provocative In Modern North Architecture on the Frozen Edge author Julie Decker presents thirty four of the most compelling and far ranging possibilities of contemporary architecture in the North These buildings located in northern Canada Scandinavia and Alaska are united in the way they embrace extreme conditions and provide visual stimulation in places that sometimes offer little more than a whitescape The book contains innovative structures by both established and up and coming architects including David Chipperfield Architects Studio Granda and Shim Sutcliffe Architects as well as essays by Brian Carter Juhani Pallasmaa Edwin Crittenden and Lisa Rochon that place the projects in the context of a new architectural response to the North BOOK JACKET Canadian Reference Sources Mary E. Kornwolf, Georgiana Wallis Kornwolf, 2002 Incorporating more than 3 000 illustrations Kornwolf's work conveys the full range of the colonial encounter with the continent's geography from the high forms of architecture through formal landscape design and town planning From these pages emerge the fine arts of environmental design an understanding of the political and economic events that helped to determine settlement in North America an appreciation of the various architectural and landscape forms that the settlers created and an awareness of the diversity of the continent s geography and its peoples Considering the humblest buildings along with the mansions of the wealthy and powerful public buildings forts and churches Kornwolf captures the true dynamism and diversity of colonial communities their rivalries and frictions their outlooks and attitudes as they extended their hold on the land
