Modern Europe After Fascism, 1943-1980s Stein Ugelvik Larsen, Bernt Hagtvet, 1998 This comprehensive study of the fate of fascism after World War II by fifty of the leading scholars of fascism and totalitarianism focuses on developments in Germany Austria Italy Central and Eastern Europe the neutral countries and those not occupied by Germany the western European countries occupied by German forces and Spain Portugal and Greece Europe after Empire Elizabeth

Buettner, 2016-03-24 Europe after Empire is a pioneering comparative history of European decolonization from the formal ending of empires to the postcolonial European present Elizabeth Buettner charts the long term development of post war decolonization processes as well as the histories of inward and return migration from former empires which followed She shows that not only were former colonies remade as a result of the path to decolonization so too was Western Europe with imperial traces scattered throughout popular and elite cultures consumer goods religious life political formations and ideological terrains People were also inwardly mobile including not simply Europeans returning home but Asians Africans West Indians and others who made their way to Europe to forge new lives The result is a Europe fundamentally transformed by multicultural diversity and cultural hybridity and by the destabilization of assumptions about race culture and the meanings of place and where imperial legacies and memories live on The Nature of Fascism Roger Griffin, 2013-10-11

The Nature of Fascism draws on the history of ideas as well as on political social and psychological theory to produce a synthesis of ideas and approaches that will be invaluable for students Roger Griffin locates the driving force of fascism in a distinctive form of utopian myth that of the regenerated national community destined to rise up from the ashes of a decadent society He lays bare the structural affinity that relates fascism not only to Nazism but to the many failed fascist movements that surfaced in inter war Europe and elsewhere and traces the unabated proliferation of virulent but thus far successfully marginalized fascist activism since 1945 Contemporary British Fascism N. Copsey, 2016-02-02

For the first time since the 1970s when the National Front became Britain's fourth largest political party the recent electoral success of the British National Party has put Britain's extreme right back on the political map Nigel Copsey provides a clear and comprehensive analysis of the history of the British National Party and its struggle for political legitimacy With far right parties enjoying unprecedented success across Europe this book also locates its subject in the broader international context Reassessing

Political Ideologies Michael Freeden, 2004-08-02 This book is a high level examination of each of the major ideologies that have shaped political thinking action and conflict Each chapter provides a critical overview of the current state of the major ideologies and a retrospective assessment of the strengths weaknesses developments and transformations of these ideologies over the past century The volume poses a strong challenge to those who have loudly proclaimed the end of ideology by demonstrating that it is impossible to understand current political developments without an appreciation of their ideological context It features internationally respected contributors who are authorities in their fields and will be an invaluable resource for both students and specialists in areas including Politics and International Relations

Pluralism and Law A. Soeteman, 2013-04-17 AREND SOETEMAN In the past we lived on one earth but in many different worlds Different civilisations in regions far apart knew about one another at least from about the 16th century they competed with one another or tried to dominate the other they influenced one another but in many important aspects they were independent from one another Somewhere in the 20th century however this changed There is no far apart anymore We have lived through two European wars which developed into world wars Modern aeroplanes allow us to travel in only a couple of hours around the world Instant communication between individuals who have the whole globe in between is a reality There still exist great differences between different civilisations But they can ignore one another only at their peril They deeply influence one another Today therefore we live in one world Conflicts in the Middle East in Rwanda and Uganda or in the former Yugoslavia have their impact all over the world Violations of human rights no matter where are increasingly considered to be the concern of all of us The whims and caprices of some dictator may influence the spending possibilities of the general public far away

Gastrofascism and Empire Simone Cinotto, 2024-08-08 Food stood at the centre of Mussolini's attempt to occupy Ethiopia and build an Italian Empire in East Africa Seeking to redirect the surplus of Italian rural labor from migration overseas to its own Empire the fascist regime envisioned transforming Ethiopia into Italy's granary to establish self sufficiency demographic expansion and strengthen Italy's international political position While these plans failed the extensive food exchanges and culinary hybridizations between Ethiopian and Italian food cultures thrived and resulted in the creation of an Ethiopian Italian cuisine a taste of Empire at the margins In studying food in short lived Italian East Africa Gastrofascism and Empire breaks significant new ground in our understanding of the workings of empire in the circulation of bodies foodways and global practices of dependence and colonialism as well as the decolonizing practices of indigenous food and African anticolonial resistance In East Africa Fascist Italy brought older imperial models of global food to a hypermodern level in all its political technoscientific environmental and nutritional aspects This larger story of food sovereignty entered in racist mass settler colonialism is dramatically different from the plantation and trade colonialisms of other empires and has never been comprehensively told Using an original decolonizing food studies approach and an unprecedented variety of unexplored Ethiopian and Italian sources Cinotto describes the different meanings of different foods for different people at different points of the imperial food chain Exploring the subjectivities agencies and emotions of Ethiopian and Italian men and women it goes beyond simple colonizer colonized binaries and offers a nuanced picture of lived multisensorial experiences with food and empire
