Cameron Prime Minister of the United Kingdom At the end buzzwords like stakeholders sustainability partnership social responsibility growth balance and responsible leadership just to name a few can be found throughout all statements As a matter of course all these statements are in a broader context meaning global issues but can easily transferred to normal businesses Reason for this project Sustainability has

presents a new multi disciplinary theory for explaining and predicting current and future patterns of women s choice between employment and family work Preference theory is the first theory developed specifically to explain women s behaviour and choices As such it constitutes a major break from male centred theorizing to date in sociology and economics Preference theory is grounded on the substantial body of new research on women s work and fertility that has flourished within feminist scholarship It identifies five major historical changes that collectively are producing a qualitatively new scenario for women in prosperous societies in the 21st century Throughout the analysis the USA and Britain illustrate what the new scenario means for women how it alters their preferences and work lifestyles choices Hakim also reviews research evidence on contemporary developments across Europe Canada Australia Japan and the far East to develop a new theory that is genuine international in perspective
