Women and Politics around the World Joyce Gelb, Marian Lief Palley, 2009-03-30 A unique two volume examination of the progress women have made in achieving political equality Women and Politics around the World addresses both transnational and gender related issues as well as specific conditions in more than 20 countries Women and Politics around the World A Comparative History and Survey is an exploration of the role of women in political systems worldwide as well as an examination of how government actions in various countries have an impact on the lives of the female population Women and Politics around the World divides its coverage into two volumes The first looks at such crucial issues facing women today as health policy civil rights and education comparing conditions around the world The second volume profiles 22 different countries representing a broad range of governments economies and cultures Each profile looks at the history and current state of women's political and economic participation in a particular country and includes an in depth look at a representative policy The result is a resource unlike any other one that gives students researchers and other interested readers a fresh new way of investigating a truly global issue      Mencius and Masculinities Joanne D.

Birdwhistell,2012-02-01 In this innovative work Joanne D Birdwhistell presents the first gender analysis of the Mencius a central text in the Chinese philosophical tradition Mencian philosophy particularly its ideas about the processes by which a man could develop into a cultivated gentleman was important to the political thought of China's long imperial order Through close textual readings Birdwhistell offers a new interpretation of core Mencian ideas about the heart and the self cultivation of the great man She argues that the concept of masculinity advocated by the Mencius is derived although without acknowledgment from maternal practices and thinking through processes of appropriation inversion and transformation She illustrates that even though maternal practices and thinking are an invisible dimension of Mencian thought they are constantly present in the text through their transcoding with agricultural practices and thinking      Maria W. Stewart and the Roots of Black Political Thought Kristin Waters,2021-11-01 Named a 2022 finalist for the Pauli Murray Book Prize in Black Intellectual History from the African American Intellectual History Society Maria W Stewart and the Roots of Black Political Thought tells a crucial almost forgotten story of African Americans of early nineteenth century America In 1833 Maria W Stewart 1803 1879 told a gathering at the African Masonic Hall on Boston's Beacon Hill African rights and liberty is a subject that ought to fire the breast of every free man of color in these United States She exhorted her audience to embrace the idea that the founding principles of the nation must extend to people of color Otherwise those truths are merely the hypocritical expression of an ungodly white power a travesty of original democratic ideals Like her mentor David Walker Stewart illustrated the practical inconsistencies of classical liberalism as enacted in the US and delivered a call to action for ending racism and addressing gender discrimination Between 1831 and 1833 Stewart's intellectual productions as she called them ranged across topics from true emancipation for African Americans the Black convention movement the hypocrisy of white Christianity Black liberation theology and gender inequity Along with Walker's Appeal to the Coloured Citizens of the World her body of work constitutes a significant foundation for a moral and political theory that is finding new resonance today insurrectionist ethics In this work of recovery author Kristin Waters examines the roots of Black political activism in the petition movement Prince Hall and the creation of the first Black masonic lodges the Black Baptist movement spearheaded by the brothers Thomas Benjamin and Nathaniel Paul writings sermons and the practices of festival days through the story of this remarkable but largely unheralded woman and pioneering public intellectual      What Is

Enlightenment? James Schmidt,1996-09-08 This collection contains the first English translations of a group of 18th century German essays that address the question what is Enlightenment They explore the origins of 18th century debate on the Enlightenment and its significance for the present      A History of Women's Political Thought in Europe, 1700-1800

Karen Green,2014-12-04 During the eighteenth century elite women participated in the philosophical scientific and political controversies that resulted in the overthrow of monarchy the reconceptualisation of marriage and the emergence of modern democratic institutions In this comprehensive study Karen Green outlines and discusses the ideas and arguments of these women exploring the development of their distinctive and contrasting political positions and their engagement with the works of political thinkers such as Hobbes Locke Mandeville and Rousseau Her exploration ranges across Europe from England through France Italy Germany and Russia and discusses thinkers including Mary Astell Emilie Du Châtelet Luise Kulmus Gottsched and Elisabetta Caminer Turra This study demonstrates the depth of women's contributions to eighteenth century political debates recovering their historical significance and deepening our understanding of this period in intellectual history It will provide an essential resource for readers in political philosophy political theory intellectual history and women's studies

Girls Catherine Driscoll, 2002 Driscoll argues that both girls and culture as ideas are too problematic to fulfill any useful role in theorizing about the emergence of feminine adolescence in popular culture

Citizenship and the Ethics of Care Selma Sevenhuijsen, 2003-09-02 Care and women's emancipation have often been seen as opposed Politicians have begun to look again at the issue of care in the context of new reforms in the welfare state health care policies and family law Using concrete examples taken from parental rights cases health care education and the public health sector Using concrete examples taken from the practice and discourse of care those found in parental rights issues health care education the family and in the public health sector Sevenhuijsen argues for revaluation of care from a feminist perspective

Nietzsche's Revolution C. Schotten, 2009-07-20 This book claims Nietzsche as a leftist revolutionary but without overlooking the conservative and retrogressive elements of his political philosophy The author argues that these two halves of his philosophy help construct a new form of politics for contemporary readers a possibility of revolution post Marx

Feminist Readings of Antigone Fanny Söderbäck, 2010-10-29 New and classic essays on Antigone and feminist philosophy

Knowing Victims Rebecca Stringer, 2014-06-20 Knowing Victims explores the theme of victimhood in contemporary feminism and politics It focuses on popular and scholarly constructions of feminism as victim feminism an ideology of passive victimhood that denies women's agency and provides the first comprehensive analysis of the debate about this ideology which has unfolded among feminists since the 1980s The book critically examines a movement away from the language of victimhood across a wide array of discourses and the neoliberal replacement of the concept of structural oppression with the concept of personal responsibility In derogating the notion of victim neoliberalism promotes a conception of victimization as subjective rather than social a state of mind rather than a worldly situation Drawing upon Nietzsche Lyotard rape crisis feminism and feminist philosophy Stringer situates feminist politicizations of rape interpersonal violence economic inequality and welfare reform as key sites of resistance to the victim blaming logic of neoliberalism She suggests that although recent feminist critiques of victim feminism have critically diagnosed the anti victim movement they have not positively defended victim politics Stringer argues that a conception of the victim as an agentic bearer of knowledge and an understanding of resentment as a generative force for social change provides a potent counter to the negative construction of victimhood characteristic of the neoliberal era This accessible and insightful analysis of feminism neoliberalism and the social construction of victimhood will be of great interest to researchers and students in the disciplines of gender and women s studies psychology sociology politics and philosophy Philosophy of Meaning, Knowledge and Value in the 20th Century John V. Canfield, 2016-03-31 The twentieth century brought enormous change to subjects such as language metaphysics ethics and epistemology This volume covers the major developments in these areas and more
