Models for Divine Activity Ian T. Ramsey, 2011-06-07 This last book by the Bishop of Durham is the text of the Zenos Lectures that he gave in Chicago in 1966 In them Dr Ramsey applied his well known approach of models and disclosure situations to the doctrine of the Holy Spirit The first lecture considers the origin and use of the model of wind breath air from which the Spirit is named subsequent lectures consider the models of economy and presence In the discussion a number of important issues are touched on the personality of the Holy Spirit the ubiquity of God and the relationship of prayer to the presence of God The final lecture goes on to counter criticisms that have been made of Dr Ramsey s theology Are models and disclosures not a substitute for God Is not this approach virtually atheistic with perhaps not much virtual about it Because Dr Ramsey s writings have appeared in a great many books and journals it has also been thought fitting to include a comprehensive bibliography and this book ends with a complete list of all his published works Models for Divine

Models of Jesus Revisited John F. O'Grady, 1994 With this revised version of his Models of Jesus O Grady makes available a classic work that offers an extensive treatment of various models of Jesus that are not only possible but actual in the church today The author first surveys models of Jesus in the New Testament then examines six contemporary models of Jesus Eat the Bible Micah E. Chung, 2024-07-19 People love their metaphors for the Bible The Bible is a sword a mirror a script a score a cathedral a rule book a user s manual a lamp a love letter But how did metaphor which in the eighteenth century was seen as a deceptive rhetorical trick become such a prominent tool for speaking of Scripture And how does one judge between a good metaphor and a bad one This book explores the theological use of metaphor to describe the nature and interpretation of Scripture It interrogates three such models the Bible as musical score Anthony Thiselton the Bible as theo dramatic script Kevin Vanhoozer and the Bible as light John Feinberg seeking to evaluate their faithfulness to Scripture and church tradition their fittingness to the current culture and their fruitfulness for understanding and practicing the biblical text The author then proposes and explores what he considers a better model one drawn from the Bible itself namely that of Scripture as food

Models of God and Alternative Ultimate Realities Jeanine Diller, Asa Kasher, 2013-06-13 The envisioned volume is a collection of recent essays about the philosophical exploration critique and comparison of a the major philosophical models of God gods and other ultimate realities implicit in the world s philosophical schools and religions and of b the ideas of such models and doing such modeling per se The aim is to identify exactly what a model of ultimate reality is create a comprehensive and accessible collection of extant models and determine how best philosophically to model ultimate reality if possible and desirable

Models of God Sallie McFague, 1987-01-01 In this award winning text theologian Sallie McFague challenges Christians usual speech about God as a kind of monarch She probes instead three other possible metaphors for God as mother lover and friend

Trinitarian Theology, West and East Paul M. Collins, 2001 CURRENTLY BEING REWORKED BY AUTHOR This book represents a unique contribution to the dialogue between the traditions of Eastern and Western Christian thought Through the writings of Karl Barth and John Zizioulas Dr Collins seeks to set up an ecumenical dialogue concerning Trinitarian thought During the last decade the doctrine of the Trinity and the concept of koinonia have been much in evidence in ecumenical contexts In this volume Dr Collins sets out to look behind the growing ecumenical consensus to examine where the basis for the consensus has emerged from and suggests that it is possible to root it in Western thought as well as in Eastern Orthodoxy

Beauty Natalie Carnes, 2014-11-13 Beauty engages fourth century bishop Gregory of Nyssa to address beauty s place in theology and the broader world With the recent resurgence of attention to beauty among theologians questions still remain about what exactly beauty is how it is perceived and whether we should celebrate its return If beauty fell out of favor because it was seen to distract from the weightier concerns of poverty and suffering because it can even be a tool of oppression why should we laud it now Gregory s writings offer surprisingly rich and relevant reflections that can move contemporary conversations beyond current impasses and critiques of beauty Drawing Gregory into conversation with such disparate voices as novelist J M Coetzee and art theorist Kaja Silverman Beauty displays the importance of beauty to theology and theology to beauty in a discussion that bridges ancient and modern practical and theoretical secular and religious

