Research on Written Composition George Hillocks (Jr.), 1986 A Synthesis of Research on Second Language Writing in English Ilona Leki, Alister Cumming, Tony Silva, 2010-04-15 Synthesizing twenty five years of the most significant and influential findings of published research on second language writing in English this volume promotes understanding and provides access to research developments in the field It is an essential reference tool for libraries and for serious writing professionals both researchers and practitioners both L1 and L2 Genre-based Automated Writing Evaluation for L2

Research Writing E. Cotos, 2014-09-02 Research writing and teaching is a great challenge for novice scholars especially L2 writers This book presents a compelling and much needed automated writing evaluation AWE reinforcement to L2 research writing pedagogy Supporting Research Writing Valerie Matarese, 2012-11-06 Supporting Research Writing explores the range of services designed to facilitate academic writing and publication in English by non native English speaking NNES authors It analyses the realities of offering services such as education translation editing and writing and then considers the challenges and benefits that result when these boundaries are consciously blurred It thus provides an opportunity for readers to reflect on their professional roles and the services that will best serve their clients needs A recurring theme is therefore the interaction between language professional and client author The book offers insights into the opportunities and challenges presented by considering ourselves first and foremost as writing support professionals differing in our primary approach through teaching translating editing writing or a combination of those but with a common goal This view has major consequences for the training of professionals who support English language publication by NNES academics and scientists Supporting Research Writing will therefore be a stimulus to professional development for those who support English language publication in real life contexts and an important resource for those entering the profession Takes a holistic approach to writing support and reveals how it is best conceived as a spectrum of overlapping and interrelated professional activities Stresses the importance of understanding the real world needs of authors in their quest to publish Provides insights into the approaches used by experienced practitioners across Europe The SAGE Handbook of Writing Development Roger Beard, Jeni Riley, Debra Myhill, Martin Nystrand, 2009-07-23 By drawing on international cross phase and cross disciplinary research perspectives this book offers a comprehensive review of writing development invaluable for researchers and practitioners alike New Directions for Research in L2 Writing S. Ransdell, M.-L. Barbier, 2012-12-06 GERT RIJLAARSDAM University of Amsterdam Utrecht University the Netherlands Multilingualism is becoming the default in our global world The present day global citizens use different languages in different situations Apart from their mother tongue they learn languages that give them access to other regions nations and worlds In all countries of the European Union for instance at least one foreign language is mandatory in secondary schools Most students are taught English as a foreign language the lingua franca in Europe In large parts of the USA students move from Spanish to English schooling In parts of Canada bilingual education is standard In Catalonia Spain children learn Catalan and Spanish in Hong Kong English and Chinese The smaller the world becomes the more languages are used and learned For writing process research this development into multilingualism entails at least two challenges First of all studying the relation between writing in L1 and L2 provides an opportunity for collaborative studies in different language settings Second the issue of generalization of findings comes to the fore It becomes evident now that we have unjustly neglected this issue in writing process research We have got to ask whether it is feasible to talk about writing processes in general without referring to the language of the written texts and without taking into account the educational and linguistic culture in which these texts originate

Developing International EFL/ESL Scholarly Writers Donna Bain Butler, 2015-03-30 This study had a research purpose and a pedagogical purpose Research disclosed the dynamic changing nature of learner internal and learner external variables that influence strategic competence for developing EFL ESL writers This competence was found necessary for international graduate students to move from writer centered learning to reader centered communication The research instruments proved to be practical tools for guiding learners processes of learning and writing a scholarly paper or article and avoiding plagiarism The implication for teachers and program administrators is a systematic approach for developing self regulation control in EFL ESL writing The first part of the book reports on the mixed methods quantitative and qualitative research The second part gives an in depth report of the 6 cases used in the research The third part presents tools for systematically developing self regulation in scholarly and academic writing with a student and teacher checklists for formative assessment that are valid and reliable and a model syllabus for teachers that can be adapted across disciplines and genres These tools deal with learning strategies and their applications to writing and writing instruction research,1919 Research Methods in the Study of L2 Writing Processes Rosa M. Manchón,Julio Roca de Larios,2023-10-15 This volume brings together the perspectives of new and established scholars who have connected with the broad fields of first language L1 and second language L2 writing to discuss critically key methodological developments and challenges in the study of L2 writing processes The focus is on studies of composing and of engagement with feedback on written drafts with particular attention to methods of process tracing through data such as concurrent or stimulated verbal reports interviews diaries digital recording visual screen capture eye tracking keystroke logging questionnaires and or ethnographic observation The chapters in the book illustrate how progress has been made in developing research methods and empirical understandings of writing processes in introducing methodological innovations and in pointing to future methodological directions It will be an essential methodological guide for novice and experienced researchers senior students and educators investigating the processes of writing in additional languages Speaking About Writing Peter Smagorinsky,1994-04-29 This is not a how to do book it is a why to do book What is powerful about these chapters is that they are theory driven and they thus allow us as researchers to understand when and why particular methodologies are appropriate for investigating particular problems in particular situations The book is therefore in an important sense a why you shouldn't book because the authors deliberate on how the motivating theory for research is tied to the theoretical grounds for choosing a methodology The authors grasp and reflect on the need for a researcher to fully understand a methodology's power and its limitations They urge researchers to consistently pose the questions Why should I use this method What does it yield What lens does it provide for the problem I am investigating What must I account for in employing it Speaking About Writing provides not only a range of methodologies to consider for the investigation of writing but situating them in the context of one another enables the reader to consider the relative merits of each Above all the authors stress that research is driven by problems rather than methods and that premise helps researchers consider what is potentially available through the tools provided by different methodologies William Smith University of Pittsburgh Used as a comprehensive text and research tool Speaking About Writing focuses on the issues involved in the collection analysis and interpretation of data The approach goes beyond mere quantitative qualitative differences to examine and critique the very underpinnings and assumptions of the distinct methodologies Distinguished scholars discuss different writing methods stimulated recall think aloud analysis retrospective analysis and intervention analysis Contributors in discourse analysis look at the ways in which individuals interact with other members of the writing community during a more extended writing process problem discussion draft feedback and revision and teacher conferences Finally concluding chapters allow for responses from critics to earlier chapters in order to provide clarification and explanation Speaking About Writing is the perfect text for scholars and students in written communication composition and english communication research methods and psychology cognition
