Royal Marines Total Fitness The Unique Commando Programme:

The Royal Marines Total Fitness Robin Eggar, 1993 Revealed for the first time the secrets behind the Royal Marines reputation as the toughest and fittest professional soldiers in the world In this practical three month agenda of graded exercises developed specially for the book by the Royal Marine s instructors and based on their intensive training course your fitness levels can change from couch potato to commando level The book begins with initial fitness testing to ascertain the level at which you enter the programme couch potato civilian etc Through the chapters you can develop circuits of increasing toughness including running cycling swimming and floor exercises A strict timing and point scoring system provides incentive to improve and in true Royal Marines style you are encouraged and motivated all the way along The ultimate challenge of the book is based on the real life green beret ordeal a commando testweek to see if you can claim the ultimate accolade of being as fit both mentally and physically as a marine Decoding a Royal Marine Commando Mark Burchell, 2018-10-25 With a heritage dating back to the mid seventeenth century the Royal Marines have accrued a rich history of rituals artefacts and material culture that is consciously deployed in order to define and shape the institution both historically and going forward into an uncertain future Drawing upon this heritage Mark Burchell offers a unique method of understanding how the Royal Marines draw upon this material culture in order to help transform ordinary labour power to political agency comprising acts of controlled and sustained violence He demonstrates how a barrage of objects and items including uniforms weapons landscapes architecture personal kit drills rituals and iconography are deployed in order successfully to integrate the recruits into the Royal Marines culture It is argued that this material culture is a vital tool with which to imprint the military s own image on new recruits as they embark on a process of de individualisation Having been granted unprecedented access to the Commando Training Centre at Lympstone as an anthropologist Burchell observed an intake of recruits throughout their demanding and exhausting year long training programme The resulting book presents to the academic community for the first time a theorised in depth account of a relatively unexplored social community and how its material culture creates and reifies new military identities This path breaking interdisciplinary analysis provides fresh understanding of the multiple processes of military enculturation through a meticulous revision of the relationships that exist between disciplinary and punishment practices violence and masculinity narratives and personhood and will explore how these issues are understood by recruits through their practical application of body to physical labour and by the cues of their surrounding material culture The Royal Marines Circuit Training Robin Eggar, Dieter Loraine, 1996 Low tech circuits or repetitive exercises on specific muscle groups are an increasingly popular way of exercising and this is exactly what the Royal Marines have been doing for years THE ROYAL MARINES ULTIMATE CIRCUIT BOOK gives structured fitness programme designed to keep exercising time down to a minimum with hints and motivation tips and advice from experts on diet and avoiding and coping with sport injury The book starts with an 8 week beginner course leading to a basic level of
