Female Labour Market Behaviour and Fertility Jacques J. Siegers, Jenny de Jong-Gierveld, Evert van Imhoff, 2012-12-06 Since 1987 the investigation of the relationship between female labour market behaviour and fertility which forms part of the research programme of the Economic Institute Centre for Interdisciplinary Research on Labour Market and Distribution Issues CIAV of Utrecht University also became a part of the research programme of the Netherlands Interdisciplinary Demographic Institute NIDI Since then I have been entrusted with research on this topic In this context I acted on a suggestion made by Frans Willekens to organize an international workshop with the help of other members of the NIDI staff and with the administrative and organizational support of the NIDI This resulted in the workshop Female Labour Market Behaviour and Fertility Preferences Restrictions Behaviour held at the Netherlands Interdisciplinary Demographic Institute in The Hague April 20 22 1989 under the auspices of the European Association for Population Studies EAPS In this workshop demographers econometricians economists psychologists and socio logists discussed the paths to a truly interdisciplinary approach to the relationship between female labour market behaviour and fertility Such an interdisciplinary approach requires a common theoretical framework The rational choice framework was considered to be best suited to this purpose As a consequence the workshop was not only structured by what was studied but also by how it was studied This volume consists of the papers presented at the above mentioned workshop as revised by the authors in collaboration with the editors

Review of Austrian Economics, Volume 2 Rothbard, 1990 Report of Research Activities Yale University. Cowles Foundation for Research in Economics, 1954 PISA 2015 Results (Volume II) Policies and Practices for Successful Schools OECD, 2016-12-06 The OECD Programme for International Student Assessment PISA examines not just what students know in science reading and mathematics but what they can do with what they know Results from PISA show educators and policy makers the quality and equity of learning outcomes achieved elsewhere Spatial Economics Volume II Stefano Colombo, 2020-12-18 Space is a crucial variable in any economic activity Spatial Economics is the branch of economics that explicitly aims to incorporate the space dimension in the analysis of economic phenomena From its beginning in the last century Spatial Economics has contributed to the understanding of the economy by developing plenty of theoretical models as well as econometric techniques having the space as a core dimension of the analysis This edited volume addresses the complex issue of Spatial Economics from an applied point of view This volume is part of a more complex project including another edited volume Spatial Economics Volume I Theory collecting original papers which address Spatial Economics from a theoretical perspective Subject Guide to Books in Print , 1983 Sustainable Human Development in the Twenty-First Century - Volume II Ismail Sirageldin, 2008-12-31 Sustainable Human Development in the Twenty First Century is a component of Encyclopedia of Human Resources Policy Development and Management in the global Encyclopedia of Life Support Systems EOLSS which is an integrated compendium of twenty Encyclopedias The volume of Human Development examines the state and nature of human development and identifies factors that determine its promotion for the twenty first century A general goal since the ultimate goal for human development is to enhance the quality of human life However the concept quality of human life is not well defined It is determined by a set of interrelated

factors that cut across many disciplines with varied perspectives and paradigms These include the prevailing culture health status economic performance technological development political and social conditions the building of human capacity and capabilities and institutional development on the local and global levels For example in an environment characterized by a better quality of human life it is expected that people will be able to lead long and productive lives They are also expected to enjoy good health have access to knowledge and educational opportunities and be treated by all with respect in a socially equitable and dignified manner In the sphere of political economy they are expected to have the opportunity to participate in governance decisions that affect their lives and the community in which they live and to have the potential to earn sufficient income to supply themselves with adequate nutrition shelter and other material and aesthetic needs Furthermore people are expected to maintain a sustainable environment and equitable social contracts across space and generations especially in the context of the evolving global governance The volume of Sustainable Human Development in the Twenty First Century is divided into five topics which are then expanded into multiple subtopics each as a chapter presented in two volumes The first is Major issues in Human Development and provides an over view of the Topic with emphasis on the sociological foundation of human development The second Topic Diversity and Historical Processes reviews the historical and technological processes which have led to the present state of human diversity and differentiation The third Topic Causes of Global Change focuses on whether it is possible in the present global environment to enlarge people s capabilities so that economic progress may be translated into a multidimensional human happiness The fourth Topic Consequences of Global Change examines global change not in the narrow sense of short term economic change but rather as historical waves of long term development The fifth Topic on Planning Strategies reviews current practice and projects challenges in the next century These two volumes are aimed at the following five major target audiences University and College Students Educators Professional Practitioners Research Personnel and Policy Analysts Managers and Decision Makers and NGOs

Handbook of Research Methods and Applications in Heterodox Economics The Late Frederic S. Lee, Bruce Cronin, 2016-04-29

Despite the important methodological critiques of the mainstream offered by heterodox economics the dominant research method taught in heterodox programmes remains econometrics This compelling Handbook provides a comprehensive introduction to a range of alternative research methods invaluable for analysing the data prominent in heterodox studies Providing a solid basis for a mixed methods approach to economic investigations the expertly crafted contributions are split into three distinct sections philosophical foundation and research strategy research methods and data collection and applications Introductions to a host of invaluable methods such as survey historical ethnographic experimental and mixed approaches together with factor cluster complex and social network analytics are complemented by descriptions of applications in practice Practical and expansive this Handbook is highly pertinent for students and scholars of economics particularly those dedicated to heterodox approaches as it provides a solid reference for mixed methods not available in mainstream economics research methods courses How Was Life? Volume II New Perspectives on Well-being and Global Inequality since 1820 OECD,2021-03-25 How was life in 1820 and how has it changed since then This question which was at the core of How Was Life Global Well being since 1820 published by the OECD in 2014 is addressed by this second volume based on a broader perspective
