the work of Rubens and other leading masters and the Antwerp tradition of specialization among painters as well as the sculpture and architecture of this period A major moment of artistic culture has been masterially sketched by one of its leading authorities Larry Silver The Art Book Consistently rewarding a book that is going to transform how Flemish art is understood Jeremy Wood Apollo Magazine As well as examining the output and influence of leading figures such as Rubens and Van Dyke Vlieghe provides the historical social and cultural context for the development of history painting and other specializations This book will attract both the informed and general reader Alison Smith Art Newspaper Essential for current study of Belgian art ChoiceHans Vlieghe is professor of art history at the Katholieke Universiteit Leuven Louvain and research director of the Belgian Nationaal Fonds voor Wetenschappelijk Onderzoek at the Rubenianum Antwerp Rubens and the Eloquence of Drawing Catherine H. Lusheck, 2017-08-07 Rubens and the Eloquence of Drawing re examines the early graphic practice of the preeminent northern Baroque painter Peter Paul Rubens Flemish 1577 1640 in light of early modern traditions of eloquence particularly as promoted in the late sixteenth and early seventeenth century Flemish Neostoic circles of philologist Justus Lipsius 1547 1606 Focusing on the roles that rhetorical and pedagogical considerations played in the artist's approach to disegno during and following his formative Roman period 1600 08 this volume highlights Rubens's high ambitions for the intimate medium of drawing as a primary site for generating meaningful and original ideas for his larger artistic enterprise As in the Lipsian realm of writing personal letters the humanist activity then described as a cognate activity to the practice of drawing a Senecan approach to eclecticism a commitment to emulation and an Aristotelian concern for joining form to content all played important roles Two chapter long studies of individual drawings serve to demonstrate the relevance of these interdisciplinary rhetorical concerns to Rubens's early practice of drawing Focusing on Rubens's Medea Fleeing with Her Dead Children Los Angeles Getty Museum and Kneeling Man Rotterdam Museum Boijmans Van Beuningen these close looking case studies demonstrate Rubens's commitments to creating new models of eloquent drawing and to highlighting his own status as an inimitable maker Demonstrating the force and quality of Rubens's intellect in the medium then most associated with the closest ideas of the artist such designs were arguably created as more robust pedagogical and preparatory models that could help strengthen art itself for a new and often troubled age Rubens Paul Oppenheimer, 2002 In this revelatory biography Paul Oppenheimer asserts that Flemish painter Peter Paul Rubens impact and view of beauty resonate today and that his groundbreaking techniques actually foreshadowed 20th century cinema and Einsteinian physics Rubens Drawing on Italy Jeremy Wood, Djanogly Art Gallery, 2002 Peter Paul Rubens was one of the most inventive and prolific artists in the history of western art After his early training in Antwerp Rubens spent formative periods in Italy between 1600 and 1608 This book explores the ways in which Rubens studied copied and adapted the work of artists such as Michelangelo Raphael and Titian A large group of drawings by Italian artists many of which were owned by Rubens and extensively transformed by him are illustrated These works show how Rubens's dialogue with Italian art went far beyond mere imitation and how his copies and adaptations attracted the attention of scholars and collectors from his lifetime onwards The intriguing book has been written by one of the foremost Rubens scholars Jeremy Wood lecturer in the history of art at the University of Nottingham 21 colour 78 b w illustrations St. Jacob's Antwerp Art and Counter Reformation in Rubens's Parish Church Jeffrey Muller, 2016-05-23 Of more than forty churches that fortified Antwerp as the bulwark of the Counter Reformation in the Netherlands only St Jacob s stands now with its art and archives intact Parish church of the city s elite it is filled with masterpieces including the altarpiece that Rubens painted for his own burial chapel Works of architecture painting sculpture and hundreds of sacred objects documented by the archives enable a reconstruction of the integral role that art played in the transformation of a whole society over the span of two centuries from 1585 to the 1790s It is a history of real people and organizations who used art for religion politics and social purpose joined together in a church that embodied a diverse community Flemish Paintings in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Walter A. Liedtke, 1984 Two volumes including works by the three foremost seventeenth century Flemish artists u2014 Rubens Van Dyck and Jordaens u2014 as well as works by their