Modern Policing:

Modern Policing David Watts Pope, Norman L. Weiner, 2023-03-31 Originally published in 1981 Modern Policing provided an opportunity for members of the Police Staff College Bramshill to air their views about different aspects of modern British policing Contributions were made by members of the directing staff professional and academic and by students This book was addressed primarily to policemen themselves but also had wider appeal to those interested in policing The editors saw within police constabularies a rapidly developing concern for management information by senior police personnel for material to better prepare officers for their difficult task by training departments for relevant analyses to help improve qualifications by policemen themselves This was one of the first books to include views from inside the police rather than those from the outside the service
