Modern Housing Estates 1st Edition Uk:

Great Estates Sarah Yates, Peter Murray, 2024-03-01 The only book that brings together all London's historic and contemporary Great Estates documents a remarkable history unique to England but with lessons for landowners and communities around the world Shows how they shape the way development takes place in England providing essential lessons to all those wishing to understand city planning whether practitioners or academics Provides a model example of corporate modernisation following the impact of leasehold reform Much of the story of London's development can be traced through the historic ownership of large pieces of land which through the ongoing ownership of freehold assets and their lease terms have created a resilient cycle of change and renewal Today this long term attitude to investment development and management has influenced the development of new large scale and mixed use areas of the capital such as King's Cross Canary Wharf and the Olympic Park This book provides a comprehensive picture on all of London's historic and contemporary estates and sets out what we can learn from them on the most successful principles of placemaking for the future Part retrospective part forward looking the book will provide lessons on place shaping management and stewardship for global cities looking to learn from this unique London model Homes, Cities and Neighbourhoods Barry

Goodchild, 2016-12-14 Given current projections of population and household numbers housing has become arguably the most important issue in planning Likewise planning raises arguably the most important long term issues in housing given the environmental consequences of urban development and the use of the home Homes Cities and Neighbourhoods documents the evolution of typical urban landscapes from 1900 to the present with an emphasis on contemporary issues and practice In doing this the book examines in detail An Atmospheric History of Smoking in Modern Britain Ivan Markovic, 2025-01-09 This book studies the historiography of smoking in modern Britain with a focus on the social cultural and emotional aspects of the practice Centring on four specific moments in modern British history the turn of the 20th century the Second World War the 1980s and the mid 2000s An Atmospheric History of Smoking not only traces the history of tobacco use but explores the cultural significance of and attitudes toward smoking Markovic combines oral histories with archival research and artefact analysis in order to evoke the unique social atmospheres surrounding smoking at each of these key periods within British history By analysing factors such as the encouragement of the practice as part of Home Front mood management during the Second World War or the impact of smoking on 1980s workplace relations this book highlights how the role of smoking in public spheres has undergone significant change throughout the 20th century Constructing the 2007 UK ban on smoking in public places as a turning point for the practice in the British cultural imagination Markovic examines how smoking has both been deemed out of place and yet still persists today Development of the Constitutions in China and the Visegrad States Lu Da, 2021-08-30 This book deals with the development of constitutional law in China and Visegrad states by employing a comparative perspective It is the first time that the researcher compared the constitutional development in the

