Biography David Thomson,2017-03-28 The invention or the quaint piece of furniture wandered into our lives in the 1940s as a primitive plaything a clever if awkward addition to the household It was expensive unreliable and a bit of an invalid Television A Biography In just a few years what used to be an immobile piece of living room furniture which one had to sit in front of at appointed times in order to watch sponsored programming on a finite number of channels morphed into a glowing cloud of screens with access to a near endless supply of content available when and how viewers want it With this phenomenon now a common cultural theme a writer of David Thomson s stature delivering a critical history or biography of the six decade television era will be a significant event which could not be more timely With Television the critic and film historian who wrote what Sight and Sound's readers called the most important film book of the last 50 years has finally turned his unique powers of observation to the medium that has swallowed film whole. Over twenty-two thematically organized chapters Thomson brings his provocatively insightful and unique voice to the life of what was television. David Thomson surveying a Boschian landscape illuminated by that singular glow always on and peopled by everyone from Donna Reed to Dennis Potter will be the first complete history of the defining medium of our time.

The Fixers E.J. Fleming, 2015-01-28. Eddie Mannix and Howard Strickling are virtually unknown outside of Hollywood and little remembered even there, but as General Manager and Head of Publicity for Metro Goldwyn Mayer Studios, they lorded over all the stars in Hollywood's golden age from the 1920s through the 1940s, including legends like Garbo, Dietrich, Gable, and Garland. When MGM stars found themselves in trouble, it was Eddie and Howard who took care of them, solved their problems, hid their crimes, and kept their secrets. They were the Fixers. At a time when image meant everything and the stars were worth millions to the studios that owned them, Mannix and Strickling were the most important men at MGM. Through a complex web of contacts in every arena, from reporters and doctors to corrupt police and district attorneys, they covered up some of the most notorious crimes and scandals in Hollywood history, keeping stars out of jail and more importantly, their names out of the papers. They handled problems as diverse as the murder of Paul Bern, husband of MGM's biggest star, Jean Harlow; the studio-directed drug addictions of Judy Garland; the murder of Ted Healy, creator of The Three Stooges, at the hands of Wallace Beery; and arranging for an unmarried Loretta Young to adopt her own child, a child fathered by a married Clark Gable.
