The Eucharist in Modern Philosophy Xavier Tilliette, 2022-12-27 The Eucharist in Modern Philosophy is one of the last books written by the renowned Jesuit philosopher Xavier Tilliette 1921 2018 and the first to be translated into English Jonathan Martin Ciraulo the translator also provides an introduction to the thought of Tilliette and the content of this book while Cyril O Regan provides the foreword noting the particular intellectual characteristics of Tilliette and his analysis of eucharistic philosophies In addition to being known as one of the foremost experts on the German Idealist Friedrich Schelling Tilliette wrote voluminously on the relationship between modern philosophy and theology particularly concerning the way in which Christology is central to the development of modern philosophy In this volume he extends that project to look at how various philosophers such as Descartes Leibniz Hegel Blondel and Marion as well as poets and mystics such as de Chardin Simone Weil and Paul Claudel thought extensively about the question of the Eucharist The result is an enormous diversity of Eucharistic thought from Descartes attempt to justify transubstantiation in light of his philosophical revolution to Feuerbach's supposed exposure of the contradiction inherent to sacramentality to Antonio Rosmini's eucharistic piety and speculation to Maurice Blondel's recovery and expansion of Leibniz's notion of the substantial bond Tilliette shows that this philosophical conversation about the Eucharist is a living tradition as the aporias and failures of one generation provide stimulus for all that follows Much of the work is largely historical showing in great detail the context of each particular eucharistic philosophy but Tilliette also evaluates the relative fruitfulness of the various eucharistic theories for philosophy theology and the life of the Church This book demonstrates that the Eucharist has been and will likely continue to be a major impetus for philosophical reflection God and Intelligence in Modern Philosophy Fulton John Sheen, 1925 Debates in Modern Philosophy Stewart Duncan, Antonia LoLordo, 2013-09-13 Debates in Modern Philosophy Essential Readings and