China and the Visegrad states It offers a few glimpses of development of constitution in the former socialist states to readers who are interested in the constitutional law or China V4 relations With the increased cooperation between China and V4 countries this book gives the undergraduates in the university to think about the BRI and 17 1 network from a Chinese perspective Last compared to the previous works which mainly focus on North America and or Western Europe this book provides a new angle on comparative constitutional law Building for the Future: Durable, Sustainable, Resilient Alper Ilki,Derya Çavunt,Yavuz Selim Çavunt,2023-05-31 This book presents the proceedings of the fib Symposium Building for the future Durable Sustainable Resilient held in Istanbul Turkey on 5 7 June 2023 The book covers topics such as concrete and innovative materials structural performance and design construction methods and management and outstanding structures fib The International Federation for Structural Concrete is a not for profit association whose mission is to develop at an international level the study of scientific and practical matters capable of advancing the technical economic aesthetic and environmental performance of concrete construction The Making of the Modern British Home Peter Scott,2013-08-29 The Making of the Modern British Home explores the impact of the modern suburban semi detached house on British family life during the 1920s and 1930s focusing primarily on working class households who moved from cramped inner urban accommodation to new suburban council or owner occupied housing estates Migration to suburbia is shown to have initiated a dramatic transformation in lifestyles from a traditional working class mode of living based around long established tightly knit urban communities to a recognisably modern mode centred around the home the nuclear family and building a better future for the next generation This process had far reaching impacts on family life entailing a change in household priorities to meet the higher costs of suburban living which in turn impacted on many aspects of household behaviour including family size This volume also constitutes a general history of the development of both owner occupied and municipal suburban housing estates in interwar Britain including the evolution of housing policy the housing development process housing and estate design lay outs and architectural features marketing owner occupation and consumer durables to a mass market furnishing the new suburban home making ends meet suburban gardens social filtering and conflict on the new estates and problems of mis selling and Jerry building Peter Scott integrates the social history of the interwar suburbs with their economic business marketing and architectural planning histories demonstrating how these elements interacted to produce a new model of working class lifestyles and respectability which marked a fundamental break with pre 1914 working class urban communities The Estate House Re-designed Anthony Sully,2018-08-07 The book demonstrates how new houses can be designed to be more sustainable and ergonomic Specifically it describes a prototype building that could be constructed in the near future Responding to some of the poor standards of mass estate housing in the UK and its out of date space standards it contributes towards improving the current status quo by describing a house design including drawings that can compete with today s mass housing The author examines the traditional geometrical reliance on the square in the design of houses and the planning of housing estates and promotes instead the adoption of polygonal forms This is explained using geometric analysis diagrams and references to existing housing These concepts have been developed with reference to technical literature from various companies with one company interested in taking it further Providing a novel and up to date design concept this book is of value to practitioners and researchers looking to improve the standard of mass housing in the UK It is also of interest to anyone wishing to build their own house and to manufacturers wanting to move into modern housing technology The Residential Pathway Jane Forsyth, 2025-05-28 The Residential Pathway APC Essentials was written to facilitate and encourage candidates preparing for the RICS Assessment of Professional Competence APC to become Chartered Surveyors This book will help candidates their Counsellors and supervisors to understand The requirements of the Residential pathway The detail of the technical competencies How to select suitable competencies How to demonstrate the required knowledge and experience and How to succeed in the final interview It will also be a useful reference for AssocRICS candidates and qualified professionals This concise book has clear headings to guide readers with bullet point checklists and signposting to key themes and important sources for further reading It alerts readers to the need to be aware of changes and developments in the residential sector and to the wider economic social and political factors that influence it This book includes lists of relevant RICS and other professional publications the laws and regulations that frame professional surveying practice and example written submissions for the technical competencies at each level It will help to motivate and reassure candidates giving them confidence to recognise the value and relevance of their knowledge and practical experience and to understand how to best apply this to demonstrate their professional competence Internal Migration Darren P. Smith, Nissa Finney, Nigel Walford, 2016-03-09 Over the last two decades there have been numerous profound changes in UK society which have had an impact on the scale geographies meaning and experiences of internal migration Providing a critical appraisal of migration scholarship from the perspective of Geography reviewing theory substantive foci and method this book demonstrates how sub national migration in the UK gives rise to and reflects new patterns of population housing economies and cultures Each chapter is written by a Population Geographer together with a scholar representing another Human Geography sub discipline thus providing a cross disciplinary perspective on a specific aspect of migration Critically reviewing and setting an agenda for internal migration scholarship from a spatial perspective this book will be of interest to academics and students of Geography and other disciplines concerned with migration both within the UK and further afield London Anthony Sutcliffe, Professor Anthony Sutcliffe, 2006-01-01 London is one of the world's greatest cities and its architecture is a unique heritage The Tower of London is an urban castle unique in Europe St Paul's is one of the world's greatest domed cathedrals and the squares and crescents of the West End inspired Haussmann's Paris In London it is the variety of the streets buildings and parks that strikes the visitor No king or government has ever set its mark here Private ownership has shaped the city and architects have served a wide variety of clients London's Classical era produced an elegant townscape between 1600 and 1830 but medieval Tudor and Victorian London were a potpourri of buildings large and small each making its own design statement In London An Architectural History Anthony Sutcliffe takes the reader through two thousand years of architecture from the sublime to the mundane With over 300 color illustrations the book is intended for the general reader and especially those visiting London for the first time Routledge Library
