Modern Art And Modernism Francis Frascina, 2018-05-04 Modern Art and Modernism offers firsthand material for the study of issues central to the development of modern art its theory and criticism The history of modern art is not simply a history of works of art it is also a history of ideas interpretations The works of critics and theorists have not merely been influential in deciding how modern art is to be seen and understood they have also influenced the course it has taken The nature of modern art cannot be understood without some analysis of the concept of Modernism itself Modern Art and Modernism presents a selection of texts by the major contributors to debate on this subject from Baudelaire and Zola in the nineteenth century to Greenberg and T J Clark in our own times It offers a balanced section of essays by contributors to the mainstream of Modernist criticism representative examples of writing on the themes of abstraction and expression in modern art and a number of important contributions to the discussion of aesthetics and the social role of the artist Several of these are made available in English translation for the first time and others are brought together from a wide range of periodicals and specialized collections This book will provide an invaluable resource for teachers and students of modern art art history and aesthetics as well as for general readers interested in the place of modern art in culture and history      Jimmy Ernst Donald Burton Kuspit, Jimmy Ernst, 2000 This long overdue monograph relates the fascinating story of the son of great surrealist master Max Ernst and a Jewish mother killed in the Holocaust      Catalog of the Library of the Museum of Modern Art: A Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.). view of the artist Studies by Sutherland along with preparatory works for what would become renowned paintings are published for the first time Graham Sutherland's distinctive style and the emotions that shaped the paintings are here vividly explored Thuillier describes not only the inspiration he found in the windswept Pembrokeshire countryside but also his time as an official war artist and his friendships inside and outside the art world She expertly details the process behind the creation of works such as the controversial portrait of Churchill 1954 subsequently destroyed and his most famous work the huge Christ in Glory in the Tetramorph tapestry 1962 in Coventry Cathedral Graham Sutherland Life Work and Ideas is not merely a biography but a journey behind the scenes of the artist's career exploring the paintings relationships and influences that formed his vision as an artist and his undeniable contribution to art The Publishers Weekly, 1916 Elements Of Interior Design And Decoration Sherrill Whiton, 2013-04-18 Many of the earliest books particularly those dating back to the 1900s and before are now extremely scarce and increasingly expensive We are republishing these classic works in affordable high quality modern editions using the original text and artwork

The Oxford History of Western Art Martin Kemp, 2000 The Oxford History of Western Art is the new authority on the development of visual culture in the West over the last 2700 years from the classical period to the end of the twentieth century OHWA is an innovative and challenging reappraisal of how the history of art can be presented and understood None of the currently available general histories of art offers the wealth of perspectives and cross media references of this book Through a carefully devised modular structure readers are given insights not only into how and why works of art were created but also how works in different media relate to each other across time Here uniquely is not the simple linear story of art but a rich series of stories told from varying viewpoints The founding principle of the book has been to use carefully selected groupings of pictures to give readers a sense of the visual texture of the various periods and episodes covered The 167 illustration groups supported by explanatory text and picture captions create a sequence of visual tours not merely a procession of individually great works viewed in isolation but juxtapositions of significant images that powerfully convey a sense of the visual environments in which works of art need to be viewed in order to be understood and appreciated The aim throughout has been to make the shape and nature of these visual presentations a stimulating and rewarding experience allowing readers to become active participants in the process of interpretation and synthesis Another key feature of the narrative is the redefinition of traditional period boundaries Rather than relying on conventional labels such as Medieval Renaissance Baroque etc five major phases of significant historical change are established that unlock longer and more meaningful continuities The art of classical antiquity from c 600 BC to the fall of Rome in AD 410 The establishment of visual culture in Europe from 410 to 1527 the sack of papal Rome European visual regimes from 1527 to 1770 The era of revolutions 1770 to 1914 Modernism and after 1914 to 2000 This new framework shows how the major religious and secular functions of art have been forged sustained transformed revived and revolutionized over the ages how the institutions of Church and State have consistently aspired to make art in their own image and how the rise of art history itself has come to provide the dominant conceptual framework within which artists create patrons patronize collectors collect galleries exhibit dealers deal and art historians write The text has been written by a team of 50 specialist authors working under the direction of Professor Martin Kemp one of the UK's most distinguished art historians Whilst bringing their own expertise and vision to their sections each author was also asked to relate their text to a number of unifying themes and issues including written evidence physical contexts patronage viewing and reception techniques gender and racial issues centres and peripheries media and condition the notion of art and current presentations Though the coverage of topics focuses on European notions of art and their transplantation and transformation in North America space is also given to cross fertilizations with other traditions including the art of Latin America the Soviet Union India Africa and Afro Caribbean Australia and Canada Professor Kemp and his team similarly deal generously with the applied arts and reproductive media such as photography and prints The result is a vibrant vigorous and revolutionary account of Western art serving both as an inspirational introduction for the general reader and an authoritative source of reference and guidance for students Catalog of the Avery Memorial Architectural Library of Columbia University Avery Library, 1968

Acrobatic Modernism from the Avant-Garde to Prehistory Jed Rasula, 2020-02-27 This is a book about artistic modernism contending with the historical transfigurations of modernity As a conscientious engagement with modernity's restructuring of the lifeworld the modernist avant garde raised the stakes of this engagement to programmatic explicitness But even beyond the vanguard the global phenomenon of jazz combined somatic assault with sensory tutelage Jazz like the new technologies of modernity recalibrated sensory ratios The criterion of the new as self making also extended to names pseudonyms and heteronyms The protocols of modernism solicited a pragmatic arousal of bodily sensation as artistic resource validating an acrobatic sensibility ranging from slapstick and laughter to the pathos of bereavement Expressivity trumped representation The artwork was a diagram of perception not a mimetic rendering For artists the historical pressures of altered perception provoked new models and Ezra Pound's slogan Make It New became the generic rallying cry of renovation The paradigmatic stance of the avant garde was established by Futurism but the discovery of prehistoric art added another provocation to artists Paleolithic caves validated the spirit of all over composition unframed and dynamic Geometric abstraction Constructivism and Purism and Surrealism were all in quest of a new mythology Making it new yielded a new pathos in the sensation of radical discrepancy between futurist striving and remotest antiquity The Paleolithic cave and the USSR emitted comparable siren calls on behalf of the remote past and the desired future As such the present was suffused with the pathos of being neither but subject to both Catalogue of the Library of the National
