Teaching Creative Writing H. Beck, 2012-10-18 Teaching Creative Writing includes lively contributions from two dozen leading practitioners in the field Topics addressed include history of Creative Writing workshops undergraduate postgraduate reflective activities assessment critical theory and information technology Christianity and Confucianism Christopher Hancock, 2020-12-10 Christianity and Confucianism Culture Faith and Politics sets comparative textual analysis against the backcloth of 2000 years of cultural political and religious interaction between China and the West As the world responds to China's rise and China positions herself for global engagement this major new study reawakens and revises an ancient conversation As a generous introduction to biblical Christianity and the Confucian Classics Christianity and Confucianism tells a remarkable story of mutual formation and cultural indebtedness East and West are shown to have shaped the mind heart culture philosophy and politics of the other and far more perhaps than either knows or would want to admit Christopher Hancock has provided a rich and stimulating resource for scholars and students diplomats and social scientists devotees of culture and those who pursue wisdom and peace today An Intellectual History of the Caribbean S. Torres-Saillant, 2006-01-08 This is first intellectual history of the Caribbean written by a top Caribbean studies scholar The book examines both the work of natives of the region as well as texts interpretive of the region produced by Western authors Stressing the experimental and cultural particularity of the Caribbean the study considers major questions in the field

Reading Hegel Robert Lucas Scott, 2025-03-14 Retrieves Hegelian speculative experience for literary theory The relationship between Hegel and literary theory has for a long time been both contested and paradoxical On the one hand theory is often skeptical of all that Hegel ostensibly stood for idealism systematicity and identity at the expense of difference Yet in spite of itself literary theory is taken to owe a profound debt to Hegel s philosophy Robert Lucas Scott s book complicates this account and argues that literary theory has made the mistake of abstracting Hegel s thought from its more dynamic presentation in Hegel s writings reducing Hegel to a series of propositions or positions Literary theory Scott argues misses what is perhaps the greatest innovation of Hegel s philosophy a presentation of experience that begins precisely by setting aside all preconceptions or prior assumptions It is on this point that Hegel s philosophy itself approaches literature its content cannot be simply abstracted from the singular experience of reading it Only through a mode of reading alive to speculative experience can literary theory become truly Hegelian Scott s exposition of Hegel offers a model of reading with relevance beyond philosophy one that is critical without pretensions of mastery and detachment and that honors the singularity of the reading experience without succumbing to the subjectivism of the postcritical The book also includes engagements with the work of Luther Kant Marx Gillian Rose Fredric Jameson Robert Brandom Catherine Malabou and more in its recovery of Hegel s thought for a critical understanding of our time

Marx and We Sun Zhengyu,2024-08-01 Marxist ideology is the only fully scientific ideology the only one able to guide mankind toward the settlement of fundamental social problems and to point out the royal road for the proletariat to take in its march toward socialism and communism Without Marxism modern people cannot establish true social ideals nor can they engage in the rational pursuit of values Without Marxism modern people cannot choose the correct path of development nor can they build up new forms of civilizations Without Marxism modern people would never base their commitments to schedule the consensus building effort and support the consensus building process on any irrefutably and sufficiently sound theoretical foundations

Regional Modernisms Neal Alexander,2013-10-14 Where did literary modernism happen This book answers this question re evaluating the parameters of modernism in the light of recent developments in literary geography and literary history through an examination of novels poetry theatre and little magazines Essays identify and appraise the local attachments of modernist texts in particular geographical regions and question the idea of the regional in light of the alienating displacements of transnational modernity

Literary Drowning Stephanie Pocock Boeninger,2020-10-23 Literary depictions of drowning or burial at sea provide fascinating glimpses into the often conflicted human relationship with memory For many cultures and religious traditions properly remembering the dead involves burial a funeral and some kind of grave marker Traditional rituals of memorialization are disturbed by the drowned body which may remain lost at sea or be washed up unrecognized on a distant shore The first book of its kind Literary Drowning explores depictions of the drowned body in twentieth century Irish and Caribbean postcolonial literature uncovering a complex transatlantic conversation that reconsiders memory forgetfulness and the role that each plays in the making of the postcolonial subject and nation Faced with fissures in cultural memory postcolonial writers often identify their situation and their nation s with that of the drowned body Floating aimlessly without a grave unmemorialized and perhaps unremembered the drowned corpse embodies the troubled memory of the postcolonial nation or individual Boeninger follows a trail of drowned bodies and literary influence from the turn of the century Irish playwright J M Synge through the poems and plays of St Lucian Nobel laureate Derek Walcott to the lesser known work of Guyanese British novelist and poet David Dabydeen and finally to the contemporary Irish plays of Marina Carr Each author while borrowing from those who came before changes the image of the drowned body to reflect different facets of the project of remembering postcolonially

The Cambridge Companion to Modernist Poetry Alex Davis, Lee M. Jenkins,2007-07-19 This Companion offers the most comprehensive overview available of modernist poetry its forms its major authors and its contexts The first part explores the historical and cultural contexts and sexual politics of literary modernism and the avant garde The chapters in the second part concentrate on individual authors and movements while the concluding part offers a comprehensive overview of the early reception and subsequent canonisation of modernist poetry As well as insightful readings of canonical poets the

