Lost Leaves Rebecca L. Copeland, 2000-06-01 Most Japanese literary historians have suggested that the Meiji Period 1868 1912 was devoid of women writers but for the brilliant exception of Higuchi Ichiyo 1872 1896 Rebecca Copeland challenges this claim by examining in detail the lives and literary careers of three of Ichiyo's peers each representative of the diversity and ingenuity of the period Miyake Kaho 1868 1944 Wakamatsu Shizuko 1864 1896 and Shimizu Shikin 1868 1933 In a carefully researched introduction Copeland establishes the context for the development of female literary expression She follows this with chapters on each of the women under consideration Miyake Kaho often regarded as the first woman writer of modern Japan offers readers a vision of the female vitality that is often overlooked when discussing the Meiji era Wakamatsu Shizuko the most prominent female translator of her time had a direct impact on the development of a modern written language for Japanese prose fiction Shimizu Shikin reminds readers of the struggle women endured in their efforts to balance their creative interests with their social roles Interspersed throughout are excerpts from works under discussion most never before translated offering an invaluable window into this forgotten world of women's writing Loss Leaves Hollows D. J. Andersen, C. Stephen Badgley, 2010-06-21 I am not a poet in the traditional sense I rarely have a rhyme I don't care about stanzas or acceptable academic style I am telling stories in short form in thought patterns that stop and start Periods and commas fall where they will and I let them I have found it the best way to write about my subject matter without losing my own mind or the reader's My poems will give but brief glimpses into detailed often harsh subject matters such as severe child abuse by adoptive parents the lost the unfortunate the homeless Others tell about the joyful reunion with biological family or a crooked Christmas tree or people I have known places I have been and those who have inspired me

When a Father Leaves: Navigating Loss and Healing Pasquale De Marco, 2025-04-12 In the tapestry of life the loss of a father leaves an indelible mark forever altering the landscape of our hearts and minds When a Father Leaves Navigating Loss and Healing is a poignant exploration of this profound loss offering guidance and solace to those navigating the labyrinth of grief With empathy and understanding this book delves into the myriad emotions that accompany the death of a father It acknowledges the shock disbelief and overwhelming sadness that can consume us as well as the anger guilt and loneliness that may linger long after the initial shock has subsided Drawing from real life experiences and expert perspectives When a Father Leaves Navigating Loss and Healing provides a comprehensive roadmap for healing and transformation It emphasizes the importance of embracing the memories of our fathers honoring their legacy and finding ways to keep their spirit alive Through reminiscing storytelling and creating memorials or tributes we can celebrate their lives and find comfort in their absence Furthermore this book recognizes the unique challenges faced by men who have lost their fathers It examines the ways in which this loss can impact their identity their relationships and their sense of purpose With compassion and understanding it offers strategies for coping with the emotional turmoil practical tips for navigating the legal and financial complexities that often arise and guidance on how to support grieving loved ones Ultimately When a Father Leaves Navigating Loss and Healing serves as a beacon of hope reminding us that even in the face of profound loss healing and transformation are possible It is a testament to the enduring power of love and the resilience of the human spirit guiding readers towards a renewed sense of hope resilience and acceptance This book is an essential resource for anyone who has experienced the loss of a father offering a compassionate companion on the journey through grief and helping them emerge with a renewed sense of self and purpose If you like this book write a review on google books

Assessment of Crop Loss From Air Pollutants W.W. Heck,O.C. Taylor,Tingey,2012-12-06 During late 1985 the Research Management Committee RMC of the National Crop Loss Assessment Network NCLAN decided the most appropriate way to bring the NCLAN program to a successful conclusion was to hold an international conference It was envisaged as an opportunity to present an overview of results from the NCLAN program and as a chance to view the results in the context of ongoing research by members of the international community Although we wanted the Conference to have an assessment orientation it was also intended for the Conference to focus on current state of knowledge The Conference was designed to overview the needs of crop loss assessment current approaches to assessment progress in the development of predictive models the use of the information for economic predictions and the application of the data in policy decisions Every effort was made to assure a broad representation of ideas The Conference program was developed to evaluate major issues that address regional national assessments of impacts of atmospheric pollutants on agricultural production Sessions were structured to address specific issues by invited speakers and by contributed papers and posters First background needs for doing loss assessment research including specific approaches and a rather detailed review of the NCLAN program were addressed Session I Session II addressed the needs for defining the exposure environment e g extrapolating to regional concentrations and exposure characterization Field approaches for determining crop loss were reviewed in Session III *Proceedings of the ... Manganese in Soils and Plants R.D. Graham,R.J. Hannam,N.C. Uren,2012-12-06 Sixty years ago at the Waite Agricultural Research Institute G Samuel a plant pathologist and C S Piper a chemist published their conclusion that the cause of roadside take all a disease of oats was manganese deficiency This report together with the concurrent and independent studies of W M Carne in Western Australia were the first records of manganese deficiency in Australia and came only six years after McHargue s paper which is generally accepted as the final proof of the essentiality of this element There must have been a few doubts for some people at the time however as the CAB publication The Minor Elements of the Soil 1940 expressed the view that further evidence to this effect was provided by Samuel and Piper Their historic contributions are recognised by the International Symposium on Manganese in Soils and Plants as it meets on the site of their early labours to celebrate the 60th anniversary This year Australians also acknowledge 200 years of European settlement in this country and so the Symposium is both a Bicentennial and a diamond jubilee event which recognises the impact of trace elements on agricultural development in Australia In a broader sense a symposium such as this celebrates as it reviews the efforts of all who over the ages have contributed to our knowledge of manganese in soils and plants