contemporaries Metropolitan Museum of Art website Re-Reading Leonardo Claire Farago, 2017-07-05 For nearly three centuries Leonardo da Vinci s work was known primarily through the abridged version of his Treatise on Painting first published in Paris in 1651 and soon translated into all the major European languages Here for the first time is a study that examines the historical reception of this vastly influential text This collection charts the varied interpretations of Leonardo s ideas in French Italian Spanish English German Dutch Flemish Greek and Polish speaking environments where the Trattato was an important resource for the academic instruction of artists one of the key sources drawn upon by art theorists and widely read by a diverse network of artists architects biographers natural philosophers translators astronomers publishers engineers theologians aristocrats lawyers politicians entrepreneurs and collectors The cross cultural approach employed here demonstrates that Leonardo s Treatise on Painting is an ideal case study through which to chart the institutionalization of art in Europe and beyond for 400 years The volume includes original essays by scholars studying a wide variety of national and institutional settings The coherence of the volume is established by the shared subject matter and interpretative aim to understand how Leonardo s ideas were used With its focus on the active reception of an important text overlooked in studies of the artist s solitary genius the collection takes Leonardo studies to a new level of historical inquiry Leonardo da Vinci s most significant contribution to Western art was his interpretation of painting as a science grounded in geometry and direct observation of nature One of the most important questions to emerge from this study is what enabled the same text to produce so many different styles of painting Seventeenth-Century Flemish Garland Paintings Susan Merriam, 2017-07-05 Focusing on three celebrated northern European still life painters Jan Brueghel Daniel Seghers and Jan Davidsz de Heem this book examines the emergence of the first garland painting in 1607 1608 and its subsequent transformation into a widely collected type of devotional image curiosity and decorative form The first sustained study of the garland paintings the book uses contextual and formal analysis to achieve two goals One it demonstrates how and why the paintings flourished in a number of contexts ranging from an ecclesiastical center in Milan to a Jesuit chapter house and private collections in Antwerp to the Habsburg court in Vienna Two the book shows that when viewed over the course of the century the images produced by Brueghel Seghers and de Heem share important similarities including an interest in self referentiality and the exploration of pictorial form and materials Using a range of evidence inventories period response the paintings themselves Susan Merriam shows how the pictures reconfigured the terms in which the devotional image was understood and asked the viewer to consider in new ways how pictures are made and experienced

Rubens Peter Paul Rubens, Lille (France). Musée des beaux-arts, 2004 A simple mission lies at the heart of Rubens to give the most complete picture of the great Flemish master as possible No fewer than 163 paintings sketches and drawings by the artist plus nine tapestries are put to this worthy task A faithful objective understanding of Rubens arises from his beginnings under the influence of his master Otto Venius and Italian art right through to the end of his career when he basked in a major Spanish commission Rubens is at home in all genres and all are represented here from landscapes to portraits from altarpieces to genre scenes and historical paintings too of course Even the talents of the decorator are revealed in his painted sketches drawings and tapestries For this publication the master's oeuvre is divided into five groupings Rubens Beginnings Rubens and Italy The Middle Class Patron Official Commissions and Secular Subject Matter Through the inclusion of tapestries particular attention is paid to the genesis of his art Works such as Descent from the Cross Laying in the Sepulchre The Stoning of Saint Stephen and three altarpieces created for the city of Lille's churches and convents are included From this impressive homage to Rubens the general reader connoisseur and historian will all hopefully come to know Rubens better and also be stimulated by the juxtaposition of works never presented in this way before Published on the occasion of Rubens an exhibition at the Palais des Beaux Arts in Lille France

Cultivating Peace Melissa Schoenberger, 2019-05-17 Like Virgil who depicted a farmer's scythe suddenly recast as a sword the poets discussed here imagine states of peace and war to be fundamentally and materially linked In distinct ways they dismantle the dream of the golden age renewed proposing instead that peace must be sustained by constant labor
