Adler,2014-03-27 Zhu Xi the twelfth century architect of the neo Confucian canon declared Zhou Dunyi to be the first true sage since Mencius This was controversial as many of Zhu Xi's contemporaries were critical of Zhou Dunyi's Daoist leanings and other figures had clearly been more significant to the Song dynasty Confucian resurgence Why was Zhou Dunyi accorded such importance Joseph A Adler finds that the earlier thinker provided an underpinning for Zhu Xi's religious practice Zhou Dunyi's theory of the interpenetration of activity and stillness allowed Zhu Xi to proclaim that his own theory of mental and spiritual cultivation mirrored the fundamental principle immanent in the natural world This book revives Zhu Xi as a religious thinker challenging longstanding characterizations of him Readers will appreciate the inclusion of complete translations of Zhou Dunyi's major texts Zhu Xi's published commentaries and other primary source material      The Politics of Peace Te-Li Lau,2009-12-07

Although scholarship has noted the thematic importance of peace in Ephesians few have examined its political character in a sustained manner throughout the entire letter This book addresses this lacuna comparing Ephesians with Colossians Greek political texts Dio Chrysostom s Orations and the Confucian Four Books in order to ascertain the rhetorical and political nature of its topos of peace Through comparison with analogous documents both within and without its cultural milieu this study shows that Ephesians can be read as a politico religious letter concerning peace within the church Its vision of peace contains common political elements such as moral education household management communal stability a universal humanity and war that are subsumed under the controlling rubric of the unity and cosmic summing up of all things in Christ

Church in China: Faith, Ethics, Structure Aiming Wang, 2009 The Protestant Church in China is growing very fast However the role of the Church in society is still fragile and marginal The Church needs a strong ethical and structural development This study analyses the theological ethical and ecclesiological heritage of the Reformation and it shows how this can build the foundation for the future of the Church in China Four models serve as orientation the Reformers Luther and Calvin and the theologians Bonhoeffer and Barth in the 20th century with their vision of Christian faith and a humane society The critical analysis of the missionary heritage since the 19th century shows its contribution for the acceptance of the tradition of the Reformation for the growing Church in China The author combines this theological and ethical perspective with the inculturation in the strong ethical tradition of the Chinese culture He proposes the encounter between the spirituality of the Western culture and that of the traditional culture of China through the relationship with Confucianism The book also offers elements for the dialogue around modern values such as human rights and civil society In this dialogue Chinese Protestantism can play more and more an important role
