Oral Tradition in African Literature Chin Ce, Charles Smith, 2015-09-04 This study of oral tradition in African literature is borne from the awareness that African verbal arts still survive in works of discerning writers and in the conscious exploration of its tropes perspectives philosophy and consciousness its complementary realism and ontology for the delineation of authentic African response to memory history and other possible comparisons with modern existence such as witnessed in recent developments of the African novel In this series we have strived to adopt innovative and multilayered perspectives on orality or indigeneity and its manifestations on contemporary African and new literatures These studies use multi faceted theories of orality which discuss and deconstruct notions of history truth claims and identity making not excluding gender and genealogy cultural and biological studies in African contexts Modern African Literature S. S. Gill, 2008 Culture, Society, and Politics in Modern African Literature Tanure Ojaide, Joseph Enuenwemba Obi, 2002 A gap exists between African literary texts and their interpretation for many scholars and readers of African literature today Unfamiliar with the cultures societies and politics of Africa some readers bring a perspective to the work that is at odds with the worldview embodied by the works themselves In Culture Society and Politics in Modern African Literature Ojaide and Obi investigate the paradoxes and ironies of a literature produced in Africa and interpreted by readers and scholars African and non African who are living outside the continent Starting from the premise that literature is a cultural production of a people they look at some of the factors important for the interpretation and analysis of African literature including the colonial experience of Africans the realities of the post independence era and the economic conditions of African states This book the collaborative work of a literary scholar poet and a sociologist addresses the general and specific problems in the understanding of African literature and will be of interest to students and scholars as well as to general audiences In sum the individual chapters cover a wide range within African literature geographically and linguistically with a special focus on current trends in creative production and criticism The book is well written with clear and concise explanations of critical terms and concepts African Studies Review The Comic Imagination in Modern African Literature and Cinema Maik Nwosu, 2016-02-05 This book is a seminal study that significantly expands the interdisciplinary discourse on African literature and cinema by exploring Africa s under visited carnivalesque poetics of laughter Focusing on modern African literature as well as contemporary African cinema particularly the direct to video Nigerian film industry known as Nollywood the book examines the often neglected aesthetics of the African comic imagination In modern African literature which sometimes creatively traces a path back to African folklore and in Nollywood with its aesthetic relationship to Onitsha Market Literature the pertinent styles range from comic simplicitas to comic magnitude with the facilitation of language characterization and plot by a poetics of laughter or lightness as an important aspect of style The poetics at work is substantially carnivalesque a comic preference or tendency that is attributable in different contexts to a purposeful comic sensibility or an unstructured but ingrained or virtual comic mode In the best instances of this comic vision the characteristic laughter or lightness can facilitate a revaluation or reappreciation of the world either because of the aesthetic structure of signification or the consequent chain of signification This referentiality or progressive signification is an important aspect of the poetics of laughter as the African comic imagination variously reflects across genres both the festival character of comedy and its pedagogical value This book marks an important contribution to African literature postcolonial literature world literature comic imagination poetics critical theory and African cinema Language Aesthetics of Modern African Drama Isaiah Ilo, 2013-11-13 The goal of this book is to initiate theoretical discussions on the popular subject of African literary language and the thrust of the contribution apart from theory building is the introduction of the Post indiginist concept next to the well known essentialist and hybrid concepts The study outlines a set of criteria for each aesthetic concept so that literary analysis based on the criteria will verify whether or not they are adequate for understanding explaining and describing African writers language usage It is expected that a language aesthetic theory in the African context may help in the study of individual writers styles and equally address a neglect of descriptive studies in African literary scholarship Modern African Stories, 1964 African Literature in the Twentieth Century O. R. Dathorne, 1975 Explores intellectual currents in African prose and verse from sung or chanted lines to modern writings Milestones in African Literature Toyin Falola, 2024-07-31 Milestones in African Literature offers an accessible guide to ten key moments in African literature It traces literature in Africa through forms and genres as well as social and political changes Toyin Falola embraces the richness of African literature and considers the oral tradition pre colonial literature apartheid print media and digital literature postcolonialism and migration literature He explores the realities of African people by drawing from and highlighting peoples convictions spirituality and pasts The book reveals African literature s capacity to convey cultural social and political messages through storytelling while depicting the social structures and cultural norms that shape these experiences through the examination of perspectives and literary works of African authors Milestones in African Literature is the ideal resource for undergraduate and graduate students interested in African literatures It will also be invaluable for teachers and researchers aiming to strengthen their knowledge The Growth of African Literature African Literature Association. Smithe, 2002 African literature like the continent itself is enormous and diverse East Africa's literature is different from West Africa's which is quite different from South Africa's which has different influences on it than North Africa's Africa's literature is based on a widespread heritage of oral literature some of which has now been recorded Arabic influence can be detected as well as European especially French and English
