Towards a New Ethnohistory Keith Thor Carlson, John Sutton Lutz, David M. Schaepe, Naxaxalhts'i - Albert "Sonny" McHalsie, 2018-04-20 Towards a New Ethnohistory engages respectfully in cross cultural dialogue and interdisciplinary methods to co create with Indigenous people a new decolonized ethnohistory This new ethnohistory reflects Indigenous ways of knowing and is a direct response to critiques of scholars who have for too long foisted their own research agendas onto Indigenous communities Community engaged scholarship invites members of the Indigenous community themselves to identify the research questions host the researchers while they conduct the research and participate meaningfully in the analysis of the researchers findings The historical research topics chosen by the St l community leaders and knowledge keepers for the contributors to this collection range from the intimate and personal to the broad and collective But what principally distinguishes the analyses is the way settler colonialism is positioned as something that unfolds in sometimes unexpected ways within St l history as opposed to the other way around This collection presents the best work to come out of the world s only graduate level humanities based ethnohistory field school The blending of methodologies and approaches from the humanities and social sciences is a model of twenty first century interdisciplinarity

Homeless Youth of Pakistan Muhammad Naveed Noor, 2021-08-17 While homeless young people HYP are typically perceived as irresponsible and morally suspect individuals who lack essential social skills to navigate their lives this book offers an alternative and more positive perspective It demonstrates that HYP improvise with resources available on the streets to improve their social and financial status although they experience significant social structural constraints This ground breaking text provides an analysis of social processes that contribute to young people s homelessness their engagement in sex work their establishment of intimate partnerships and sexual practices which may increase their risk of HIV and other sexually transmitted infections STIs The book demonstrates how the ongoing social and financial instability and insecurity neutralises HYP s knowledge of HIV STIs and how financial considerations fear of violence by clients and social obligations in intimate partnerships contribute to their sexual risk taking The author argues that the conventional approach of promoting health through raising awareness regarding HIV STI prevention may continue to bring less than promising outcomes unless we focus on how structural and contextual conditions operate in the backdrop and produce conditions less conducive for young people Included in the coverage factors that contribute to youth homelessness factors that shape sexual practice a Bourdieusian analysis of youth homelessness and sexual risk taking a health promotion approach that can potentially reduce youth homelessness and their risk of HIV STIs Homeless Youth of Pakistan Survival Sex and HIV Risk will attract undergraduate and postgraduate students and researchers interested in exploring issues such as youth homelessness sexual risk taking and HIV STIs Research Methods in Education Louis Cohen, Lawrence Manion, Keith Morrison, 2017-10-12 This thoroughly updated and extended eighth edition of the long running bestseller Research Methods in Education covers the whole range of methods employed by educational research at all stages Its five main parts cover the context of educational research research design methodologies for educational research methods of data collection and data analysis and reporting It continues to be the go to text for students academics and researchers who are undertaking understanding and using educational research and has been translated into several languages It offers plentiful and rich practical advice underpinned by clear theoretical foundations research evidence and up to date references and it raises key issues and questions for researchers planning conducting reporting and evaluating research This edition contains new chapters on Mixed methods research The role of theory in educational research Ethics in Internet research Research questions and hypotheses Internet surveys Virtual worlds social network software and netography in educational research Using secondary data in educational research Statistical significance effect size and statistical power Beyond mixed methods using Qualitative Comparative Analysis QCA to integrate cross case and within case analyses Research Methods in Education is essential reading for both the professional researcher and anyone involved in educational and social research The book is supported by a wealth of online materials including PowerPoint slides useful weblinks practice data sets downloadable tables and figures from the book and a virtual interactive self paced training programme in research methods These resources can be found at www.routledge.com/cw/cohen Evidence-Based Practice Heather R.
