Routledge Reader In Politics And Performance:

The Routledge Reader in Politics and Performance Lizbeth Goodman, Jane De Gay, 2000 The Routledge Reader in Politics and Performance Lizbeth Goodman, Jane De Gay, 2000 The Routledge Reader in Politics and Performance brings together a collection of extracts from key writings on politics ideology and performance Alternative Theater in Taiwan: Feminist and Intercultural Approaches Iris Hsin-chun Tuan, 2007 Learning and Teaching in a Metropolis Lynn Ang, John Trushell, Patricia Walker, 2010 At the interface Probing the Boundaries seeks to encourage and promote cutting edge interdisciplinary and multi disciplinary projects and inquiry by bringing people together from differing contexts disciplines professions and vocations the aim is to engage in conversations that are innovative imaginative and creatively interactive

Performing Women Alison Oddey, 2016-04-30 Alison Oddey's interviews with prominent performing women span generations cultures perspectives practice and the best part of the twentieth century telling various stories collectively Stand ups classic actresses film and television personalities experimental and alternative practitioners discuss why they want to perform what motivates them and how their personal history has contributed to their desire to perform Oddey's critical introductory and concluding chapters analyze both historical and cultural contexts and explore themes arising from the interviews These include sense of identity acting as playing recapturing and revisiting childhood displacement of roots performing motherhood and being performing comedy differences between theatre film and television performance attitudes towards and relationships with audiences and working with directors The prominent subtext of motherhood reveals a consciousness of split subjectives with and beyond performance This new edition of the book includes three new interviews with actresses and is useful primary resource material for undergraduate students on performance studies courses

Churchill's Socialism Siân Adiseshiah, 2020-06-12 Although now celebrated as a world leading playwright Caryl Churchill has received little attention for her socialism which has been frequently overlooked in favour of emphasising gendered identities and postmodernist themes Churchill's Socialism examines eight of Churchill's plays with reference to socialist theories and political movements This well researched and dynamic new book reframes Churchill's work positioning her plays within socialist discourses and producing persuasive political readings of her drama that reflect much more of the political challenge that the plays pose It additionally explores her uneasy relationship with postmodernism which presents itself particularly in Churchill's later plays The book contains a very helpful chapter on socialist contexts which outlines some of the key events debates and movements during the late 1960s up until the early 2000s This chapter also offers an incisive critique of the easy acceptance by some socialists of a postmodernist rejection of grand narratives and political agency An in depth examination of the rarely explored interconnections of utopianism and theatre forms another chapter where all eight of Churchill's plays Light Shining in Buckinghamshire Vinegar Tom Top Girls Fen Serious Money Mad Forest The Skriker and Far Away are introduced The plays are then discussed in pairs in a further four chapters with reference to communist historiography the class gender intersection the end of history thesis ecocritical challenges and postmodernism Theatre and Interculturalism Ric Knowles, 2010-06-30 How are hybrid and diasporic identities performed in increasingly diverse societies How can we begin to think differently about theatrical flow across cultures Interculturalism is an increasingly urgent topic in the 21st century As human traffic between nations increases it becomes imperative to critically re examine the way cultural exchange is performed Theatre Interculturalism surveys established approaches and asks what it would mean to reconsider intercultural performance not from the points of view of the colonizing cultures but from below from the viewpoints of the historically colonized and marginalized Architectural Research Addressing Societal Challenges Manuel Jorge Rodrigues Couceiro da Costa, Filipa Roseta, Joana Pestana Lages, Susana Couceiro da Costa, 2019-08-08 The escalating interdependency of nations drives global geopolitics to shift ever more quickly Societies seem unable to control any change that affects their cities whether positively or negatively Challenges are global but solutions need to be implemented locally How can architectural research contribute to the future of our changing society How has it contributed in the past The theme of the 10th EAAE ARCC International Conference Architectural Research Addressing Societal Challenges was set to address these questions This book Architectural Research Addressing Societal Challenges includes reviewed papers presented in June 2016 at the 10th EAAE ARCC International Conference which was held at the facilities of the Faculty of Architecture of the University of Lisbon The papers have been further divided into the following five sub themes a Changing Society In Transit Global Migration Renaturalization of the City Emerging Fields of Architectural Practice and Research on Architectural Education The EAAE ARCC International Conference held under the aegis of the EAAE and of the ARCC is a conference organized every other year in collaboration with one of the member schools universities of those associations alternatively in North America or in Europe Folk Theatres of North India Karan Singh, 2019-11-26 This book examines folk theatres of North India as a unique performative structure a counter stream to the postulations of Sanskrit and Western realistic theatre In focusing on their historical social and cultural imprints it explores how these theatres challenge the linearity of cultural history and subvert cultural hegemony The book looks at diverse forms of theatre such as svangs nautanki tamasha all with conventions like open performative space free mingling of spectators and actors flexibility in roles and genres etc It discusses the genesis history and the independent trajectory of folk theatres folk theatre and Sanskrit dramaturgy cinematic legacy and theatrical space as performance besides investigating causes inter relations within socio cultural factors and the performance principles underlying them It shows how these theatres effectively contest delimitation of human creative impulses as revealed in classical Sanskrit theatre from structuring as also of normative impulses of religion and culture while amalgamating influences from Western theatre newly rising religious reform movements of 19th century India tantra and Bhakti It further highlights their ability to adapt and reinvent themselves in accordance with spatial and temporal transformations to constitute an important anthropological layer of Indian society Comprehensive and