God and the Processes of Reality David A. Pailin, 2024-12-06 Can belief in God be rational David A Pailin identifies the reasons behind this questioning of theistic faith in his book God and the Processes of Reality originally published in 1989 and demonstrates how the supposed incoherences in the concept of God are due to the generalization of partial insights. He establishes the basic character of the concept of God and examines the nature of the major attributes of the divine and of the relationship of God to the processes of reality looking at God as creator, the relation of God to historical events and the role of God as the basis for individual fulfilment. The book takes up many of the insights developed by Whitehead and Hartshorne in what is commonly known as process thought. Pailin explains these insights and counters common misapprehensions about them critically, sometimes radically, so to present a credible understanding of the God of theistic belief and a coherent understanding of the relationship of that God to the processes of reality. This book will be of interest to students and researchers of religion and philosophy. A New Handbook of Christian Theologians Donald

W. Musser, 1996. In recent years the flow of Christian theology has been channeled in diverse streams represented by such trends and movements as black theology, liberation theology, feminist theology and womanist theology. To survey this abundance and diversity of current Christian theology, this book examines the theologies of representative theologians. Particularly to help students navigate the sea of information, the editors have identified various routes for reading and have traced several threads or issues common to many of the essays, thus demarcating such recurrent concerns as the ways in which the theologians consider the sources and goals for theology, their variant assumptions and conclusions about the nature of God, their divergent approaches to understanding the person and purpose of the Christ and their distinct expectations for the destiny of history and faith. An Incarnational Model of the Eucharist James M. Arcadi, 2018-05-31

The Eucharist is at the heart of Christian worship and at the heart of the Eucharist are the curious phrases 'This is my body' and 'This is my blood'. James M. Arcadi offers a constructive proposal for understanding Christ's presence in the Eucharist that draws on contemporary conceptual resources and is faithful to the history of interpretation. He locates his proposal along a spectrum of Eucharistic theories. Arcadi explores the motif of God's presence related to divine omnipresence and special presence in holy places which undergirds a biblical theological proposal concerning Christ's presence. Utilizing recent work in speech act theory, Arcadi probes the acts of consecration and renaming in their biblical and liturgical contexts. A thorough examination of recent work in Christology leads to an action model of the Incarnation that borrows the notion of enabling externalism from philosophy of mind. These threads undergird a model of Christ's presence in the Eucharist. Lectures in the History of Political Thought Michael Oakeshott, 2011-10-24. Oakeshott's memorable lectures on the history of political thought delivered each year at the London School of Economics will now be available in print for the first time as Volume II of his Selected Writings. Based on manuscripts in the LSE archive for 1966-67, the last year of Oakeshott's tenure as Professor of Political Science, these thirty lectures deal with Greek, Roman, mediaeval and modern European political thought in a uniquely accessible manner. Scholars familiar with Oakeshott's work will recognize his own ideas subtly blended with an exposition carefully crafted for an undergraduate audience; those discovering Oakeshott for the first time will find an account of the subject that remains illuminating and provocative The Sacred Cosmos Terence L. Nichols, 2009-01-07 Explores the synthesis of contemporary science basic Thomistic philosophy and Christian theology Back cover Stages of Thought Michael Horace Barnes, 2009-07-15 This work approaches the question of the relationship of religious to scientific thought The author argues that they evolved together and are therefore complementary The Oxford Handbook of Systematic Theology John Webster, Kathryn Tanner, Iain Torrance, 2009-09-11 The Oxford Handbook of Systematic Theology brings together a set of original and authoritative accounts of all the major areas of current research in Christian systematic theology offering a thorough survey of the state of the discipline and of its prospects for those undertaking research and teaching in the field The Handbook engages in a comprehensive examination of themes and approaches guiding the reader through current debates and literatures in the context of the historical development of systematic theological reflection Organized thematically it treats in detail the full array of topics in systematic theology as well as questions of its sources and norms its relation to other theological and non theological fields of enquiry and some major trends in current work Each chapter provides an analysis of research and debate on its topic The focus is on doctrinal rather than historical questions and on major rather than ephemeral debates The aim is to stimulate readers to reach theological judgements on the basis of consideration of the range of opinion Drawn from Europe the UK and North America the authors are all leading practitioners of the discipline Readers will find expert guidance as well as creative suggestions about the future direction of the study of Christian doctrine
