Movie-Made Los Angeles John Trafton, 2023-10-17 Explores the proto cinematic visual culture of Los Angeles that set the scene for modern Hollywood Los Angeles was a cinematic city long before the rise of Hollywood By the dawn of the twentieth century photography painting and tourist promotion in Southern California provided early filmmakers with a template for building a myth making business and envisioning ideal moviegoers These art forms positioned California as a land of transformative experiences and catapulted the dusty backwater town of Los Angeles to the largest city on the west coast by 1915 Photography aided the Southern Pacific Railroad Company in opening the region to the rest of nation Painters gave traditions that were fading in Europe a new lease on life in the California sun with signature colors and techniques that would be adopted by L A real estate companies agribusiness and health retreats Tourism infused the iconography and signature styles of art with cultural mythology of the state s colonial past offering proto cinematic experiences to those who ventured west Author John Trafton explores how Hollywood an industry based on world building was the product of these art forms in the land of sunshine A more complete story of the American film industry s ascendancy in Los Angeles emerges when one considers how the City of Angels cultivated its self image through pre cinema narrative art

Chicana/o Remix Karen Mary Davalos, 2017-07-25 Rewrites our understanding of the last 50 years of Chicana o cultural production Chicana o Remix casts new light not only on artists such as Sandra de la Loza Judy Baca and David Botello among others but on the exhibitions that feature their work and the collectors curators critics and advocates who engage it Combining feminist theory critical ethnic studies art historical analysis and extensive archival and field research Karen Mary Davalos argues that narrow notions of identity politics and aesthetics limit our ability to understand the full capacities of Chicana o art She employs fresh vernacular concepts such as the errata exhibit or the staging of exhibits that critically question mainstream art museums and the remix or the act of bringing new narratives and forgotten histories from the background and into the foreground These concepts which emerge out of art practice itself drive her analysis and reinforce the rejection of familiar narratives that evaluate Chicana o art in simplistic traditional terms such as political versus commercial or realist versus conceptual Throughout Chicana o Remix Davalos explores undocumented or previously ignored information about artists their cultural production and the exhibitions and collections that feature their work Each chapter exposes and challenges conventions in art history and Chicana o studies documenting how Chicana artists were the first to critically challenge exhibitions of Chicana o art tracing the origins of the first Chicano arts organizations and highlighting the influence of Europe and Asia on Chicana o artists who traveled abroad As a leading scholar in the study of Chicana o artists art spaces and exhibition practices Davalos presents her most ambitious project to date in this re examination of fifty years of Chicana o art production Los Angeles Magazine ,2001-12 Los Angeles magazine is a regional magazine of national stature Our combination of award winning feature writing investigative reporting service journalism and design covers the people lifestyle culture entertainment fashion art and architecture and news that define Southern California Started in the spring of 1961 Los Angeles magazine has been addressing the needs and interests of our region for 48 years The magazine continues to be the definitive resource for an affluent population that is intensely interested in a lifestyle that is uniquely Southern Californian Painting the Towns Robin J.