Cizmar, 2023-01-19 Ernie McClintock and the Jazz Actors Family is a critical biography examining the life and work of Ernie McClintock the founder of the Jazz Acting Method and 1997 recipient of the Living Legend Award from the National Black Theatre Festival whose inclusive contributions to acting and actor training have largely remained on the fringes of scholarship and practice Based on original archival research and interviews with McClintock's students and peers this book traces his life from his childhood in Chicago to Harlem in the 1960s at the height of the Black Arts Movement to Richmond Virginia in 2003 paying particular attention to his Black Power influenced culturally specific acting theory and versatile Black theatrical productions As a biographical study this book establishes McClintock as a leading figure of the Black Theatre Movement proven by the Jazz Acting technique his critically acclaimed productions and his leadership positions in organizations such as the Black Theatre Alliance Ernie McClintock and the Jazz Actors Family explores how the

Jazz Acting technique was applied in productions such as N R Davidson s El Hajj Malik Derek Walcott s Dream on Monkey Mountain Cheryl West s Before It Hits Home Endesha Mae Holland s From the Mississippi Delta and many collectively authored pieces The book also investigates why he has been excluded from dominant theatre histories especially considering how as a gay Black man he persistently defied the status quo questioning practices of administrators of theatres and mainstream theatrical standards Ernie McClintock and the Jazz Actors Family is situated at the intersection of Black acting theory Black Arts Movement history and Black queer studies and is an illuminating study of an important figure for actors acting teachers acting students and cultural historians This is an essential resource for readers who are seeking histories and approaches outside of a white straight Eurocentric framework Women Direct Shakespeare in America Nancy Taylor,2005 This book offers a series of eight case studies of the connection between feminist performance theory and practice considering how women directors of Shakespeare in America have recently interpreted and staged female subjectivity and gender particularly as exhibited in sex relations The work focuses on eight women and choices they made in specific productions Jayme Koszyn s and Lisa Wolpe s Romeo and Juliet Tina Packer s and Ellen O Brien s Measure for Measure Abigail Adam s and Melia Bensussen s Twelfth Night Barbara Gaines s and JoAnne Akalaitis s Cymbeline Nancy Taylor interviewed all of the directors and the first section of the book includes a brief biography of each institutional opportunities and limitations and the director s views about Shakespeare s depiction of women in general as well as future goals for her work BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Cultures of decolonisation Ruth Craggs,Claire Wintle,2016-01-01 Cultures of decolonisation combines studies of visual literary and material cultures in order to explore the complexities of the end of empire as a process Where other accounts focus on high politics and constitutional reform this volume reveals the diverse ways in which cultures contributed to wider political economic and social change This book demonstrates the transnational character of decolonisation thereby illustrating the value of comparison between different cultural forms and diverse places in understanding the nature of this wide reaching geopolitical change Individual chapters focus on architecture theatre museums heritage sites fine art and interior design alongside institutions such as artists groups language agencies and the Royal Mint across Africa Asia the Caribbean and Europe Offering a range of disciplinary perspectives these contributions provide revealing case studies for those researching decolonisation across the humanities and social sciences Contemporary Street Arts in Europe S. Haedicke,2012-11-28 Street theatre invades a public space shakes it up and disappears but the memory of the disruption haunts the site for audiences who experience it This book looks at how the dynamic interrelationship of performance participant and place creates a politicized aesthetic of public space that enables the public to rehearse democratic practices Lights, Camera, Feminism? Samantha Majic,2023-05-16 Celebrities in the United States have drawn significant attention and resources to the complex issue of human trafficking a subject of feminist concern and they are often criticized for promoting sensationalized and simplistic understandings of the issue In this comprehensive analysis of celebrities anti trafficking activism however Samantha Majic finds that this phenomenon is more nuanced even as some celebrities promote regressive issue narratives and carceral solutions others use their platforms to elevate more diverse representations of human trafficking and feminist analyses of gender inequality Lights Camera Feminism thus argues that we should understand celebrities as multilevel political actors whose activism is shaped and mediated by a range of personal and contextual factors with implications for feminist and democratic politics more broadly

Community Politics and the Peace Process in Contemporary Northern Irish Drama Eva Urban,2011 This book examines theatre within the context of the Northern Ireland conflict and peace process with reference to a wide variety of plays theatre productions and community engagements within and across communities The author clarifies both the nature of the social and political vision of a number of major contemporary Northern Irish dramatists and the manner in which this vision is embodied in text and in performance The book identifies and celebrates a tradition of playwrights and drama practitioners who to this day challenge and question all Northern Irish ideologies and propose alternative paths The author s analysis of a selection of Northern Irish plays written and produced over the course of the last thirty years or so illustrates the great variety of approaches to ideology in Northern Irish drama while revealing a common approach to staging the conflict and the peace process with a distinct emphasis on utopian performatives and the possibility of positive change

Gestures of Music Theater Dominic Symonds, Millie Taylor,2014-02 Gestures of Music Theatre The Performativity of Song and Dance offers new cutting edge essays focusing on song and dance as performative gestures that not only entertain but also act on audiences and performers The chapters range across musical theatre opera theatre and other artistic practices from Glee to Gardzienice Beckett to Disney Broadway to Turner Prize winning sound installation The chapters draw together these diverse examples of vocality and physicality by exploring their affect rather than through considering them as texts The book s contributors derive methodologies from many disciplines Resisting discrete discipline based enquiry they share methodologies and performance repertoires with discipline based scholarship from theatre studies musicology and cultural studies amongst other approaches Together they view these as neighboring voices whose dialogue enriches the study of contemporary music theatre
