Dunning, 1991-03-01 No artist critic or art historian disputes the importance of recording how and why our conceptions and methods of depicting pictorial space have changed from ancient to modern times and yet no previous book has provided a comprehensive history centered around these changing images of pictorial space and the ways in which their evolution reflects ideological changes in society Dunning traces the two thousand year evolution of the conception and the depiction of space in European primarily Italian and French and American painting Unraveling one illusory image after another into their particular elements he explains the development of new styles and images in painting as a continuous rearrangement of these basic elements Following this progression through the Greco Roman period the Italian Renaissance impressionism and the end of modern art the author concludes with today s postmodern concentration on linguistic aspects in painting a change from the former emphasis on space and illusion Changing Images of Pictorial Space with over forty illustrations will be of interest to a wide audience from art historians painters and art educators to general readers who wish to understand more about one of the central organizing principles in all schools and periods of art Sculpture Inside Outside Douglas Dreishpoon, 1988 Gauguin's 'nirvana' Paul Gauguin, Wadsworth Atheneum Staff, Stephen H. Kornhauser, Wadsworth Atheneum Museum of Art, Wadsworth Atheneum, 2001-01-01 Shortly before Gauguin made his first Tahitian journey in 1891 he spent nearly two years in the remote Breton fishing village of Le Pouldu Seeking creative isolation in a primitive setting he pursued his art accompanied by several followers One of them was the Dutch painter Meyer de Haan who was able to pay the living expenses in Le Pouldu and was also knowledgeable in literary and philosophical matters that fascinated Gauguin Their association resulted in some of Gauguin s most remarkable works including the Wadsworth Atheneum s symbolist portrait of de Haan inscribed Nirvana This and the rich variety of paintings and sculpture by Gauguin produced in 1889-90 are the focus of this beautiful book. Gauguin and de Haan settled into an inn at Le Pouldu run by an attractive unwed mother named Marie Henry who began a liaison with de Haan despite the fact that he was a sickly hunchback. The intensity of relations between Gauguin and de Haan is reflected in many of the works including frescoes which they installed in the inn. Gauguin's time in Le Pouldu was crucial to the advancement of his art and the vivid Breton subjects and personality of Meyer de Haan remained in his imagination to reappear even during his later Tahitian period. In this book several distinguished experts draw on previously unavailable sources to examine in depth the history of this period, Gauguin's relationship with de Haan, their interest in religion and exotic cultures and the meaning of the many innovative symbolist works they produced.
