Fenton, 2017-03-02 In early modern culture and in Milton's poetry and prose this book argues the concept of hope is intrinsically connected with place and land Mary Fenton analyzes how Milton sees hope as bound both to the spiritual and the material the internal self and the external world Hope as Fenton demonstrates comes from commitment to literal places such as the land ideological places such as the nation and sacred interior places such as the human soul Drawing on an array of materials from the seventeenth century including emblems legal treatises political pamphlets and prayer manuals Fenton sheds light on Milton's ideas about personal and national identity and where people should place their sense of power and responsibility Milton's politics and where he thought the English nation was and where it should be heading and finally Milton's theology and how individuals relate to God

Us to Pray Katharine Mahon, 2019-04-01 The study of liturgical reform is usually undertaken through a close examination of liturgical texts In order to consider the impact of reform on the worship life of Christians Katharine Mahon takes a wider view of liturgy by considering the worship practices of Christian churches beyond what appears in the rites themselves Looking at how Christians were taught how to pray and instructed in liturgical and sacramental participation Mahon explores the late medieval patterns of Christian ritual formation and the transformation of these patterns in the sixteenth century reforms of Martin Luther Thomas Cranmer and Roman Catholic leaders She uses the Lord's Prayer the backbone of medieval lay catechesis liturgical participation and private prayer to paint a panorama of medieval ritual formation integrated into the life of the church in the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries She then follows the disintegration and reconstruction of that system of formation through the changing functions of the Lord's Prayer in the official reforms of catechesis liturgy and prayer in the sixteenth century

Petitionary Prayer Scott Alan Davison, 2017 This volume explores the philosophical issues involved in the idea of petitionary prayer where this is conceived as an activity designed to influence the action of the all knowing all powerful perfectly good God of traditional theism Theists have always recognized various logical and moral limits to divine action in the world but do these limits leave any space among God's reasons for petitionary prayer to make a difference Petitionary Prayer A Philosophical Investigation develops a new account of the conditions required for a petitionary prayer to be answered by employing the notion of contrastive explanation With careful attention to recent developments in metaphysics epistemology and value theory Scott A Davison surveys the contemporary literature on this question He considers questions about human freedom and responsibility in relation to different views of divine providence along with the puzzles inherent in Christian teachings concerning petitionary prayer Davison develops new challenges to the coherence of the idea of answered petitionary prayer based upon the nature of divine freedom the limits of human knowledge and the nature of those good things that require a recipient's permission before they can be given He proposes new defenses building upon careful analysis of the shortcomings of previous proposals and clarifying the issues for future debate

The Lord's Prayer and the Sermon on the Mount in Matthew's Gospel Charles Nathan Ridlehoover, 2019-12-26 Charles Nathan Ridlehoover examines the Lord's Prayer in Matthew's Gospel focusing on the prayer's centrality and showing how this centrality affects our reading of the Sermon on the Mount and subsequently the prayer itself Ridlehoover argues that the Lord's Prayer is structurally lexically and thematically central to the Sermon on the Mount and the means through which disciples of Jesus are empowered to live out the kingdom righteousness it defines In turn the Sermon on the Mount clarifies what the answer to the petitions of the Lord's Prayer might look like in the life of the disciple of Jesus Whilst the centrality of the Lord's Prayer has been noted by previous commentators this centrality and its intended purpose has not hitherto been defined or examined in great depth Ridlehoover fills this gap with a closely argued and in depth study ranging from methodology and the structure of the prayer itself to examining the Father will forgiveness and evil petitions and the relevance of word and deed for hearers and doers Ridlehoover's examination of the relationship between the Sermon and Prayer advances studies in compositional criticism and intratextuality Matthew Through the Centuries Ian Boxall, 2018-11-26 The reception of the Gospel of Matthew over two millennia commentary and interpretation Matthew Through the Centuries offers an overview of the reception history of one of the most prominent gospels in Christian worship Examining the reception of Matthew from the perspectives of a wide range of interpreters from Origen and Hilary of Poitiers to Mary Cornwallis and Bob Marley this insightful commentary explains the major trends in the reception of Matthew in various ecclesial historical and cultural contexts Focusing on characteristically Matthean features detailed chapter by chapter commentary highlights diverse receptions and interpretations of the gospel Broad exploration of areas such as liturgy literature drama film hymnody political discourse and visual art illustrates the enormous impact Matthew continues to have on Judeo Christian civilization Known as the Church's Gospel Matthew's text has been the subject of apologetic and theological controversy for hundreds of years It has been seen as justification for political and ecclesial status quo and as a path to radical discipleship Matthew has influenced divergent political spiritual and cultural figures such as Francis of Assisi John Ruskin Leo Tolstoy Dietrich Bonhoeffer and Mahatma Gandhi Matthew's interest in ecclesiology provides early structures of ecclesial life such as resolution of community disputes communal prayer and liturgical prescriptions for the Eucharist and baptism A significant addition to the acclaimed Blackwell Bible Commentaries series Matthew Through the Centuries is an indispensable resource for both students and experts in areas including religious and biblical studies literature history politics and those interested in the influence of the Bible on Western culture