Companion features extended discussions of poets whose importance is now being increasingly recognised such as Mina Loy poets of the Harlem Renaissance and postcolonial poets in the Caribbean Africa and India While modernist poets are often thought of as difficult these essays will help students to understand and enjoy their experimental playful and fascinating responses to contemporary social and cultural change and their dialogue with the arts and with each other Secret

Writings of Hoshang Merchant Akshaya K. Rath,2016-07-07 Never a shrinking violet Hoshang Merchant came out of the closet early in his youth A bard a teacher and a lover who has lived many lives he is the quintessential gay who once cross dressed and yet defies categorization In Secret Writings he recounts his extraordinary life and splendid experiences ranging across countries and cultures His is a story of the prejudice and neglect that are part of everyday gay life and how he channelled his despair into creating poetry He quotes Rumi Ghalib and Mir and writes with searing honesty about his long and short love affairs his improbable sex life as both an initiator and a yielding partner and his inner turmoil Sex becomes love and love becomes poetry in his writing Merchant yells at the moral guardians of law and culture asks uncomfortable questions and shocks his readers This rare book opens a window to the myriad worlds of an avant garde Archiving Loss

Martine Hawkes,2018-05-11 Drawing together many stories from the archives of difficult events and volatile histories Archiving Loss Holding Places for Difficult Memories asks how we might cut and walk a path for memory loss and silence in the archive The difficult events discussed in this book include state responses to refugees events of genocide alongside other less documented pockets of trauma violence and loss This book describes the archives whose language and logic have shaped our ways we remember and respond to difficult events and the ways in which we expect memory and loss to be coherent credible and lead to clear conclusions In asking what is missing and what is found in the archives of difficult events this book argues for the necessity of looking more closely at other ways of remembering loss and archiving memory Ancestral

Voices, Healing Narratives Kristina S. Gibby,2023-12-06 Ancestral Voices Healing Narratives Female Ghosts in Contemporary US and Caribbean Fiction examines four novels by Erna Brodber Zo Vald s Sandra Cisneros and Maryse Condé In this unique comparative analysis Kristina S Gibby explores the significance of female ghosts specifically maternal figures who haunt female narrators inspiring them to transcribe the dead s obfuscated hi stories and recover their family memory The author argues that these female ghosts subvert historiographic power structures through a matrilineal succession of knowledge via oral traditions of storytelling inevitably broadening historical consciousness and asserting the value of fiction in the face of historical rupture Gibby contends that in form and content these novels disrupt patriarchal and Western expectations of time and epistemology They favor cyclical temporality highlighted by the spirits uncanny return which underscores relational understanding and challenges the exclusive and limiting constraints of linear time This book makes important contributions to inter American literary criticism with its narrow focus on female authors who confront the horrors of history through maternal spirits Major Realist Film Theorists Ian Aitken,2016-05-31 From the 1910s to the emergence of structuralism and post structuralism in the 1960s the writings of John Grierson Siegfried Kracauer Andre Bazin and Georg Lukacs dominated realist film theory In this critical anthology the first collection to address their work in one volume a wide range of international scholars explore the interconnections between their ideas and help generate new understandings of this important if neglected field Challenging preconceptions about classical theory and the nature of realist representation and in the process demonstrating how this body of work can be seen as a cohesive theoretical model this invaluable collection will help return the realist paradigm of film theory to the forefront of academic enquiry Islamic Crosspollinations Anna Akasoy,James Edward Montgomery,Peter E. Pormann,2007 The story of texts and ideas from ancient Greece passing through a monolithic Islam enroute to Christian Europe is now being reconsidered In this book classicists and other scholars point out some of the many paths of transmission of thought Their topics include Greek myth and Arabic poetry at Qusayr Amra the multi lingual and multi confessional maze of Islamic medicine and memories of Egypt in medieval Venice The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2009 Perspectives on Philosophy of Science in Nursing E. Carol Polifroni,Marylouise Welch,1999 This book helps you provide a well rounded doctoral curriculum The philosophy of science is essential to the core of doctoral study in nursing This text presents historical and contemporary thinking on this significant subject Readers will find a wealth of information from a variety of philosophers and conceptualizers of Western science The text s approach stimulates analysis and reflection for enhanced learning Coverage straddles the balance between nurse and non nurse philosophers with discussion and reflective questions and includes thoughts about nursing as a science and an art Students will learn to recognize the connection between an understanding of philosophic inquiry and scientific investigation or research in nursing Compatibility BlackBerry OS 4 1 or Higher iPhone iPod Touch 2 0 or Higher Palm OS 3 5 or higher Palm Pre Classic Symbian S60 3rd edition Nokia Windows Mobile Pocket PC all versions Windows Mobile Smartphone Windows 98SE 2000 ME XP Vista Tablet PC American Book Publishing Record ,2005
