Penguin Classics Introduction to Lost Illusions by Honoré de Balzac (Penguin Classics) Herbert James Hunt, 2005

Lost Illusions Honore de Balzac, 1976-10-28 Handsome would be poet Lucien Chardon is poor and naïve but highly ambitious Failing to make his name in his dull provincial hometown he is taken up by a patroness the captivating married woman Madame de Bargeton and prepares to forge his way in the glamorous beau monde of Paris But Lucien has entered a world far more dangerous than he realized as Madame de Bargeton's reputation becomes compromised and the fickle venomous denizens of the courts and salons conspire to keep him out of their ranks Lucien eventually learns that wherever he goes talent counts for nothing in comparison to money intrigue and unscrupulousness Lost Illusions is one of the greatest novels in the rich procession of the Comédie humaine Balzac's panoramic social and moral history of his times For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 1700 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators Realist Fiction and the Strolling Spectator (Routledge Revivals) John Rignall, 2016-01-29 The classic realist text has long been derided by post structuralist critics as an unsophisticated and reactionary form In this study first published in 1992 John Rignall makes a powerful case for the rehabilitation of realism as a self aware and reflexive genre Using the novels of Scott Balzac Dickens George Eliot Flaubert James Ford and Conrad Rignall argues for an understanding of realism through the recurrent figure of the flâneur The flâneur is the strolling spectator whose problematic vision both of and in the novel makes him the representative figure of the realist text A significant contribution to the field this title will be of particular view to students of realism literary theory and comparative literature Atlas of the European Novel Franco Moretti, 1999-09-17 Mapping the often surprising relationship between literature and geography The Routledge International Handbook of Psychoanalysis and Jewish Studies Stephen Frosh, Devorah Baum, 2025-04-30 The Routledge International Handbook of Psychoanalysis and Jewish Studies is an innovative multidisciplinary volume covering the history religion culture and politics of Jewish Studies and psychoanalysis An international team of contributors brings together these two fields and offers a critical assessment of the encounters that emerge from the confrontation and collaboration they have with each other Chapters cover a broad range of topics including psychoanalytic history critical theory film ritual Jewish heritage the Bible antisemitism racism life writing and the occult This Handbook will be of interest to practitioners and researchers in several interrelated disciplines such as Jewish Studies psychoanalysis group analysis sociology anthropology psychosocial studies literature film and gender studies It will be of especial value to students of psychoanalytic and psychosocial studies

Balzac Reframed Zahra Tavassoli Zea, 2019-11-14 This book examines the theoretical affiliations between the most notable proponent of literary realism Honor de Balzac and two understated but key representatives of the French New Wave ric Rohmer and Jacques Rivette It argues that their film criticism which gradually led to the establishment of a common aesthetic vision of cinema the politique des auteurs owes more to Balzac and the nineteenth century novel than to any intellectual trend of the immediate post war period By considering the films of Rohmer and Rivette as an extension of their writings essays film reviews scriptwriting novels and interviews this volume analyses the changing and sometimes opposed ways in which they applied Balzacian principles and themes to their cinematic practice Essentially it understands the exchange between art forms past traditions and contemporaneous currents as the overlooked yet common thread that links these three authors through their own re appropriations of classical and romantic aesthetics in their explorations of modern French society In doing so this study provides further nuance to the conservative versus progressist rupture that is generally assumed between the two directors and offers an innovative reading of The Human Comedy in the light of post war ideas on authorship film adaptation classicism and modernism

The Victorian Novel of Adulthood Rebecca Rainof, 2015-09-09 In The Victorian Novel of Adulthood Rebecca Rainof confronts the conventional deference accorded the bildungsroman as the ultimate plot model and quintessential expression of Victorian nation building The novel of maturity she contends is no less important to our understanding of narrative Victorian culture and the possibilities of fiction Reading works by Charles Dickens George Eliot Henry James John Henry Newman and Virginia Woolf Rainof exposes the little discussed theological underpinnings of plot and situates the novel of maturity in intellectual and religious history notably the Oxford Movement Purgatory a subject hotly debated in the period becomes a guiding metaphor for midlife adventure in secular fiction Rainof discusses theological models of gradual maturation thus directing readers attention away from evolutionary theory and geology and offers a new historical framework for understanding Victorian interest in slow and deliberate change

Paris Fashion Valerie Steele, 2017-09-21 Paris has been the international capital of fashion for more than 300 years Even before the rise of the haute couture Parisians were notorious for their obsession with fashion and foreigners eagerly followed their lead From Charles Frederick Worth to Gabrielle Coco Chanel Christian Dior and Yves Saint Laurent fashion history is dominated by the names of Parisian couturiers But Valerie Steele's Paris Fashion is much more than just a history of great designers This fascinating book demonstrates that the success of Paris ultimately rests on the strength of its fashion culture created by a host of fashion performers and spectators including actresses dandies milliners artists and writers First published in 1988 to great international acclaim this pioneering book has now been completely revised and brought up to date encompassing the rise of fashion's multiple world cities in the 21st century Lavishly illustrated deeply learned and elegantly written Valerie Steele's masterwork explores with brilliance and flair why Paris remains the capital of fashion

The Routledge Companion to the British and North American Literary Magazine Tim Lanzendörfer, 2021-12-30 Encompassing a broad definition of the topic this Companion provides a survey of the literary magazine from its earliest days to the contemporary moment It offers a comprehensive theorization of the literary magazine in the wake of developments in periodical studies in the last decade bringing together a wide variety of approaches and concerns With its distinctive chronological and geographical scope this volume sheds new light on the possibilities and difficulties of the concept of the literary magazine balancing a comprehensive overview of key themes and examples with greater attention to new approaches to magazine research Divided into three main sections this book offers Theory it investigates definitions and limits of what a literary magazine is and what it does History and regionalism a very broad historical and geographic sweep draws new connections and offers expanded definitions Case studies these range from key modernist little magazines and the popular middlebrow to pulp fiction comics and digital ventures widening the ambit of the literary magazine The Routledge Companion to the British and North American Literary Magazine offers new and unforeseen cross connections across the long history of literary periodicals highlighting the ways in which it allows us to trace such ideas as the literary as well as notions of what magazines do in a culture

Desiring Whiteness Caroline Séquin, 2024-10-15 Desiring Whiteness uncovers the intertwined histories of commercial sex and racial politics in France and the French Empire Since the French Revolution of 1789 the absence of laws banning interracial marriages has served to reinforce two myths about modern France first that it is a sexual democracy and second it is a color blind nation where all French citizens can freely marry whomever they wish regardless of their race Caroline S quin challenges the narrative of French exceptionalism by revealing the role of prostitution regulation in policing intimate relationships across racial and colonial boundaries in the century following the abolition of slavery Desiring Whiteness traces the rise and fall of the French model of prostitution policing in the contact zones of port cities and garrison towns across France and in Dakar Senegal the main maritime entry point of French West Africa S quin describes how the regulation of prostitution covertly policed racial relations and contributed to the making of white French identity in an imperial nation state that claimed to be race blind She also examines how sex industry workers exploited reinforced or transgressed the racial boundaries of colonial rule Brothels served as gatekeepers of whiteness in two arenas In colonial Senegal white only brothels helped deter French colonists from entering unions with African women and producing mixed race children thus consolidating white minority rule In the metropole brothels condoned interracial sex with white sex workers while dissuading colonial men from forming long term attachments with white French women Ultimately brothels followed a similar racial logic that contributed to upholding white supremacy
