Tackling Pollution - Experience and Prospects Great Britain. Royal Commission on Environmental Pollution,1984

Royal Commission on Environmental Pollution. Tenth Report. Tackling Pollution--experience and Prospects Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons,1984 Royal Commission on Environmental Pollution Royal Commission on

Environmental Pollution,Sir Richard Southwood,1984 A Report on Large Landholdings in Southern California, with Recommendations California Commission of Immigration and Housing,1919 Reclamation and Redevelopment of

Contaminated Land Garrie L. Kingsbury,Taylor H. Bingham,1992 Monitoring Bathing Waters Jamie Bartram,Gareth Rees,1999-11-25 This book which has been prepared by an international group of experts provides comprehensive guidance for the design planning and implementation of assessments and monitoring programmes for water bodies used for recreation It addresses the wide range of hazards which may be encountered and emphasizes the importance of linking monitoring progra Professional Report Writing Simon Mort,2017-07-05 Professional Report Writing is probably the most thorough treatment of this subject available covering every aspect of an area often taken for granted The author provides not just helpful analysis but also practical guidance on such topics as deciding the format structuring a report stylistic pitfalls and how to avoid them making the most of illustrations ensuring a consistent layout The theme throughout is fitness for purpose and the text is enriched by a wide variety of examples drawn from the worlds of business industry and government The annotated bibliography includes a review of the leading dictionaries and reference books Simon Mort s book is destined to become an indispensable reference work for managers civil servants local government officers consultants and professionals of every kind British Environmental Policy and Europe Philip Lowe,Stephen Ward,2005-08-10 Explores the effectiveness of British organisations and groups in the environmental field in responding to the challenge of European integration Regulation, Enforcement and Governance in Environmental Law Richard Macrory Hon KC,2014-10-09 Regulation Enforcement and Governance in Environmental Law is an updated edition of Richard Macrory s most influential writings Spanning his entire career these are all works which have helped shape contemporary environmental law and policy The book includes the full text of his 2006 Cabinet Office Review on Regulatory Sanctions new chapters on the Climate Change Act 2008 the Environment Tribunal and analysis of recent leading cases The book is divided into five thematic sections Regulatory reform Institutional Reform and Change the Dynamics of Environmental Law the Courts and the Environment and Europe and the Environment Reviews of the first edition This book is surely destined to become a must read for anyone academic practitioner or student interested in the development of regulation enforcement and environmental governance P Bishop IUCN Academy of Environmental Law Journal An excellent reference work on environmental law an extremely important and valuable edition to the environmental lawyer s bookshelf C Abbot Journal of Environmental Law It is a rare to find a volume which consumes one s attention for 765 pages and rarer still that such a blockbuster be a law book

