Research Memorandum on Crime in the Depression Thorsten Sellin, 1937 Research Memorandum on Crime in the Depression Johan Thorsten Sellin, 1972 Crime and the Development of Modern Society Howard Zehr, 2019-03-11 Originally published in 1976 This study deals with crime as social history in Germany and France during the nineteenth century It establishes the broad statistical patterns of crime over the century so that the crime phenomenon can be analysed in the light of the other main trends of economic and social life One basic concern is the relationship between crime and economic condition The second main issue is to establish whether specifically rural and urban patterns of crime can be isolated The third main concern is to establish whether any relationship existed between patterns of delinquency and the social upheaval which accompanied industrialisation and urbanisation These three main issues continue as important questions in considering modern day crime Nineteenth century Germany and France provide an excellent context in which to examine them because of the substantial urbanisation and industrialisation which occurred between 1830 and 1914 As well as providing an important contribution to the history of nineteenth century society this book also indicates important lessons for the contemporary world Mean Streets John Hagan, Bill McCarthy, 1998-08-28 About youth crime and homelessness in Canada Laura Nader Laura Nader, 2020-12-15 Laura Nader documents decades of letters written received and archived by esteemed author and anthropologist Laura Nader She revisits her correspondence with academic colleagues lawyers politicians military officers and many others all with unique and insightful perspectives on a variety of social and political issues She uses personal and professional correspondence as a way of examining complex issues and dialogues that might not be available by other means By compiling these letters Nader allows us to take an intimate look at how she interacts with people across multiple fields disciplines and outlooks Arranged chronologically by decade this book follows Nader from her early career and efforts to change patriarchal policies at UC Berkeley to her efforts to fight against climate change and minimize environmental degradation The letters act as snapshots giving us glimpses of the lives and issues that dominated culture at the time of their writing Among the many issues that the correspondence in Laura Nader explores are how a man on death row sees things how scientists are concerned about and approach their subject matter and how an anthropologist ponders issues of American survival The result is an intriguing and comprehensive history of energy physics law anthropology feminism and legal anthropology in the United States as well as a reflection of a lifelong career in legal scholarship Indian Social Problems (Vol-1) G.R.