This book is not solely for environmental enthusiasts it should be essential reading for anyone concerned with the institutional reform transparency and accountability in the UK and EU C MacKenzie Cambridge Law Journal Integrated Pollution Control Adrian Smith,2018-12-21 First published in 1997 This book presents a detailed analysis of the Integrated Pollution Control IPC policy process Using developments in the late nineties in the public policy literature to analyse and produce answers to why the government introduced IPC and how has IPC policy been implemented Royal Commission on Environmental Pollution Great Britain. Royal Commission on Environmental Pollution,1984 Environmental Policy-Making In Britain, Germany and the European Union Rüdiger K. W. Wurzel,2006-08-08 This book explains why national conflicts have arisen and how they are resolved at EU level by focusing on the Europeanisation of air and water pollution control The Greening of British Party Politics Mike Robinson,1992 This work based on over 60 interviews between 1986 and 1990 with politicians from each of the major British political parties is concerned with an examination of the environmentalism politics interface and how the major parties are responding in real terms to the environmental challenge The Argumentative Turn in Policy Analysis and Planning Frank Fischer,John Forester,2013-07-12 Public policy is made of language Whether in written or oral form argument is central to all parts of the policy process As simple as this insight appears its implications for policy analysis and planning are profound Drawing from recent work on language and argumentation and referring to such theorists as Wittgenstein Habermas Toulmin and Foucault these essays explore the interplay of language action and power in both the practice and the theory of policy making The contributors scholars of international renown who range across the theoretical spectrum emphasize the political nature of the policy planner s work and stress the role of persuasive arguments in practical decision making Recognizing the rhetorical communicative character of policy and planning deliberations they show that policy arguments are necessarily selective both shaping and being shaped by relations of power These essays reveal the practices of policy analysts and planners in powerful new ways as matters of practical argumentation in complex highly political environments They also make an important contribution to contemporary debates over postempiricism in the social and policy sciences Contributors John S Dryzek William N Dunn Frank Fischer John Forester Maarten Hajer Patsy Healey Robert Hoppe Bruce Jennings Thomas J Kaplan Duncan MacRae Jr Martin Rein Donald Schon J A Throgmorton Dismantling Public Policy Michael W. Bauer,Christoffer Green-Pedersen,Adrienne Héritier,Andrew Jordan,2012-12-13 Policy dismantling is a distinctive form of policy change which involves the cutting reduction diminution or complete removal of existing policies The perceived need to dismantle existing policies normally acquires particular poignancy during periods of acute economic austerity Dismantling is thought to be especially productive of political conflict pitting those who benefit from the status quo against those who for whatever reason seek change However scholars of public policy have been rather slow to offer a comprehensive account of the precise conditions under which particular aspects of policy are dismantled grounded in systematic empirical analysis Although our overall understanding of what causes policy to change has accelerated a lot in recent decades there remains a bias towards the study of either policy expansion or policy stability Dismantling does not even merit a mention in most public policy textbooks Yet without an account of both expansion and dismantling our understanding of policy change in general and the politics surrounding the cutting of existing policies will remain frustratingly incomplete This book seeks to develop a more comparative approach to understanding policy dismantling by looking in greater detail at the dynamics of cutting in two different policy fields one social policy which has been subjected to study before and the other environmental policy which has not On the basis of a systematic analysis of the existing literatures in these two fields it develops a new analytical framework for measuring and explaining policy dismantling Through an analysis of six fresh empirical cases of dismantling written by leading experts it reveals a more nuanced picture of change focusing on what actually motivates actors to dismantle the strategies they use to secure their objectives and the politically significant effects they ultimately generate Dismantling Public Policy is essential reading for anyone wanting to better understand a hugely important facet of contemporary policy and politics It will inform a range of student courses in comparative public policy politics social and environmental policy

Environmental Taxation Law John Snape, Jeremy de Souza, 2016-05-06 The theoretical arguments for environmental taxes and other types of economic instruments for environmental protection have been discussed extensively in the literature Rather less well discussed has been the extremely complex form that such instruments have in fact taken in practice Environmental Taxation Law Policy Contexts and Practice examines the legal implications of introducing environmental taxes and other economic instruments into the regulatory framework of UK law In doing so it analyzes and explains the difficulties of grafting environmental taxes onto the complexities of existing regulatory structures not all of which of course were originally devised with environmental considerations in mind Although the focus of the book is the UK's pioneering implementation of a web of distinct yet interrelated policy measures it locates the UK's taxes and instruments not simply in their broader context of market and environmental regulation but also in the contexts of European and international law

Fossil Energy Update, 1984 Environmental Law Stuart Bell, Donald McGillivray, Ole Pedersen, 2013-05-09 This edition includes material on environmentalism and the law international environmental law access to environmental justice noise pollution and new legislation on pollution prevention and new case law

Pollution of the North Sea Wim Salomons, Brian L. Bayne, Egbert K. Duursma, Ulrich Förstner, 2012-12-06 This preface is being written at a time of exceptional public interest in the North Sea following media headlines on toxic algal blooms the mass mortality of common seals and concern over pollution levels These headlines may suggest that pollution of the North Sea is a recent event This is not the case Although no data are available methods simply did not exist it is safe to assume that emission both into air and water of heavy metals already started to increase in the 19th century The growth of cities and introduction of sewer systems led to the discharge of raw sewage and sewage sludge The introduction of man-made xenobiotic organic chemicals and their subsequent emission into the North Sea commenced before the second world war The shallower and coastal areas of the North Sea receive the highest concentrations of these pollutants Not unexpectedly these areas some Norwegian fjords the Dutch coast the German Bight show signs of ecosystem deterioration and eutrophication A certain percentage of the pollutants does not remain in the North Sea but is exported to the Atlantic The North Sea therefore contributes to the global input of pollutants to the world s oceans The major part of the pollutants accumulate in the North Sea and are incorporated in the bottom sediments Although they are out of sight they should not be out of mind A

Bibliography of British History, 1914-1989 Keith Robbins, American Historical Association, Royal Historical Society (Great Britain), 1996 Containing over 25 000 entries this unique volume will be absolutely indispensable for all those with an interest in Britain in the twentieth century Accessibly arranged by theme with helpful introductions to each chapter a huge range of topics is covered There is a comprehensive index
